Jeff Simply Wanted to Be Sure of a Hearing ÷ Drawn for The Bee by "Bud" Fisher ROURKE DIRECTS A VICTORY Omaha President on the Bench Brings Out Some Real Base Ball. I'LL JUST RUN IT in Eighth While Schipke Takes A LITTLE WAY. I WONT HURT IT. Second-Pour Stolen Bases PLEASE Recorded. I SUPPOSE I'LL Just to celebrate Pa Rourke's return to HAVE TO TO KEEP the bench as active head of the Omaha base ball club the Rourkes put up an YOU QUIET. exhibition of real base ball yesterday and took the second game of the series from the Jostes by a 6 to 3 count. Pa Rourke's spirit seemed to have gripped the players. They took chances in yesterday's game which has been a missing factor on the Omaha club for the inst three years. Just to illustrate this: "Hickory" Johnson stole home in the eighth inning, while Bill Schipke was plfering the second sack. This to the regular patrons at Rourke park seems almost incredible, but it is a fact and there was no question about "Hick" being anto, etiber. In all the Rourkes garnered four sacks off the Josic catchers. It was the first M. 4/12 game since June 27 in which Omaha players stole more than one base. Play Hit and Run Game. Again the hit and run game was played WELL, I MIGHT AS WELL oftener; bunting was resorted to in the SWIM IN AND FACE THE pinches and the boys got away with it. This all may have been a coincidence, MUSIC . I CAN'T STAY HERE NOW I'LL but if looked mighty sweet to the fans, FOREVER - WELL who cheered Rourke as he sat in a chair Ar EXPLAIN IT TO beside the bench and smoked a huge Havana while he directed the play. YOU. YOU SEE IWAS And Hobinson heaved a heady game RUNNING ALONG SLOW It was only when hits counted for nothing that the St. Joseph players managed AND to get them. But when a hit mean a run Roby was stingler than the worst miser. He tightened up in the pinches to such an extent that he struck out ten batters and gave but one stroll. Aonther thing which looks queer is the fact that Omaha made six runs on seven hits. Verily does the bug know of games gone by in which twelve and foruteen hits meant but two or three runs and a lost game. It was inside base ball coupled with the best of base running which won for Omaha yesterday. The Missourians, sad to relate, have won but two games in the last fifteen and seem to be on a terrible slump, the worst encountered by any Wetsorn league club this season. Kane opened the second inning for Omnha with a clean single to center. 123.00 Johnson was safe when Watson dropped Kan gill MITTHER VISIC STONY IS his high fly. Kane resting at the key-stone sack. Grubb laid down a pretty support at critical periods. A single in the third, going to second on Huggins' grounder, advanced to third on Magger's long fly and scored on a double steal. Whitted's run in the fourth was earned on his single, Konetchy's out and Evans' hit. With two out in the fifth, Magee walked, stole second, took third on Oake's scratch hit and came home on a wild throw to catch Oakes stealing. After that the visitors retired in order.
