REAL ESTATE GOSSIP

Brigadier General Smith Now Has the City Planning "Bug."

LARGEST CONVENTION EVER

Accounts from Winnipeg Declare Largest Attendance Ever at National Convention Will Be There—Fine Program.

The call of the sixth annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges, just over the Canadian boundary at Winnipeg, July 23 and 24, will be responded to by the largest number of real estate agents ever gathered together in the world.

The national association has grown from fifteen affiliated boards to the present membership of eighty-three boards in five years. This has been a remarkable record; but, in addition, it has made it possible for the real estate agents from all over the country to know each other and to learn the value of co-operation. This knowing fact other has developed a modern method of conducting the real estate business that has safeguarded the investing public and made hundreds of thousands of happy home owners.

The splendid support real estate exchanges are giving to all civic affairs, in addition to purely real estate matters, has created a great interest on the part of the public in general in the deliberations of the annual real estate convention, which is greater this year than ever before.

The Winnipeg convention has added interest, and those who are so fortunate as to attend will take part in planting the Stars and Stripes alongside the Union Jack in this the one hundredth year of peace between the United States and Great Britain.

The Winnipeg Real Estate Exchange, which is preparing entertainment, is celebrating its tenth anniversary and assures all members of the Omaha Real Estate Exchange who attend that his birthday party will be one long to be remembered.

Brigadier General Frederick A. Smith, retired, is turning his attention to city planning. Unable longer to make maps of tented cities, arrange their "streets," "business" centers or drainage systems for the United States army, he finds the nearest approach to that joy in drawing the plans of cities and believes that in a short while his interest in this latest endeavor will transcend that in his former pursuits.

The general is to be found much and often hobnobbing with the local city planners and it is said whenever he visits another city his first pleasure is to find someone interested with whom to chat.

Local city planners are pleased to see this tendency. They hope sometime to get him into the real work and feel that his assistance in that line would mean much to Omaha.

Plans are expected soon to be ready for the building at the northwest corner of Twentieth and Farnam streets, announced by Arthur R. Keeline a few months ago. The work has been held back while the title has been perfected in the name of Mrs. Florence Moore Palmer, widow of George H. Palmer, for the minor heirs. Mrs. Palmer has given Keeline a fifty-year ground lease on the property. He will erect a three-story apartment and store building fronting fifty-three feet on Farnam street with a depth of 132 feet on Twentieth street.

Use advertising reaches the highest and the lowest, the least intelligent as well as the intellectual, the near and the far and results come from all. As an instance of this fact, John W. Robinson cites one of his answers to a recent advertisement in The Bee. It reads: Newcastle, Wyo. June — Mr. J. W. Robbins, Omaha, Neb., Dear Sir: Do you have any buyers for farms in eastern WYO or Western So Dak. I have some good ones, Ranges for sheep, stock. Please let me know. Yours truly, Saw your ad in The Daily Bee.

Maynard to Be Re-Elected.

J. W. Maynard, for many years custodian for the Board of Education, will be re-elected at the meeting of the board Monday night. A successor to M. P. Sears will also be chosen. It is probably that E. D. Geppon will be elected head of the new boys' school and Assistant Probation Officer Carver of the juvenile court will be promoted to Geppon's position of truant officer for the public schools.

Omaha and Nebraska Elks Leave for the Rochester Meet

Omaha and Nebraska Elks going to the grand lodge meeting at Rochester, N. Y., left for the east last night, occupying a special sleeper. From here they went to Chicago over the North-western and to destination over the Wabash. All of the delegates are unoccupied for R. W. Patrick for state deputy. This is all they will ask for. Those who will attend the Rochester meeting are: R. W. Patrick, Dan Butler, William Hart, C. B. Washington, Dr. Bower, Andrew Murphy and H. C. Shields of Omaha; A. W. Borden, Hastings; E. H. Neece, Grand Island; R. C. Langford and F. T. Redmond, North Platte; Emil Hahah, Fremont; Judge Corahan and

LOCAL PRINTERS RETURN MONEY TO INTERNATIONAL

The Omaha Typographical union has returned to the International Typographical union $20 that it was unable to use in the fund-raising fund for Omaha printers who were sufferers. The International Typographical union gave $20 and the local union gave $20, but it was found that $40 covered the assistance needed, no $20 was returned to the national union and $20 was retained in the local treasury.
