

The Society Bee-Hive

By MELLIFICIA. Tuesday, June 17, 1913.

NEARLY all of the larger college alumni meetings are now being held at the different out-door clubs. The Alumni association of the Omaha high school will meet in its twenty-fifth annual reunion at the Omaha Field club on Monday evening.

Following a short business meeting and election of officers, the evening will be spent in dancing and renewing old acquaintances.

The Alumni association has been in existence just a quarter of a century now, and the administration is exceedingly anxious to make this reunion the largest of all. The executive committee has spent a vast amount of time and energy during the last two or three years to bring the association to its present state of organization. George A. Percival is secretary of the Alumni association.

The Missouri-Michigan Alumni association has entertained during the winter with diners at the University club on the second Tuesday evening of each month, but since the warm weather has come they have decided to meet at one of the country clubs. The first of the parties will be a dinner-dance Tuesday evening, July 1, at the Happy Hollow club. Over 100 guests are expected to be present, the ladies being the guests of honor. Later in that month the association plans to hold a golf tournament for the members only, at perhaps the Field club, the losers to pay for the dinner.

The executive committee in charge of the arrangements includes Robert Fisher, Arthur Marowitz and Raymond Crossman. H. Gifford is president of the association and the secretary is Raymond Crossman. Brownell Hall recently held its annual alumnae luncheon at Happy Hollow.

Monday evening the Creighton seniors and alumni had an enjoyable banquet at Happy Hollow.

Creighton Senior Banquet.

The senior class of Creighton university held their annual banquet at Happy Hollow Monday evening, when forty members and former members enjoyed a happy reunion together. The class had as their guests President Magevney, R. J., and Vice President McMenemy, R. J., of the university, together with several members of the faculty. Members of the Creighton Glee club were also guests of the class and college songs and popular airs were mingled with the jests of the evening. An attractive and well-monogrammed "Creighton '13" was given to each one present as a souvenir of the affair. An enthusiastic business meeting was held and plans formed to continue the spirit and fellowship of the class in furthering the interests of the school.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Chester C. Wells, president; Raphael N. Hamilton, vice president; Theodore E. Nelson, secretary; John V. Beveridge, treasurer. Members of the faculty present delivered short addresses offering congratulations and advice to the young graduates. Chester C. Wells acted as toastmaster, delivering a brief address on "Spirit" and introduced the speakers in the following order:

- "Executive Eccentricities," Charles W. Hamilton, Jr.
 - "Retrospect," Francis A. Barrett.
 - "Buncombe," Theodore E. Nelson.

Eat This Food During Summer

Be careful what you eat during hot weather. What you need is food that nourishes but does not heat the body.

Faust Spaghetti fits right into that class. It is a high gluten food—a bone, muscle and flesh former—but contains practically no fat, therefore cannot heat the body.

FAUST SPAGHETTI

makes a savory, appetizing dish. It can be served in a great many ways that appeal to the palate. It is easily prepared—it makes a nutritious, non-heating meal during the summer. Write for free recipe book, "Spaghetti and Its Uses." Faust Spaghetti put up in air-tight, moisture-proof packages.
