Bull Element in Wheat Pit Makes a Sensational Gain,

CORN MARKET LITTLE STRONGER

Receipts Continue Large and the Upward Trend of Prices Continues, with the End Not Yet in Sight.

OMAHA, June 13, 1913. The bull fever in wheat gained sensa-tionally yesterday and a runaway mar-ket would have been in evidence had not the big longs been willing to take profits. ket would have been in evidence had not the big longs been willing to take profits. Those who are standing on long lines of wheat and those who are buying that grain from day to day are taking something of a chance, as the most reliable advices from our own northwest as well as from Canada have reported no actual losses thus far, but that unless there are heavy rains within a week or ten days, marked deterioration will be seen. There were many desertions from the bear wheat camp again yesterday, and while there are many in the trade who feel that a thorough wetting down of the spring wheat country would break prices sharply, they are buying wheat from day to day and attempting to sell it out at higher prices in the way of a scalp. Those who took on millions and millions of bushels of July and September futures have been the ones to make the more successful speculators are western men and not the Wall street interests. Cash wheat was ½c lower.

The corn market was strong and sharply higher yesterday. The corn market was strong and sharply higher yesterday. Receipts continue larger, but the upward trend of the market continues and there is no present indication of the ultimate height being reached. Traders continue to look with favor upon the long side of corn, believing that there is enough in the situation to warrant purchases whenever the market is momentarily depressed. Cash corn was 1/40 thigher.

The oats market still soars higher, with the September option striking a new crop level yesterday. Cash oats were 1/40 higher.

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 13.—Much wanted rains that fell today lowered the price of wheat. The decline was $6% o net. Corn lost $66% and oats $66% o net. Corn lost $66% and oats $66% o net. Corn lost $66% and oats $66% of to a rise of 7%.

It was pointed out that the downpours to which Kanaas and Nebraska were treated would be of immense value toward the final filling of the wheat crop in those states, but speculators attached even greater importance to fairly good showers extending through the westernwestern part of the Dakotas and covering the Canadian prairies. Need of a soaking for the eastern part of the spring wheat belt led to a spasmodic rally. The show of strength, however, was not of a leating kind, and the bottom figures of the day were reached just before the close. Chances of more rain in the northwest formed the chief reason for the late weakness. It was also noticed that primary receipts were three times as large as a year ago—$61,000 bushels. Nebraska especially was offering wheat freely.

braska especially was offering wheat freely.
Seaboard clearances of wheat and flour equalled 383,000 bushels.
Heavy offerings from cash concerns that were unable to sell to the east or to local industries pulled down corn after the market had touched a new high level, for the season. Good local speculative buying caused the early advance. Damage reports proved insufficient to sustain oats when holders attempted to convert paper profits into money.

Provisions as a rule scored gains. Stocks on hand were light and hogs relatively scarce.

Slower and Calmer Trading Follows Recovery from Recent Breaks.

INVESTMENT BUYING FALLS OFF

Time Rates Quotably Easier and Several of Leading Banks in Market as Lenders of 60 and 90,Day Funds.

NEW YORK, June II.—The recent violent breaks in stocks and the equally swift recovery yesterday were followed today by slower and calmer trading, with some further progress upward. Final changes in most cases, however, were small. Investment buying, which was a feature of yesterday's market, fell off considerably today.

A few stocks, including Reading, Union Pacific, Amalgamated Copper and Can showed substantial gains at times, but the movement in general was narrow.
New Haven, which was affected unfavorably by yesterday's wreck, was exceptionally weak, touching a new low

cognitionally weak, touching a new low figure at 2014.

Not only here, but in London a better feeling prevailed. There was some buying here for London account. The favorable deductions drawn from the change of yesterday was reinforced by the events of today, particularly in the money market. Time rates were quotably easier and several of the leading banks were in the market as lenders of sixty-day and ninety-day funds, although over the year money was still in scant supply. A spirit of caution still prevailed, however, and speculative interests wished to ascertain, before making extensive commitments, whether a definite turn in monetary conditions come. Forecast of the bank statement indicated another addition to cash yould be shown. The known movements of currency for the week indicated a cash gain of $5,000,000.

The bond market was firm. Total week indicated a cast set of $3,000,000.

The bond market was firm. Total sales, par value, $2,548,000. United States as advanced is on call.

SHEEP-Considering the way the trade has been meagerly supplied on every previous day of the week, a very fair rim was in evidence for a Friday. The light receipts and big advance in prices during the forepart of the week attracted a good many of the offerings here today, which afforded the packers an ample supply from which they could fill their week-end orders. Under such conditions the market opened and, as was natural to expect trade was rather slow and and dull with prices generally steady to a dime lower. In many respects the market was much like that on Thursday, about the only difference being a weaker and lower tendency to prices and a later clearance.

About half a load of idaho spring lambs weighing around fifty-seven pounds, sold up to $5.50, which was the top price for the day. Among the fed western clipped lambs was a small bunch that brought of finety-eight-pound Idaho ewes, that of ninety-eight-pound Idaho ewes, that brought $5.55, and the bulk of such kinds moved. A sanother light aprinkling of aged sheep on sale, among which were about 100 head of infacty-eight-pound Idaho ewes, that brought $5.55. As previously noted, receipts for the week to date have been light, showing quite a falling off from the same time both one and two weeks are and celpts for the week to date have been tight, showing quite a falling off from the same time both one and two weeks ago and also from the corresponding days one year ago. The outstanding feature has been a sharp advance in prices on Tuesday and Wednesday, accompanied with an active and snappy trade. Today's trade, however, closes the week's business in slow way with an ensier feeling to prices. Clipped lambs are quotably 150500c higher than a week ago.
