MRS HANAN'S GEMS STOLEN

Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars Worth of Jewelry Taken.

REMOVED FROM NEWPORT HOME

Time of Theft is Fixed Within Half Hour, but There is No Clue—Near Rumsey House, Robbed Last Sunday.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., July 29.—Jewelry worth at least $150,000 was stolen from Mrs. H. H. Hanan, the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hanan, Friday night.

Reports that the Hanans had been robbed were denied until today when Mrs. Hanan told the story of their loss. Mrs. Hanan is seriously ill and has been kept in ignorance of the robbery.

The articles taken include a diamond necklace, a pearl necklace, two diamond earring studs, a set of star sapphires surrounded by diamonds, a pendant, a brooch and a pair of black diamond earrings surrounded by white diamonds.

Evidently in a Hurry. A peculiar feature of the robbery was that some particularly valuable gems were left in the bureau drawer from which the others were removed.

Mrs. Hanan seldom wears the jewels and would not ordinarily have them at her Newport home.

The jewelry was taken from Mrs. Hanan's boudoir a few moments after she had left the house to attend a reception. The loss was discovered within thirty minutes, but although three detective agencies have been working on the case since Monday morning, no tangible clue has been found.

The Hanans are leaders in the summer colony. Mrs. Hanan is regarded as the showplace of the Newport. She controls the Casino and is financially interested in one of the leading hotels.

HIGH WIRELESS TOWER DEFLECTS RAIN STORMS

NEW YORK, July 30.—The fact that the Long Island village of Sayville has been deprived of the recent thunder showers which have visited this vicinity is attributed by some of the disappointed truck gardeners to the effect which the large wireless station there may have upon atmospheric conditions.

The wireless plant at Sayville is one of the most powerful in the world, having a main shaft 600 feet high to which are attached hundreds of wires. Farmers who have inquired of the radio inspection bureau of the Department of Commerce and Labor as to whether wireless plants deflect thundershowers, learn that if such is the case, the instance at Sayville is the first time that such an effect has been reported.

SAMBLER MURDERED FOR MONEY HE HAD WON

SEAGIRT, N. J., July 30.—George K. Harris, a stenographer 59 years old, who was found dead from three bullet wounds in the head near the summer home of Governor Fielder at the state campment reservation yesterday, had been gambling with the militiamen encamped there and was probably murdered for the money he won, according to a theory entertained by the police today. Harris was regarded as a "man of mystery" at the campment and little was known of him except that he came from Ixonia, Conn., about a month ago.

SECRETARY DANIELS IS IN MONTANA

GARRISON, Mont., July 30.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels arrived here today and began an automobile ride of more than fifty miles with Butte as the objective point. He will leave Butte tonight for Salt Lake City and Denver. From Denver he will proceed to Washington.

Old Man Attacked by Dogs.

IOWA FALLS, Ia., July 30.—(Special.)—Miss Featherstone, formerly of this city, is now residing in Mason City, Ia., laid up with injuries resulting from a ferocious attack by three coonhounds a few days ago. Mr. Featherstone is advanced in years and his injuries are not thought to be serious unless blood poison should set in. The attack by the dogs was unprovoked and might have proven fatal had not a neighbor seen the attack and clubbed the dogs away. He was badly scratched and bitten on the legs and hands.

DEMOCRATS BREAK PROMISE

Senator McLean Quotes Underwood's Speeches in Connecticut.

WHAT HE TOLD MILL WORKERS

Differences in Production Here and Abroad Would Be Taken Care Of in Democratic Tariff Bill—Redfield Also Quoted.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Charging that democratic leaders have broken their tariff promises made to the working people of New England before the last national election, Senator George P. McLean of Connecticut assailed the Underwood-Bimmons bill in the senate today.

Recounting the campaign in Connecticut directed particularly against Representative Ebenezer Hill of the ways and means committee, Senator McLean quoted from speeches made by Majority Leader Underwood, Secretary of Commerce Redfield, Representative Reilly and Governor S. E. Baldwin, whom he quoted as assuring the mill workers that the democratic tariff would look after the differences in cost of production here and abroad.

Try to Compromise. "The protection democrats have tried to compromise with the 'free trade' democrats, of course, is impossible," Senator McLean declared. "You cannot compromise with arithmetic or the compass. You are either there or you are not there. If 30 per cent did not protect then 20 per cent will not protect now. My complaint is that the democratic party has broken its sacred promise to the people of Connecticut. This I have shown from the lips of those democrats who alone had authority to do the promising. If adequate protection is found in any rate contained in this bill, it is there by accident only.

"This bill has been described as a glaring example of invisible and insidious government. It is not the way in which conclusions of the committee have been reached; it is the effect of these conclusions that the people of Connecticut are afraid of. This bill may be an example of invisible, as the senator from Iowa so aptly added the epithet, insidious government, but it is also a sample of minority government, in that complete promises of that minority to the people of Connecticut that I object to."

Stonewall Demounces Republicans. "Shaking a clenched fist at republican senators Senator Stone today charged during the tariff debate that every republican speech he had heard had been delivered with the deliberate attempt to create a panic.

The Missouri senator spoke in reply to Senator McLean. He declared it appeared to him that the republicans through their speeches were sending messages to the country with a design of creating fear and distrust.

Senator Clark of Wyoming challenged Mr. Stone's statement and asserted that if any distrust were being engendered it was through statements by President Wilson, Secretary Redfield and Secretary McAdoo.

Senator Stone replied with a charge of a conspiracy among republican senators to create public distrust.

"Name the senators," demanded Senator Clark.

"Every republican I have heard speak," said Senator Stone. He finally named the Wyoming senator himself.

"I have not delivered a speech," retorted Senator Clark.

Senator Stone read mercantile agency reports showing good business conditions. Senator Penrose declared that not a textile industry in Pennsylvania east of the Susquehanna river was running three days a week.

Girl Confesses Story of Quarrel with Husband a Lie.

FORCED TO DO SO BY THREATS

Mary Armstrong Dean, Leaving Spouse on Honey-moon, Throws Self into His Arms in Jail.

IOLA, Kan., July 29.—In the presence of her husband, Harvey Dean, and local officers here tonight, Mary Armstrong Dean, who abruptly left her husband while they were on their honeymoon trip here last Wednesday night, admitted that the story she told yesterday relative to her disappearance was false in almost every detail.

Mrs. Dean was brought here and placed in the county jail last night. As soon as her husband entered the cell she rushed into his arms and embraced and kissed him. The young farmer was overjoyed by the reconciliation with his wife.

"That was a terrible story I was forced to tell about Harvey threatening to kill me," she said. "There never was a truer, kinder or more loving boy in the world. They made me lie about him. They threatened me with violence to induce me to tell that story to save McCord."

The officers were close to us and McCord fled. Then his friends, a man at Cherryvale, with threats put this story about Harvey in my mouth."

Mrs. Dean said the night she left her husband McCord was accompanied by half a dozen of his friends and that they crowded around her and forced her to refrain from calling for help as they took her to the depot and put her on a train. She said she went with McCord and his friends to Cherryvale and indeed she had been there since she arrived at the home of his parents near Neodesha. She said the ringleader of the men was not McCord, but a man from Missouri, who had harassed her before she married Dean. She refused to reveal this man's name, explaining that she was afraid to do so.

Dean kissed his wife affectionately when he left the jail for the night.

Bishop Explains His Request for Parole for Boyhood Friend

ST. PAUL, July 30.—Explanation of the recent request of Bishop Edwin H. Hughes of San Francisco that the Minnesota board of pardons consider favorably the application of Matthew H. McNabb is contained in a letter to Governor Eberhard. Bishop Hughes, a boyhood playmate of McNabb's, who was convicted of white slavery, writes:

"I did not mean to apply for leniency for a man who had been convicted of what is known as white slavery. My appeal was not based on behalf of McNabb himself, but rather in behalf of his wife and six children who needed his financial support.

"If later you see any way in which the case of justice can be served and at the same time aid be given to McNabb's family by his parole, I shall be pleased. Otherwise, I will not ask for clemency." McNabb's application for a pardon was denied by the board.

MISSING BANK CASHIER LOCATED IN VANCOUVER

CEDAR FALLS, Ia., July 29.—(Special Telegram.)—E. Bourquin, former cashier of the New Hartford bank, who has been missing for two years, has been located at Vancouver, B. C., where he is reported to be conducting a successful rooming house. At the time Bourquin disappeared the wife of the proprietor of a meat market, Mrs. Frank Huffman, also disappeared, and she is supposed to be with him in Vancouver.

The banker took about $35,000 personal property and state bank officials pronounced his bank intact after examinations. Mrs. Bourquin received her divorce and now lives in Toledo, O., with their daughter, Hazel, who was married during the past year.

Huffman has also been divorced from his runaway wife. Bourquin wrote the clerk of Butler county for a complete transcript of the divorce proceedings whereby his wife obtained her divorce. The supposition is that he now wants to marry again.

EIGHTEEN-FOOT BALLOT IN NEW YORK PRIMARY

NEW YORK, July 30.—The fourteen-foot ballot which came in for so much ridicule during the election primaries last fall has been outdone by one eighteen feet long which will be used in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third assembly district here this fall. There is no press in New York big enough to take the ballots at a single impression. They will have to be printed in six-foot sections and pasted together like a circus bill.

CASTRO TAKES CITY OF CORO

Ex-President of Venezuela Starts Another Revolution.

SITUATION BECOMES CRITICAL

Partisans of Former Dictator Invade Country from Several Points—Governor of Falcon Captured.

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, July 30.—Rumors have reached here that the town of Coro, in the state of Falcon, has been occupied by partisans of Cipriano Castro and that General Leon Jurado, governor of Falcon, has been taken prisoner by them.

It is said that Castro landed in Venezuela yesterday. A number of the former president's followers, including two of his young nephews, secretly embarked here today for Coro.

The political situation in Venezuela is generally regarded as critical. Scores of important personages have been imprisoned.

BOGOTA, Colombia, July 30.—Active revolutionary movement in Venezuela, and the invasion of that country simultaneously at various points on the Colombian frontier by adherents of former President Cipriano Castro are reported by the newspapers here. The Colombian government is observing complete neutrality.

M'GINNIS IS NOW "SOLID" AROUND THE STATE HOUSE

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., July 29.—(Special.)—It was ice cream day at the state house today. Ice cream and cake were on tap all the afternoon in one of the basement rooms under the offices of the railway commission.

The ice cream was furnished by Robert McGinnis, president of the Nebraska Ice Cream Manufacturers' association, and the cake by the young women of the railway department and one or two other departments. McGinnis had been bragging around the state house about his ice cream and was finally "called" by some of the young women, who said they could make better cake than he could ice cream. They were told to make the cake and the cream would be forthcoming.

This date and hour marks the most decisive step ever taken by the Omaha retailers and places them in the progressive ranks of twentieth century merchandisers. Confident of the generous response of the Omaha buying public, we would remind them to do their shopping early, as with the coming of the "Dog Days" in August the great army of employees can better serve them in the cool morning hours than in the hot and sultry afternoons and evenings. The retailers of Omaha are willing to assume whatever temporary loss of profits there may be believing that this movement meets the hearty approval of the Omaha buying public.
