OMAHA WINS SECOND GAME FROM DENVER

Rourkes Play Hard, Carrying Away the Bacon by Three to

HAD ARGUMENT WITH UMPIRE

Throws Manager Arbogast and Johnson Out of Game.

INTERESTING Was Nip and Tuck from the Very

Start to the Finish.

MEN ON BASES EVERY INNING

Both Teams Succeed in Getting Players on the Sacks, but Pitchers Are Stingy About Lotring Them Home.

Manager Charley Arbogast of the Rourkes and Catcher Hickory Johnson were banished from the grounds in yesterday's game with Denver, in which Omaha got the long end of a 3 to 2 score.

The argument came up over a decision rendered by Umpire Anderson in the first inning. Thomason was on third base by reason of an error and a hit. With two men down and Kane on first a double steal was started. Kane drew the ball to French at second base and Thomason. who had a big lead off third, made a dash for the plate. French threw high and Thomason apparently was safe by a big margin but Umpire Anderson called him Manager Arbogast and Johnson protested. Johnson made a few personal remarks to the Umps and he was banished from the park. Arbogast continued to argue with Anderson and finally gave his a push in the breast protector. bogast was then ordered off the field

Hotly Contested Game.

Aside from this mar the game was highly interesting and hotly fought. Denver took the lead in the first and Omaha deadlocked it in its half of the same inning. The Rourkes jumped into the lead in the fifth with one run, but the Grizsiles evened it up in the sixth. The seventh inning brought Omaha another tally which proved to be the winning run. A drizzling rain started out about the fourth inning and continued until the end of the game, but it failed to make the playing any slower. In the first inning Robinson made a sensational stop of French's drive to the box. He recovered the ball in time to get the runner at first

Grubb Looms Up Well. Harvey Grubb, the new third sacker, played another brilliant game and the fans are beginning to see a second Nelhoff in the youngster. He made a wonderful catch of Cassidy's line drive in the third. He got the ball about a foot from Robinson also fielded a pretty game. He took four chances and got away with them clean. In the fourth frame, with a man on third, Spahr sent a popup a few feet in the air just inside the foul line. Robinson thought Shestak was going for the ball, but when the latter made no move for it. Robby made a dive through the air and scooped the ball a few inches from the ground, shutting off a run.

Many Men on Bases. Both Denver and Omaha got men or bases in almost every inning, but in the pinches both pitchers were stingy. Omaha. had eight men left on the bags and Den-

George Shestak, Pa's recruit catcher, brought into the game as catcher for the ball every time yesterday, but only one on control. The pitchers were backed by was a safe clout, the others managing a fast field. Score: to land ine someone's hands.

With one down in the first, Cassidy singled to center, stole second and scored on Channell's single to deep center. Rourkes Evened Up.

The Rourkes evened up. Justice landed safe on an infield hit. Coyle sacrificed, sending Justice to second. Kane singled to right, scoring Justice.

The Rourkes went in the lead in the fifth, when Coyle beat out a bunt and went to second when Thomason was walked. An error by French put Coyle or third and Congalton scored him with a sacrifice fly to Gilmore.

Scored Again.

In the sixth Butcher landed safe when he forced Channell at second. He pilfered second, went to third on French's single and scored on Spahr's sacrifice fly. Justice opened the seventh with double to the left field boards. Coyle beat out a bunt, Tommle going to third. Congulton's single over second scored Justice and the winning run. Score:

National league staff of umpires is not ger, Hyatt's single, Carey's force out a student of natural history, Earl Blackburn, utility catcher of the Cincinnati Reds, on the other hand, is, and as a result the Cincinnati team is telling a capital story on Rigler. While loafing on the players' bench the other afternoon Blackburn opened a book and started to read a story of the African rhinoceros. Becoming interested, he read aloud to the other players:

"The rhinoceros is a beast of low intellect and insatiate appetite. Its hide is three inches thick and is impervious to any bullet or shock, however powerful." Rigier turned with a frown and said: That will do for you. I heard every word you said and will stand for no personalities from the bench."
