Omaha hammered two Topeka pitchera including "Dummy" Taylor, formerly with the New York Giants, to all parts of Bourke park yesterday afternoon and took the second game of the series from the Kaws by the lop-sided score of 14 to 2. Topean had no show at any stage of the game. Closman was in fine fettle and when he left the game in the seventh inning, to give Glavenich, the new twirler a chance to show, he had al lowed but four stingy hits. Fourteen hits were pounded out by man une viantimeter une cost Pats athletes and they total up twentyseven bases. There were four doubles, three triples and a home run reckoned In the fourteen cafe bingles. Glavenich showed up good in the two innings he pitched.
