

BILLS GETS HIS REVENGE

Released by Bourke, Turns in and Helps to Down Omaha Nine.

LOCALS MANAGE TO GET A RUN

Leno Score Comes When Regan Makes an Error and Throws Wild to the First Base.

Joe Hills, erstwhile pitcher for the Omaha team, but whom Bourke released unconditionally, figured prominently in yesterday's game in which Wichita won, 2 to 1. Hills is now playing right field for the Athletics and sent across the first tally and he scored a few seconds later on Koerner's single past second.

Harry Hicks, who was elected to work for the Athletics, pitched a good game, but the three lunched hits in the initial inning proved his Waterloo. On the other hand, Regan, a new swirler secured by Wichita, held Omaha helpless all through the game. At no time was he in danger, keeping his hits well scattered. In the ninth frame the Athletics garnered two safe hits, but they failed to materialize into runs.

Omaha secured its only run through an error by Regan and had it not been for his wild throw of Hicks' easy grounder the Omaha team would have been held scoreless.

In the fifth inning Regan got himself in a bad hole, but emerged without a scratch. With the bases choked and but one out, he settled down and hurled air tight ball. Thompson, who is usually good for a safe hit when hits are needed, sent a stinging grounder to Hughes who threw Schipke out at the plate and then Kane popped one up to Pettigrew, ending Omaha's chances of scoring.

Looked Like a Rally. Omaha started the ninth with which looked like a rally. With Grubb in the lead, Schipke poked a single through the pitcher's box. Shestak went in to bat for Hicks and slammed out a neat single to center, Schipke taking second. Naff, batting for Justice sending a high fly into Pettigrew's hands and Coyle was an easy out, Happ to Koerner.

A neat double in the third inning robbed the Athletics of a chance to score. With one down and Justice on the Keystone sack Thompson was hit by a pitched ball, but Kane batted to Omaha a double, Hughes to Happ to Koerner.

Omaha did some clever fielding. Grubb, especially playing a good game. The youngster handled six chances with one boom, which was excusable. In the fourth frame Coyle made a beautiful catch of Pettigrew's fly to the left field boards. Coyle was playing in close, but with the crack of the bat against the fence he made a tearing out. Nearing the fence he made a long dive and snatched the ball out of midair just as it was about to bang into the boards.

Omaha One in Seventh. The Athletics scored two in the first. Middleton singled to left and scored on Bill's double to center. Koerner followed with a single to center scoring Bills.

In the seventh Omaha made one. Schipke singled to center and scored on Regan's error when he threw wild to get Hicks at first.

The visitors got their last run in the eighth. Hughes drew a pass, went to second on Pettigrew's sacrifice and scored on Happ's stinging to center.

TWO STRAIGHT FOR PIRATES

Pittsburghs Break Inner Defense of Dodgers in Eighth to Win. STARTED WITH TEXAS LEAGUER. Four Sacrifice Throws in Row Follow Wild Throws and Three Runs Result—Score is Five to Two.

BROOKLYN, May 21.—Pittsburgh made it two straight in the series with Brooklyn today by breaking up the inner defense of the locals in the eighth. The score was tied at 2 to 2 when Viox opened that inning with a Texas leaguer. Four sacrifice bunts in a row followed, Ragan and Smith making wild throws on the first two. Viox and Miller worked a squeeze play on the fourth, Miller scoring the third run of the inning and making the tally 5 to 2 which was his final count.

Brooklyn's two runs were scored in the fourth when Stengel walked, stake second and came home with Kirkpatrick on the litter's drive for the circuit. Adams, though frequently in hot water, held the locals runners in the other eight innings. Moran opened the game for Brooklyn with what should have been a home run, but was held at third and failed to score. Daubert and Otto Miller were put out of the game for protesting Klem's decisions on strikes.

CHAMPIONS WIN SLUGGEST

White Sox Defeated, Ten to Nine, in Exciting Batting Bee. COLLINS WEAKENS IN THE SIXTH. Driven from Box in Ninth and Bedient, Called in, Falls—Wood Saves Game for Boston.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Boston defeated Chicago 10 to 9 in an exciting batting bee today. Benz started for Chicago but was wild and retired in favor of Lange. Ray Collins had everything his own way until the sixth inning, when he began to show signs of weakening and before the ninth inning was over he was driven from the box. Bedient was sent in but he failed and Wood was called upon to save the game for the visitors, with two out and the bases full. He proved equal to the occasion, throwing Borton out at first.

The game was full of brilliant fielding by both sides. The feature of the game was a running one-hand stab by Speaker who chased to the score board and robbed J. Collins of what looked like a sure home run. Score:
