What Women Are Doing in the World

Mrs. Draper Smith, president of the Nebraska Suffrage association, is one of the few club presidents who will spend her aummer at home and continue torough the summer months with the regular work of the organization. Mrs. Smith is of the opinion that if all the women of the state who are interested in gaining equal suffrage in Nebraska were to give up other social affairs the work for the ballot would be over at the close of the 1914 campaign.

Many, however, have packed their trunks and traveled to other countries to escape the warm days in Omaha.

Mrs. C. T. Kountze, who is acting president of the Equal Franchise society and president of the Tuesday Morning Musical club, salled Saturday for Europe, where she will spend the summer. Mrs. J. H. McDonald, president of the Book Review club, is in Japan and will spend some time in China before returning home.

Yolanda admires her beautiful mother intensely, and she was present on a public occasion recently when someone remarked to her that the queen was looking particularly well. The little girl answered:

"My mother is the very handsomest queen in Europe." After a brief pause she added: "And I am going to be exactly like her."

The resemblance between mother and daughter is most striking.
