

TOWNSEND DECLARES DEMOCRATS LOOKING FOR A "SCAPEGOAT"

Michigan Senator Asserts They Are Trying to Place Blame for Effect of the Tariff Bill. HOTLY DENOUNCES THE MEASURE Says it Was Conceived in Hatred of Policy of Protection.

BROUGHT FORTH IN DARKNESS Asks if it is Any Wonder it is Looked on with Disfavor. FLAYS EXECUTIVE MEDDLING

Speaker Tells Hearers Surrender of Abuse and Misrepresentation Seems to Be Rejoicing, Stumping Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Senator Townsend of Michigan, in a speech in the senate today characterized the Payne-Aldrich tariff law as "the Gettysburg where the factions of the republican party were formed in battle array."

Executive Interference Criticized. Senator Townsend also criticized "executive interference" and caucus domination.

Infecting comments on the lobby industry in the senate and house. Senator Townsend said that criticism of improper action should be based on unquestioned facts and not on innuendo or falsehood and continued:

"Today, as at all times in the past, the sensational is too prominently featured and too little attention given to the truth. Indeed, a naturalistic of abuse and misrepresentation seems to be reigning and congress has been stampeded into investigations of itself, and the two houses are struggling between themselves to get possession of self-convicted scoundrels who have capitalized for financial gain the existing disposition to abuse the national legislature. Too frequently inciting committees of congress become the instrument of partisan politics and the subject is thereby heated on the national legislature."

Looking for Scapegoat. Referring to the fear of business disaster, the senator declared: "If business disaster prematurely comes, its coming will be due more to the oft-expressed fears of this administration than to any efforts by wicked business men, who, as patriots, are expected to be happy while their business is threatened with destruction and themselves with prosecution."

PROGRESSIVES IN CONFERENCE Eleven Senators Will Support La Follette's Wool Bill. WASHINGTON, July 28.—Eleven progressive republicans today tentatively agreed today to support Senator La Follette's substitute schedules on wool, cotton and several other sections of the tariff bill.

Notes on amendments last week showed many of the progressive republicans at variance with the remainder of the republican side on certain items. It is understood now that an attempt will be made to substitute the La Follette wool schedule for that which has already been introduced by Senator Smoot and which the latter expects to present as the republican measure.

In today's conference, presided over by Senator Clapp, were Senators Borah, Eastman, Clegg, Sterling, Cummins, Kenyon, La Follette, Gronna, Norris and Works.

MORE MULHALL LETTERS OUT

Says He Expected to Control Democratic Committees. Members of Executive Board of American Federation of Labor, He Says, Were Always Active.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Less than 1,000 of Martin M. Mulhall's letters as a lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers remained to be put in the record when the senate investigating committee met today. Attorneys for the association and the American Federation of Labor granted the right to cross-examine the witness through the committee.

REFERS OFFER TO LABOR LOBBY In January, 1911, Mulhall wrote General Manager Bird of the manufacturers about the democratic house:

"I am positive we will fare very much better with the incoming democrats of the house than we have with the present congress. I assured Mr. Emery (counsel for the manufacturers) that if he would select some man we could agree on for chairman of the labor committee, we could have him appointed. I also told Mr. Emery I am positive we will control the judiciary committee and its sub-committees and also the labor committee and its sub-committees in the next congress. I am not making this statement until I am fully convinced that those facts can be accomplished."

Mulhall Does Not Remember. "What grounds had you for making this statement?" demanded Senator Nelson. "I can't just recall at the present time, I had some doubt about that time," said Mulhall. "Did you and Emery agree to name any man?"

Lodge Contradicts Mulhall. Senator Lodge appeared to deny Mulhall's statement that he conferred with him in the summer of 1910. He denied ever having seen Mulhall before the investigation began.

McMichael, who was driving the car, lost control when rounding a sharp curve. R. M. Davenport of Denver, Miss Gertrude Yeaser and Miss Marie Hall, who recently came from New York, who were riding in the machine, were thrown clear of the car and escaped injury. Davenport said the steering gear broke as the automobile was rounding the curve.

Heir of Burns Will Claim Manuscript

LONDON, July 28.—A new turn has been given to the protests emanating from Scotland against the recent action of the Liverpool Athenium in selling the so-called Glenriddel manuscripts of the poet Burns, the purchase being understood to have been made indirectly by an American millionaire, J. C. Ewing, one of the acknowledged authorities upon Burns' works has raised the point that the Glenriddel manuscripts were loaned, not given, to Dr. Currie, who later presented them to the Athenium. Mr. Ewing declares that Dr. Currie obtained the loan of the manuscripts in 1797 when he arranged to write the life of the poet and edit his works, but he never returned the papers to the widow. On this assumption, it is understood that the Burns' federation and the Burns' clubs of the United Kingdom may test the legality of the sale of the manuscripts by getting Miss Annie Burns of Cheltenham, who is a direct descendant of the poet, to set forth her claim.

July Time Needs for the Youngsters

The children these hot days need particular attention in food, clothing and other things to keep them sound and healthy. Little things that add to their every day and every night comfort must be had.

Where to get them is not always a question easily answered until an advertisement in The Bee offers the solution. Science is constantly at work devising things for the improvement of humanity, and often these things, amazingly simple, may be had for a few cents and some druggist or other dealer heralds the news to the world in an advertisement.
