appeared to be very light and their purchases were limited. Later on packers began to see that they were not going to get anything at the figures they were offering, but instead of raising their bids they started bluffing and lowered them. For a while the prices offered showed a full dine decline, and in some cases looked even worse than that. The saleshmen, however, and killer buyers were finally forced to raise their hands, bids going back to their early level, and in some lastances getting even better than the prices quoted during the first rounds. It was at this time that the bulk of the supply began to move, prices hald being the movement was fairly active and everything had been sold by 10:20 in spite of the early slowness. Bulk of the sales landed at $8.668.55. with the long string at $8.50. Tops reached $8.5, just a nirkel lower than Saturday's highest price.

The citizens of Crawford, Neb., have hit upon a street fair and carnival idea which they think will draw a crowd. They are to hold their street fair and carnival June 36-28, and in addition to the usual attractions for festivals, they will sell at auction 147 town lots, eleven residences, seven farms and two ranches. The Crawford show is being thoroughly advertised, thousands of two-sheet posters, printed in colors, being distributed within a radius of 500 miles.

NEGRO CUTS SEVERAL MEN IN FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

While Frank Lockman, colored, was passing Twenty-fourth and Lake streets Sunday night he was attacked by a crowd of white men. In the encounter Lockman drew a knife, severely wounding H. O. Parkhurst, who was taken to Joseph's hospital. Charles Davis and Fred and Frank Bush were also cut. Dr. Impey, who happened to be passing the scene of the conflict, attended the
