We make terms as low or lower than any store in the city—but we do more—we give accommodating service. Our credit plan isn't simply a set schedule of terms that everyone has to live up to alike or experience hardships. We give service. Our credit plan carries with it provisions for your convenience when unable to make payments, grants favors and affords the assistance your particular requirements call for. Topic.

Memorial day will be fittingly celebrated by the Knights of Columbus, who have followed the precedent strendy established for that day of staging a big selebration in the morning at the Auditorium. While the program is under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, it will be nonsecturian in nature and all Omahans of every faith have been invited to participate in the exercises. Theodore Rud Reere has been drilling 5,600 school children to sing patriotic songs for that morning. They are now well trained and the program in this respect is expected to be the best of the kind ever given in the city.

They have been invited to take part in the celebration.

Lincoln's Gettysburg address will be recited by Preston T. McAvoy of Creighdead will be said by Father Stephen L. Dowd. The program will begin with an invocation by him at 10 o'clock. It will end before noon so as not to interfere in any way with the celebration of the Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held at the Auditorium in the afternoon. In a way, however, the program of the Knights of Columbus will be part of that. The musical features of the program have been especially provided for. A choir will lead the children in the singing of "America," "Star Spangled Banner" and "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean." The committee from the Knights of Columbus which has the entertainment in charge is composed of W. R. Murphy, T. Kennedy, Leo Hoffman and E. W.
