INDIANS, OUTBATTED, WIN

All the Breaks Favor Sioux and Omaha Loses, Five to Four.

CHANCES TO SCORE ARE LOST

Omaha Gets Eleven Safe Ones Off Visiting Twirlers and Seven Free Trips, but Eleven Are Left on Bases.

Although Omaha outbatted the Indians two to one yesterday, all the breaks favored the Sioux City team and the visitors won the second game of the series by a 5 to 4 score.

Omaha had several chances to score enough runs to win the game, but other timely hits were not forthcoming or the ball was sent into the waiting hands of one of the Sioux players.

At that a few plays which were not up to snuff gave the Indians runs. In the fourth inning with Clarke on second and Davidson on first and none out Callahan bunted to Clooman, who fielded the ball clean, but held it too long and threw it to Grubb after Clarke had safely landed on third.

In the eighth inning Omaha had a good chance to score, but Manager Arbogast forgot himself and instead of sending Shestak in as a pinch hitter with the bases full, sent in Coyte, who at present is crippled with a "Charley-horse" and cannot run.

But at that luck was not with the Rourke. If Coyte could have hit the ball out of the infield in the sixth a run would have come in again. In the ninth with two out and a man on third and another on second, Shestak, batting in a pinch sent a bad one to Brown, but the latter made a high jump and got the ball in time to get Shestak at first. Grubb had already crossed the plate with the run that would have tied the score, but it did not count.

Eleven hits were gathered off the Sioux City twirlers and seven Rourkes accepted free passage. But Omaha managed to leave thirteen men on the base. The Rourke were shy on base-running. They took but two chances at a steal and they got away with them, but refused to try any more.

Omaha started out with one run. Justice and Neff both walked, and Thompson landed safe on an infield hit to Davidson and Justice scored.

Clarke got free passage in the visitors' fourth, and took second on Davidson's single. Then Callahan got to first and all hands were safe on a Cincinnati base hit. Brown lifted a fly to Thompson and Clarke registered. Woolums' roller was easily handled by Justice and Rapp pushed Davy and Callahan over on his double to left.

Smith and Cooney were walked in the fifth and Clarke and Davidson were easy outs when Callahan made his third hit of the day and scored Smith and Cooney.

Justice Gains Home Plate. Justice drew transportation in the fifth and took second on Neff's out. Here Justice pulled the only brilliant play of the day by pilfering third while Tommie was given passage. Kane tore a hole in the sky which Davey gobbled and Justice beat the throw to the plate.

Johnson opened the home eighth with a smashing double to center but only got to the corner during the rest of the stanza.

Thomson registered his second hit of the day by opening the last frame with a double. Kane whiffed the air and Congalton sent a roller to Woolums, who smothered it. Johnson pushed Tommie over with a clean single and then Grubb barricaded the left boards with a two-base swat and Johnson tallied. Grubb got to third when Cooney left an easy one tickle his underpinnings. Shestak batted for Robinson and sent one to Brown and the fight was over. Score: OMAHA..... 5 AB. R. H. O. A. E. Curtis Batted Hard and Stack, Succeeding, Allows Cincinnati Only One Hit, Preventing Further Scoring.

CINCINNATI, O., June 4.—Cincinnati climbed out of last place in the pennant race today by defeating Brooklyn, 4 to 3, while Boston lost to Chicago. This is the first time Cincinnati has been out of last place since April 17.

Cincinnati hit Curtis hard and had the game won when he was taken out of the box in the fourth inning. Stack, who succeeded Curtis, allowed only two hits and prevented the locals from scoring. Benton yielded four hits, but had one bad inning, this being the fourth when Stengel and Cutshaw singled and Hummel knocked out a home run.

Cincinnati scored three runs in the first inning. Devore, the first man up, doubled and took third on Bales' out. Becher was then given a base on balls, stole second and both he and Devore scored on Tinker's single.

Another run was scored by the locals in the fourth, when Groh, Kling and Benton singled, the latter driving in Groh. Score: BROOKLYN..... 3 AB. R. H. O. A. E.
