While the Senate is investigating the "Insidious Lobby" we'd like to have you investigate our Kensington Clothes.

There's this difference, however: the Senators are looking fer something bad, while you will be finding something good.

Above all things, your summer clothes should be comfortable, and in Kensingtons you'll find every essential of comfort.

Splendid light-weight fabrics in suits tailored without padding-natural shoulders and soft fronts.

This, by the way, is the supreme test of superior tailoring-to get style and permanent shapeliness into a suit without the use of pads and hair-cloth. You can wear a Kensington suit with both comfort and pride-it will fit and stay fit. $20 up.

Fairbury Wins from Belleville. FAIRBURY, Neb. June 18.-(Special.)-The Fairbury base ball nine made a trip to Belleville, Kan. Tuesday afterngon and met defeat. 6 to 4. the first time this year. It was nobody's game, the grater part of the time, but Belleville managed to run in a few wacores in the ninth in-ning, winning the game. Galen Sitter, a locomotive fireman of this city, pitched for the Fairbury team. Parks was catcher. A large delegaton of Fairbury .fans witnessed the game.

Wins Thousand Games.

Wins Thousand Games. According to Granitand Rice, the New York critic, Manager McGraw of the Giants "won hist 1,000 victory for New York on Decoration or Memorial day. This brings the 1,000 game winners up to five names in the forty-three years" his-tory of the major leagues. The others were Anson of Chicago, Selee of Boston, Clarke of Pittsburgh and Mack of the Athletics. Chance was on his way to the Athletics. Chance was on his way to the 1,000 mark to full speed until they laid him a stymie in the semblance of the New Yorks."

Karger and James. Woodburn and Clemons. Thirteen innings. Fairbury Wins from Belleville.
