Stockman's Laugh Finally Wears Off

L. B. Lively, a South Omaha stock feeder, fell off a street car at Thirtieth and Farman streets last night, and when picked up by a policeman he burst out laughing. He laughed so loud and long that the officer thought something was wrong and sent him to headquarters, where after Dr. Polix had repaired him, he was locked up for drunkenness. He was still laughing when he went into his cell, but by midnight his laugh wore off and when he was released by Captain Dempsey he was in anything but a jocular mood.

Mother Makes Request Chauffeur Be Freed

May Griffin, also known as May Waters, the 23-year-old girl, who died at St. Joseph's hospital after being hurt in an automobile accident, will be buried today at Ashland, Neb., where she has relatives. An inquest will be held Wednesday morning by Coroner Crosby. The girl's mother is in town, and asked that the chauffeur who drove the auto in which May rode, be not punished, as it was not his fault, so far as can be learned. The Hirschman-Zigfield Taxi company will defray the funeral expenses.

DANIEL DONAHUE ONLY PLAYING AS POLICEMAN

Daniel Donahue, Chicago chauffeur, who took it upon himself to impersonate an officer Friday night and arrest two innocent pedestrians, plead guilty in police court and was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail. He said he had done the thing only in fun, but from the outfit taken from his person the police believe they have corralled a first class "cutie" artist.

ODD FELLOWS HOLD PICNIC

City Park at Florence Mecca for 1,000 Members and Friends. BALL GAME TO SOUTH OMAHA. Races of All Kinds Are Followed by Picnic Lunch and Speaking—Rain Prevents Out-of-Doors Dance. The annual picnic of the members of the Odd Fellow lodges of Omaha, South Omaha, Benson and Florence, held at Florence Saturday afternoon, was a pronounced success. The program was carried out in detail, with the exception of the chicken race, which was declared off on account of the hen roasts of the town being locked and therefore the committee was unable to find a chicken to place in the racing ring. There were more than 1,000 Odd Fellows, members of their families and Rebekah lodges in attendance. The events on the program started shortly after 3 o'clock and the last number of the dance, the final feature, was not concluded until well along toward midnight. The affair was in charge of the following committees, the members of which did everything in their power to make the affair pleasant for the visitors. General Committee—C. C. Bort, Omaha No. 2, chairman; F. M. Paugh, Benson No. 21, secretary; F. L. Auguy, Canton Etter No. 13, treasurer; Robert Turkington, Omaha No. 2, marshal of the day. Arrangements—A. B. Anderson, Rose No. 17; Ben Don Neaud, Jonathan No. 23; John Larson, Jonathan No. 23. Transportation—John Larson, South Omaha No. 14; Olla Olson, South Omaha No. 14; Nels Lundgren, Waus No. 14. Amusements—W. M. Torrey, State No. 10; E. Ekdildsen, Dannebrog No. 216; H. Hansen, Dannebrog No. 211; C. Swenson, Triangle No. 70; Fred Kuppig, Omaha No. 2. Advertising—C. A. Baumgardner is Chairman. Clyde A. Baumgardner presided as chairman during the oratory and introduced the speakers. R. H. Olmstead, welcomed the visitors to Florence. The speakers of the afternoon were: F. H. Corick, Lincoln, past grand representative; Mrs. Emma Talbot, South Omaha, grand secretary of the Rebekah state assembly, and Jacob Marks, past grand patriarch. All talked of Odd Fellowship and the benefits that went along with it. After a basket picnic lunch spread in the city park, under the shade of the trees, the ball game between two picked teams from the Omaha and South Omaha lodges was played, resulting in a score of 20 to 1 in favor of South Omaha. The teams were captained by Dr. Swoboda, Omaha, and Tom Galloway, South Omaha. Result of Contests. The results of the events on the program follow: Fat men's race, fifty yards, five entrants: Won by Will Jacob with G. D. Taylor second. At the decision had to be started and the race was run over with Jacob first and Tom Galloway second. Fat women's race, five entrants: Mrs. Lizzie Donnelly, first; Mrs. G. Conklin, second. Girls' race, entrants under 14 years of age: Elizabeth Donnelly, first; Madeline Adams, second. Race for boys under 14 years of age: There were five starters, and was won by Fred Wright with Earl Pulte second. Fifty-yard dash for men: John Crana, first; E. G. Conklin, second. The tug-of-war between Omaha and South Omaha teams, six men to the team was won by South Omaha. Owing to the rain, the out-of-doors dance was abandoned and those who desired to dance repaired to the lodge hall, a couple of blocks away.

Son Starts Shooting to Protect Mother

To protect his mother's name from the curses of Ed McKenna, Thomas Moss, a laborer living at Seventh and Seward streets, obtained a brace of revolvers early yesterday afternoon and attempted to kill the man while his mother looked on. When the police came he was still shooting, and McKenna was barricaded behind a pile of logs. While Moss was being disarmed, McKenna made his escape and is still at large. A pool of blood near where he was hiding while young Moss was firing leads the police to think that he is badly wounded.

Diarrhoea quickly Cured

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.
