NO LARGE SUSTAINED DEMAND Final Prices Are the Best of Day, with Gains Up to Three Points in Missouri Pacific and Central Pacific Securities. NEW YORK, June 21.—Improvement of the principal foreign markets was of direct bearing today upon movements of stocks here, which carried them to materially higher figures. Since the outbreak of the Balkan war last year the disturbed state of affairs has been recognized as one of the large factors in the depression of the home markets. While toreign markets are still under strain, with a long period of forced conservastism shead there was evident today a definite improvement, which was reflected in the course of the securities markets at the principal foreign centers. From London came word that anxiety over the settlement which was thought recently to present a serious menace had abated. The better feeling in London was expressed in concrete form by the purchase here of 20,000 to 25,000 shares for London account, principally of Steel, Amalgamated, the Harriman and Canadian Pacific. This buying was one of the chief influences in the early trading, in which prices went up swiftly. Bentiment was more cheerful and operations for the long account were carried on with increased confidence. There was no sustained demand on a large scale however, and part of the	buying based on the better political outlook. Consols, memory 13 1-1811. Central 1124, do, assumt 134, Mo. SHEEP—Only some five cars or 1,250 head constituted today's receipts, whereas, on the same day a week ago, the arrivals rumbered 2,188, two weeks ago 3,72 and a year ago 5,020. Taking Monday and Tuesday together the receipts foot up no more than about 1,484 head as against 6,234 for the corresponding days last week and 9,757 a year ago.

The meager supply this morning, consisting of one or two small lots of native spring lambs, a few little bunches of clipted ewes and a deck of wool yearlings, was again not ample enough to afford any competition between buyers, and as a result there were few, if any, indications as to the real situation in the trade. Among what few sales were made were some that looked strong, other loopide higher and still others 25,000 higher, as compared with the close of last week. Trade was extremely uneven and a clearance was effected in short order.

Hold Annual Reunion

The Omaha Field club acted as host to the Omaha High School Alumni association Monday evening, at their twenty-fifth annual reunion. The attendance was considerably larger than at any of the previous reunions.

Invitations were issued for 4,000 members, but, although nothing like that number were present, enough were on hand to crowd the dance floor and force the committee in charge to order additional refreshments. While the younger members were engaged in dancing, the graduates of twenty years ago gathered in groups around the porches and out on the lawns to renew old acquaintances. Many of the teaching faculty of the high school were present. Several of the older graduates present had children, also graduates, but of late date, present.

A short business meeting preceded the festivities, during which a new board of directors were elected. All of the old board was re-elected with two exceptions, Samuel Reynolds and Otto Bauman. The board as elected for the ensuing year consists of: George Percival, 1906; Harry E. Ryan, 1906; Judge Howard Kennedy, 1885; Stanley Rosewater, 1905; Victor Rosewater, 1887; Josesph Polcar, 1888; Fred Dale, 1896; Brower McCague, 1891; Harry Koch, 1904; Oldam Paisley, 1911; Palelay and Koch are the new members.
