

SALOONS LIKE GERMANY'S

State Liquor Dealers Voice Need of Making Bars Gentleman-Like.

ALL OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

A. H. Kopp is President, J. Schrammek is Vice President, H. Keating is Secretary and H. Peterson is Treasurer.

How to make Nebraska like Germany in the operation of saloons was discussed by the Nebraska Retail Liquor Dealers at the Krug theater yesterday.

Henry Keating, secretary of the association, made a talk in which he urged that Nebraska saloon men run their saloons like the rathskellers and beer gardens of Germany.

The liquor dealers named Grand Island as the meeting place for next year.

Ask that Bohemian Be Taught in the Comenius School

Forty-two patrons of the Comenius school have petitioned the Board of Education to teach the Bohemian language in that institution, the request being made under the provisions of house bill No. 591, which was passed by the recent legislature.

This new law provides that the board of education of a metropolitan city must teach any except the oriental languages in schools when a certain number of signers to a petition is secured.

Detention Hospital Funds About Gone

Dr. E. W. Connell, city health physician, in a letter to the Board of County Commissioners asking prompt treatment of a claim against the county, says that but of $1,500 appropriated this year by the city for running the detention hospital on West Center street, only $400 remains, although but four months of the year have gone by.

OMAHA RAILROAD MAN GETS SHARE OF ESTATE

Edwin Mather, formerly a clerk in the Rock Island city ticket office here, who was reported to have inherited $1,000,000 or more from the estate of a brother who died in Brooklyn, did not get that much money, but he received enough to buy the necessities for a while, at least.

According to advice from New York, the estate, after all had been paid, amounted to $42,135. Half of this went to the widow and the remainder was divided between three brothers and a sister, which left something over $20,000 for the Omaha Mather, who is now in California, the owner of a fruit ranch.

HEAVY DAMAGE SUIT IN BEHALF OF TWO ORPHANS

Meets Death Under Nine-Room House as it Falls Upon Him

W. M. Schaffer, aged 50 years, 800 Avenue C, Council Bluffs, was killed yesterday, when a nine-room house that was being moved down a steep embankment at Thirty-eighth and Jones streets slipped from its fastenings and pinned him underneath.

James Peterson & Co. had the contract for moving the structure upon a new foundation across the street and just preparatory to unloosening the brakes back of the rollers Schaffer was adjusting the chains when the accident occurred.

Every bone in his body was broken and he lived a few minutes after the crash came. He was attended by Drs. E. J. Mitchell, J. E. Appelman of the county hospital and Police Surgeon Foltz.

Coroner Crosby took charge of the body and an inquest will be held.

W. W. Geary, 153 North Eighth, was working with Schaffer at the time of the accident, but managed to get out with a few minor bruises.

Frank Murphy, a lineman for the Nebraska Telephone company, was on top of the house at the time and when he saw what was about to happen he held onto the wires above and hand-after-hand reached a telephone pole, from which he climbed down.

TO SELL PART COUNTY FARM

Commissioners in Favor of Getting Location Farther Out.

WOULD NET A LARGE AMOUNT

Board Believes that Hundred and Twenty Acres Would Bring About Two Hundred Thousand Dollars.

A proposal to sell 120 acres of the quarter section owned by Douglas county west of Omaha now occupied by the Omaha Field club and to use the money to build a workshop further out in the country probably will be submitted to the voters at the next general election by the Board of County Commissioners.

Chairman Best of the committee in charge of the county hospital, said the board's idea was to keep the hospital on its present site, which occupies forty acres, and to use it for hospital purposes only.

The field club's lease on the grounds was made in 1907 to run twenty-five years, but subject to sale. The club pays $200 a year for the first ten years, $200 a year for the next decade and $1,300 for the remaining five years.

The commissioners expect to realize about $200,000 from the land. All the commissioners are desirous of having a workshop built, separate from the hospital and further removed from the city, and there has been some talk of asking the city to co-operate in securing one.

High Seniors Get Tickets Friday for the Commencement

Tickets will be distributed to the high school seniors for the Boyd theater commencement night Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Each senior will draw a number, which entitles him to two seats in the theater. Only two seats will be allowed each senior until the whole class has been supplied. They may then purchase two more in turn.

The boxes, eleven in number, will be given to former classes, who have graduated and who will attend in a body, giving class yells and waving class colors.

The junior class is being organized by its president, Glen Paxton, who has reserved three downstairs boxes. Miss Beulah Byrd, vice president of last year's class, has reserved one box for her class. Miss Kiewit, at the high school, will hold the remaining boxes until the other classes ask for them.

This special meeting of the class on Friday will be the first time the entire class has had an opportunity to get together. In the other meetings the seniors at the Commercial High school were never present. The meeting will be the last business session of the seniors for this year.

During the meeting the class treasurer, Dwight Evans, will collect the assessment for the senior banquet, which will be held June 19, probably at Happy Hollow.

Frank Illenbaugh will give each senior two copies of the souvenir play programs. These copies have been asked for by a large number of the seniors, who wish to send them out of town along with their commencement announcements.

TELEGRAPH LAW STANDS

Federal Court Declines to Interfere with State Rate Law.

NEBRASKA WILL ENFORCE IT

Judges Announce that Application for Higher Rate Should Have Been Made to the Railway Commission.

The federal court in Omaha has refused to grant a temporary injunction sought by the Western Union Telegraph company against the operation of the Stebbin bill, passed by the last legislature, fixing a maximum charge of 25 cents for a ten-word message.

The law, which was passed with an emergency clause, provides that if the telegraph companies find that the 5-cent rate is not compensatory, they may go before the State Railway commission with an application for a higher rate.

The court's decision is based upon the fact that the action was brought in the court instead of before the railway commission, as provided by the law.

LIABILITY INSURANCE AGENTS ORGANIZE

General agents for liability insurance have organized in Omaha for the purpose of making arrangements to meet the new workmen's compensation and employers' liability law when it goes into effect.

LITTLE NEED OF IRRIGATION DITCHES FOR THIS YEAR

Commercial Agent Dyer of the Burlington at Cheyenne, Wyo., is at headquarters, and in detailing conditions in Wyoming says the prospects for a big small grain crop out there are the best in the history of the state.

In every portion there has been much rain and in but few instances have farmers been compelled to turn on the water and irrigate their fields.

BROOKS REMAINS AN INDEPENDENT

Omaha Clothiers Endeavor to Have Brooks Call Off His Premature Clothes Selling.

BUT BROOKS SAYS HE OWES FIRST DUTY TO HIMSELF.

Men's Clothing Prices Still Topping Over at Brooks' Tippy Little Clothes Shop in City National Bank Building.

Several delegations of Omaha clothiers have already waited upon George Brooks, the clothier, who is charged with the heinous offense of cutting clothing prices before the Fourth of July.

"Brooks has acted shamefully," say the clothiers. "Brooks started in to cut clothing prices right and left just when he shouldn't have cut." Omaha clothiers almost to a unit declare that Brooks has knocked the bottom out of business as far as summer clothing is concerned.

"What, man," they say, "is going to patronize one of our stores at regular figures when Brooks is tearing off great chunks of the prices of his suits over at the corner of Sixteenth and Harney streets?"

True, the other clothiers don't like the situation a bit—and Brooks himself doesn't blame them—for he has had similar experiences in his time—but likes, dislikes, and opinions of other clothiers do not pay Brooks' clothing bills at the factories. Brooks had a Jonah spring and sold scarce any suits at all; too cold, too dreary and wintry; simply had to get to selling some suits now, even though all the profit had been dispensed with. Yes, sir! Brooks was up against it and HAD to sell goods in order to pay bills.

Now then, it's up to you. You may wait a month and find "sale" prices at every clothing house in town, but if you want to get the benefit of that full month's wear and service of the clothes, you may as well buy your summer suit now at Brooks, for no other Omaha clothier is offering cuts on EVERY suit in the house.

Hence the "Axe"—the busy axe—at Brooks' shop, corner 16th and Harney Sts. in the City National Bank Bldg. Note the splinters:

Splinter No. 1—All of Brooks' $20 suits go now at... $12.50
Splinter No. 2—All of Brooks' $25 suits go now at... $15.50
Splinter No. 3—All of Brooks' $30 suits go now at... $19.50
Splinter No. 4—All of Brooks' $35 and $40 suits go now at... $22.50

Have You Seen The Wonderful Gas Heated Iron?

We call it the "Iwantu," and you will want it when you see it. The gas is fed into the iron through a small, pliable tube. You light the gas within the iron and in a few minutes your iron is hot. Then you may iron with it as long as you please without leaving the board. It is not only convenient and perfectly efficient, but is surprisingly economical.
