

The Society Bee-Hive

BY MELLIFICIA Wednesday, July 9, 1913.

QUITE a colony of residents of the West Farnam neighborhood has been literally transplanted to Lake Okoboji during the hot weather. The Saturday evening dances at The Inn are especially popular with the cottagers. Last Saturday evening there was over a score of Omahans attending the week-end party. In the morning and afternoon there are bathing and boating parties, with dancing in the evening. Among the Omaha guests there last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm, Miss Esther Wilhelm, Mrs. J. J. Dickey, Miss Bertha Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jordan and two sons, Mrs. Ben Gallagher, Mrs. C. E. Squires, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters, Miss Gladys Peters, Miss Daphne Peters, Mrs. T. E. Stevens, Miss Dorothy Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hynes, Master William Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Updike, Miss Hazel Updike and Master N. B. Updike, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Preston and Master Walter Preston, and Mr. Ben Gallagher.

Mrs. R. F. Kloke came home from the lake for a few days and will return this week to Okoboji.

Many others are leaving for there; Mrs. E. S. Westbrook and son, Edward, left this morning; Misses Hortense and Ruth Clarke will leave July 16, to be at The Inn; Mrs. Ralph W. Connell and her daughter, Miss Regena, are planning to leave the middle of the month.

Mr. C. W. Walrath and family will leave early Thursday morning for their summer outing at Lake Okoboji. They will make the trip in their machine if the roads are in good condition. Many of the guests at the lake made the trip by motor. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hynes returned Monday, making the trip in eight hours.

Camping Parties.

A group of teachers from the Castellor school have left for the mountains on Lake Minnetonka, Minnesota, for their summer vacation. They will camp in a summer cottage adjoining the hotel, where nightly dances or moonlight rides on the lake promise a more than enjoyable vacation. The campers plan to remain away until September 1, accompanied by Mrs. M. P. Funkhouser. Those in the party are Misses Myrtle Bick, Florence Bush, Marie Houska, Mildred Funkhouser, Ethel Maxwell, Ruth Wheeler, Dorris Feffer and Mrs. M. P. Funkhouser.

A camping party was arranged by Miss Beas Dumont, physical director of the high school, for some of the gymnast girls and a number of the members of the High School Hiking club. Miss Dumont and the girls left last evening for Louisville, Neb., where they will camp out by Cedar creek, near that place. They expect to be gone three weeks and will spend the time "roughing" it. The party includes Misses Edna Baumgardner, Helen Sorenson, Letitia Van Duren, Sara Cole, Lorins Davis, Ethel Pepper, Blom White, Mildred Barber, Myrtle Hayden, Beas Dumont.

Luncheon for Mrs. Jackson.

Mrs. F. O. Collins entertained at luncheon at the Hotel Loyal today in honor of Mrs. L. B. Jackson of Seattle. Covers were laid for: Madames—L. B. Jackson, F. O. Collins, J. H. Shriver, Misses—M. J. Riley, C. J. McCreary, Helen Collins.

Luncheon at Tekamah.

Miss Adelaide Thomas of Tekamah, Neb., entertained at luncheon at her home today in honor of Miss Olla Helo Hervey, whose engagement has been recently announced. Miss Hervey and Miss Ann Dennis of Omaha are the house guests of Miss Thomas. Among other Omaha guests were Miss Ruth McDonald, Miss Betty Penney and Mr. Clifford Calkins, who went to Tekamah this morning and will return this evening.

House Party.

Miss Dorothy Shriver, Miss Gertrude Dickenson and Miss Magrethe Howes left Monday morning for Pierre, Neb., to be the guest at a house party given by Miss Lucile Wolcott, formerly of this city.

Evening Party.

Miss Dorothy Shriver entertained Monday evening at her home. Those present were Misses Gertrude Dickenson, Rachel Metcalf, Elizabeth Eleanon and Moore-Edward Cookrell, George Metcalf, Marcus Kishish, Carlyle V. Allen.

Luncheon at Hotel Loyal.

Miss Blanche Van Kuren entertained at a luncheon followed by a musical at the Hotel Loyal Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Harry Jenkinson of Chicago, who is the guest of Mrs. Montgomery Harris. The tables were decorated with garden flowers and covers were laid for twenty guests.

Woman's Relief Corps.

Mrs. J. C. Reed entertained the members and their friends of George Crook Woman's Relief corps, No. 8, at a Kensington in Hanscom park Wednesday afternoon.

Larae Club Dance.

The Larae of the Omaha High school will give an informal dance Wednesday evening at Dundee hall. Only a few guests will be invited outside the members and alumni. The hosts will be:

Daily Fashion Hint

By LA RACONTEUSE.

Over a foundation of black charmeuse, draped at the bottom in movement of crossing and finished by a small round train are disposed:

A small tunic, totally beaded of black net, slightly blousing over the skirt and encircling the bust. It falls over an ancient lace, making point over the skirt in back. This tunic is finished by a high fringe of black jet. It is tightened at the waist line by an "old-blue" ribbon, holding up a broad rose. The upper part of the bodice is made of a foundation of ancient lace, veiled by a black silk muslin, finishing the sleeves by a point, draped at the elbow. The small decollete makes a V.

YOUNG GIRL TESTIFIES TO MORPHINE SMUGGLING

Dolly Miller, charged with giving morphine to 14-year-old May Clark, who in turn would smuggle the drug into the county jail for Charles Garrison, was arraigned in police court and testified she had only been a tool for Garrison's wife, who had given her the drug. The case was continued until Mrs. Nellie Garrison can be apprehended and brought to court.

WILSON ESTATE CONTESTS DR. PORTER'S BIG BILL

A contest is being made against the claim of Dr. Elmer R. Porter for $5,000 from the estate of the late Anna Wilson, who left property valued at $25,000. Dr. Porter, in his bill, lists 28 professional calls, and sums the bill up at $5,000, which averages something over $175 per call. The executors object to the amount and testimony of the objection was taken in the county court.
