JOHNSON WINS WITH TRIPLE

Rourke Catcher Scores Two with a Three-Base Drive in Ninth.

WHITE BLOWS UP IN SEVENTH

After Pitching Excellent Ball for the First Six Innings the Indian Twirler Soars and the Rourkes Count.

SIoux CITY, Ia., July 1.—Omaha staged a slashing comeback and crushed the Sioux City team, 9 to 1 in today's game.

Kerby White pitched faultless ball for six innings, while the Indians were piling up a six-run lead, but he wavered in the seventh, when poor support let in two runs and completely wilted in the eighth, when an avalanche of safe blows led up the score.

Disastrous fielding in the ninth completed the work of destruction. Errors let two men on and a triple by Johnson sent them in, Johnson himself tallying on a sacrifice fly.

One hundred Winnetago Indians in full regalia and feathers, here for a frontier day celebration, saw the game and left in despair after Johnson's triple.

Sioux City had it all one way at the start. Viewed in the light of subsequent developments it really looked as though the Rourkes were toying with them.

The locals scored two singles and a double for two runs in the second and added another with Burns' home run, walk-up in the fourth and scored three on an error, a single and two doubles in the sixth. By this time the visitors' artillery got into play.

In the eighth came the blowoff. Thomson led with a double and scored on Kane's single, after Justice was out. Johnson and the two scored on an error, after Wallace had singled to center. Applegate was an infield out.

Blow Comes in Eighth.

In the eighth came the blowoff. Thomson led with a double and scored on Kane's single, after Justice was out. Johnson and the two scored on an error, after Wallace had singled to center. Applegate was an infield out.

Errors let Thomson and Kane on in the ninth and the two scored when Johnson smashed to center field fence for a three base sack, and the catcher raced home on Connolly's sacrifice fly. But three balls were pitched in the second half of the fifth. Smith, Clark and Davidson flying out on the first ones over. Score:

SEWARD WINS IN LONG ONE

Triumphs Over Islanders in Fifteenth Inning.

HALEY WEAKENS IN THE END

Allows Three Hits, Which, with Two Errors, Give Four Runs—Hick-Ha Has Ten Putouts During Game.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., July 1.—(Special Telegram)—It took fifteen innings to decide today's game of ball. Up to the last inning Haley allowed the visitors just three hits, but a little weakening allowed Seward three hits and with two errors, gave the visitors four runs in the fifteenth. The game was full of sensational fielding. Hicklin in center for Seward had ten putouts. Walters was found easily, but the ball invariably went up in the air and dropped into a player's mitt. Score:
