Orkin Bros. Are to Celebrate First Year in Their New Store

"It can't be luck and it can't be wealth—it's always living up to our promise, giving everybody fair and liberal treatment—that has been the secret of our success. Shrewdness—it isn't that—for there never was a business with fewer secrets," says Max Orkin of the big Orkin Bros. store, after a year of business in their new store. "From the smallest acorn planted and properly nourished the largest oak may grow. It has been so with us. We started in a little store at 1510 Douglas street seven and a half years ago, taking over the ready-to-wear business of O. K. Scofield. In four short years our business grew so rapidly that we moved into a larger and better quarters at 313 and 323 South Sixteenth street. "Finding it impossible to secure additional room after two years in the Sixteenth street location we opened negotiations for this large store and we took charge of it one year ago. We live up to one fundamental principle: Fair deal and liberal treatment, giving back money if the customer is not satisfied and allowing credit whenever asked. And we always look for a better way to serve our patrons. We believe we're going to have the greatest year in history. It's right ahead of us." During this week Orkin Bros. will celebrate their first anniversary in their big department store. They will celebrate it by putting on a sale which they say will be a record breaker in the matter of bargains offered.

Will of Late Charles Harrier Contested by Brothers and Sisters

Brothers and sisters of Charles Harrier of Valley, who died May 28, leaving $18,000 to the Methodist hospital of Omaha and about the same amount to his niece, H. Lizzie Shepard of Valley, have instituted action in county court seeking to have the will set aside. Judge Crawford announced there would be a hearing July 5. Albert, Perry O. William, Emily Harrier and Mrs. Alice Rice, all of Valley, and Mrs. Selena Soules of Hollywood, Cal., who started the action, allege that the late Mr. Harrier lacked mental capacity to make a will and that an undue influence was exerted upon him.

CLUB REFUSES HONORARY MEMBERSHIP TO MINISTER

Honorary membership in the Commercial club has been refused an out-of-town clergyman, the first application of the kind received. The executive committee has been making honorary members of Omaha and South Omaha clergymen, but did not want to inaugurate a new policy of accepting outside ministers. G. E. Parison, a clergyman of Hastings, is an honorary member of the club, but was made so because of his activities in the interests of the state for better roads. He is secretary of the State Good Roads association.

Reasons For DR. TODD'S Way

All dentistry has for its object Oral Hygiene. Oral Hygiene is the sanitation of the mouth. The mouth is the gateway to the body and should be kept clean. A clean mouth is only possible with sanitary teeth. Sanitary teeth are whole teeth—not half teeth. Sanitary teeth are porcelain, not metal. Dr. Todd's way is the whole porcelain way. It is THE way.

URE GETS HONORARY DEGREE

County Treasurer Has Master of Arts Conferred Upon Him.

HAS SPECIALIZED IN SCIENCE

Gave It Particular Attention at College—Has Been Director of the School for Some Years.

William G. Ure, A. M., is the way the county and city treasurer now is privileged to write his name. The A. M. stands for master of arts and it is a degree which was conferred upon him by Monmouth college of Illinois at the commencement exercises this year.

Treasurer Ure left Monmouth college twenty-five years ago this summer after having completed his junior year and envious heads of other departments at the court house say the Monmouth faculty bestowed the honorary degree upon him in recognition of the alleged fact that he has learned as much in twenty-five years as the average student does in his senior year. While in college Treasurer Ure specialized in science.

Treasurer Ure for six years has been a member of the Board of directors of Monmouth college. This year he failed to attend the meetings and advantage was taken of his absence to bestow the honorary degree upon him.
