This concluded the examination Does Not Like Whisky or Beer. "I have never drunk a cocktail or a brandy except under the advice of a physician. I don't care for the taste of beer, because I dislike smoking and diske the taste of beer. I never have drunk whisky or brandy except when the docfor prescribed it, or possibly on some occasion after great exposure when I was chilled through. But it has been certainly fifteen or twenty years since I have drunk it because of being chilled through. I never have drunk beer, nor do I drink red wine. The only wines that I have drunk have been only white wines, Madeira, champaign or very occasionally a glass of sherry. At home I often at dinner will drink a wine glass or two wine glasses of Madeira. In summer, instead of the Madeira, I will often drink mittee on banking and currency, today water, or 'Poly' water. At public dina tall glass of white wine and Poland ners I sometimes drink a glass of chamchampagne about once a month

Cuninghame, who was managing the expedition. Eight months later, when we reached Kartoum, he liquors you took in general would be a asked what he should do with it, saying from curiosity he had measured it; that I had drunk just seven ounces in eleven

"As for brandy, I never drank it any more than I do whisky when I am alone or at home, or on a hunting trip, or in a friend's house. But on very hard campaign trips, on the advise of Surgeon General Rixey, and recently of Dr. Holbrook Curtis, who attends to my throat would probably not be more than a dozen in connection with these campaign trips, I have frequently just before going to bed at night drunk either one or two goblets of milk, with a teaspoonful of brandy to the goblet. If there is more than the teaspoonful I dislike the tasts and don't drink it. I frequently drink milk at some meal during the day, usually at lunch. The brandy which was used in Africa was never in my own possession, and I only took it when given to me by the doctor. I don't even carry a flask of brandy or whisky with me. I used to carry it on my hunting trips, but found that I used it so rarely that it was a nulsance and might get broken, and it has been some twenty years since I carried one. On my ranch we never had whisky. I never made a practice of drinking at a bar and I don't believe that I have ever drunk at a bar for twenty odd years. I don't believe I have been inside a saloon during that time I don't drink between meals, or except as above described.

Brandy Diluted with Milk. "On campaign trips I drink nothing until, as said above, I go to bed, when I take a goblet, or perhaps two goblets of milk, with a teaspoonful of brandy to the goblet, finding it rests my throat and makes me sleep well. On almost every campaign trip there will be some occasion on which I stop at a friend's house, when I will drink a glass of wine; or there will be some public dinner, when I will drink either a glass of white wine or a glass of champaign. "For example, in the Ohio campaign last year, during the nine days, I touched A .- I was in the Mercy hospital at the nothing for seven days excepting at night, as above mentioned, before going to bed. There was some champagne and I first took a glass of champagne and I then found that there was a pitcher of milk and doughnuts, and I took the milk and doughnuts instead. On the afternoon of the day I went to Cleveland, I stopped at Ravenna, at the house of Mr. Hanna There I had a pot of tea and at dinner I believe, but am not certain that I took a glass of champagne. No Drinks at Duluth. "For Instance, take the day I spoke at Duluth last year. In the morning reached Superior and spoke there. We went over to Duluth and took lunch, there being no liquor at lunch. I then dictated the two speeches I intended to make at Oshkosh and Chicago, then went for an automobile ride and afterwards took dinser. No liquor was served at dinner and I did not drink a drop of liquor of any kind during the day. I stopped and spoke a few sentences to a dinner of doctors, at their earnest and the car and drank a bottle of appolinaris water in a glass with ice in it, but without any liquor of any kind. When I went to bed I took two spoonfuls of brandy in I touched that day. I was in Duluth only that day.

"While at the White House I never ouched brandy or whisky, excepting the mint juleps above mentioned, and poshighball in my life. With the exceptions sibly on two or three occasions when Dr. hereafter noted I never drank whisky or Rixey prescribed a drink of whiskyonce, if I remember right, for an acute attack of indigestion, and once when he either. I don't smoke, and I don't drink and I had made a hard ride together and testified concerning the publication of came in through a snowstorm and he gave me some whisky, and I disliked it so that after taking a sip I would not take any more and got a cup of tea in-Dr. Rixey, we usually had at lunch some white wine if there were guests. Unless there were guests I drank nothing at lunch, and often I drank nothing if there were guests. If we dined alone I drank nothing. If we had guests we usually had white wine, but sometimes Madeira and at formal dinners we had champagne, of which I would drink a glass or two. Champagne at Formal Dinners.

> While at Washington, almost all the ntertainments were at the White House itself, but each member of the cabinet gave a dinner and I belive there was always champagne at those dinners and I drank a glass of two precisely as at the White House. I also on perhaps a half dozen occasions went out, for instance, to the Gridiron club dinner. or to the reception on Speaker Cannon's seventieth birthday or to a dinner of the New York delegation in congress. On these occasions I drank precisely as in the White House. On the occasion of Mr. Cannon's evening reception I went James Sloane, a secret service man. The routine at the White House was as follows:

"We had breakfast at 8 or 8:30, Mrs. Roosevelt, the children and myself. After breakfast, if the weather was good, Mrs Roosevelt and I walked around the White House grounds for twenty minutes or repeated request. I then made two half an hour. I then came over to the speeches in the evening. I went back to White House office and as soon as I reached there Mr. Loeb came in with the mail and papers to sign. After about half an hour of this the senators and congressmen would begin to arrive. If milk and that was the only drop of liquor it was an ordinary day they would generally continue to arrive until 12 or 1 but if it was a cabinet day they would stop at 11 o'clock.

The New Food-Drink Instant Postum

Is in thousands of homes where health is valued.

Former coffee users who have felt the pinch of indigestion, headache, heart disturbance, nervous irritation, etc., have written by the score, telling of remarkable benefits following the change from coffee to Instant Postum.

A level teaspoonful in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

"Thanks for the sample of Instant Postum sent ma. I had been drinking coffee for a long time and thought it would be difficult to give it up, but I was mistaken.

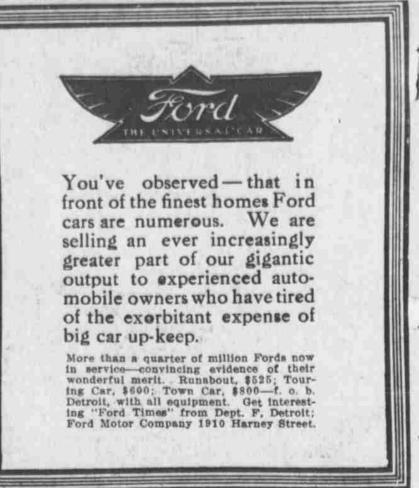

"While I was drinking coffee I always felt exhausted and I weighed but 112 lbs. After using Instant Postum I soon recovered and now am as healthy as any person can be. I now weigh 120 lbs. and am speedily gaining in weight." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular (must be boiled.)

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in a sup of hot water.

Both kinds are sold by grocers everywhere.
