

The Kranich & Bach Piano

Stands at the Head

And why shouldn't it? When it has stood the test since 1864, and more than 50,000 people are using and speaking its praises, The Kranich & Bach piano belongs to the high grade artistic makes of the country. The Violin or metal plate with included in block is one of the features of the greatest importance and used only in Kranich & Bach pianos. The Violin plate insures the minimum pull on the strings and this results in a longer vibration, and which means a purer, more sonorous and greater sustained tone. It also means that Kranich & Bach pianos will stay in tune longer than instruments without this great improvement. Many other unique improvements are the sole possession of Kranich & Bach pianos—improvements that we will be glad to show you.

FAIRFIELD NOW CHIEF CLERK

Land Commissioner Advances Him from Bookkeeper.

GOVERNOR TALKS IN STATE

He and Private Secretary Deliver Addresses at Brownville Homecoming—Vets Worry Over Rates to Encampment.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Ernest Fairfield, who has been bookkeeper in the office of the land commissioner for five years, is promoted to be chief clerk to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Mr. Emery to the deputyship and Miss Amanda Beckman, the land commissioner's daughter, who has been chief clerk under the state veterinarian. Dr. Bostrom, is made bookkeeper in place of Mr. Fairfield.

Secretary's Nephew Dead.—The Secretary of State Walt received a telegram this morning that his nephew, George Wait, for years prosecuting attorney for Champaign county, Ohio, and city attorney of the city of Urbana, had died suddenly at that town.

Governor Makes Speech.—Governor Morehead and Private Secretary Morrissey went to Brownville this morning, where both were scheduled for speeches at the homecoming celebration at that place. It has been intimated that Mr. Morrissey will not object to succeeding his chief as executive of the state of Nebraska. Since he has been connected with the executive offices he has several times spoken at gatherings and has developed into a very entertaining talker.

Veterans Trying for Crowd.—Assistant Adjutant General Scoborn of the Grand Army of the Republic has received a letter from the publicity committee of the national Grand Army of the Republic committee at Chattanooga, in which they complain that on account of the Mexican uprising and the talk of war, with the present conditions existing at Washington the papers of the country and especially Nebraska do not seem to give much publicity to the coming encampment September 15 to 20. This with the fact that the railroads decline to give a reduced rate is causing the committee a great deal of worry.

Roads Slow in Collecting.—The Lincoln Tribune of the committee which had in charge the disbursement of the fund appropriated by the legislature is worrying because the railroads do not send in their vouchers for payment of the funds on tickets furnished the old soldiers. He has notified local agents of all roads, but he can hear nothing and until all claims are in no settlement can be made.

Hotels Pay Fees.—Hotel Commissioner Phil Ackerman turned over to State Treasurer George this morning $1,864 in fees received by his department for permits to run hotels and eating houses under the new law.

TECUMSEH MAN IS FINED FOR THREE OFFENSES

TECUMSEH, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Oleh Baty, a Tecumseh young man with a police court record, got on a rampage Thursday night and as a consequence he spent several weeks in the city jail. It seems Baty was recently married, but he lived with his wife but two weeks. He went to a pavilion skating rink on Clay street and there he saw his wife skating with other men. He was ejected from the rink, but not until a few blows had been exchanged. Baty went to a restaurant, where Officer James Keegan found him and attempted to arrest him. He put up a fight to the officer, but was soon subdued and landed in the city jail. Friday Baty was taken before Judge E. F. Perkins, where he faced three counts: Indecent language, resisting an officer and intoxication. He pleaded guilty to each count. Judge Perkins fined him $25 on the first count, $50 on the second and $25 on the third, with the costs. Baty had no money and will spend fifty-two days in jail.

Notes from Table Rock.

TABLE ROCK, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—A large and enthusiastic crowd went from here to Dawson yesterday to witness a red hot ball game between Table Rock and Dawson. The score was 15 to 15 in favor of Table Rock.
Fred Bausch, living west of here had the misfortune to lose his best work horse by lightning during the electrical disturbances two or three days ago.
The rural letter carriers have held a recent meeting at the home of ex-State President J. H. Talbot at Table Rock. Subjects connected with the service were discussed, also matters to come before the next meeting of the state association, which will be held at Norfolk, September 1. Lunch, ice cream and cake were served. Those present were State Vice President J. C. Conkright, Seward; State Secretary E. W. Cliff, Humboldt; Carrier J. Day, Humboldt; ex-State Secretary C. A. Morton, Cheney; C. W. Tumblin, Wynora, county secretary of Gage county, and J. H. Talbot, C. W. Beck and Earl M. Irwin of Table Rock.

BELL COMPANY ON GRILL FOR SERVICE AT BLAIR

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The Blair Telephone company complains to the railway commission that the Bell Telephone company has shut it out of Omaha and that it is unable to obtain communication for long distance business with subscribers in that city. The Blair company formerly had connection with Omaha through the New State exchange at that place, which was taken over by the Bell company a year ago.
The railway commission has written the Bell company that failure to supply service in this case is liable to get them into trouble and if they do not proceed to give the Blair company satisfactory service the matter will be placed in the hands of the attorney general of the state.

Mail Delivery Begins at Blair.—BLAIR, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Mail delivery for the city was commenced on Friday with two carriers, who will make three deliveries to the business houses and two in the residence portion daily. Deliveries were made to over 300 boxes and Postmaster W. J. Cook thinks there will be a rapid increase in the number of patrons. The business was heavy for the first day and there will be another carrier put on next week. The two carriers are Roy Neighbour and Carl Bolt. Arthur Gustason, the substitute, will be the third man.

Regulars from Army to Umpire Maneuvers

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Details from the regular army for the maneuvers of the Nebraska troops have been made and the following assigned to duty:
Lieutenant Colonel Waldo E. Ayers, Ninth cavalry.
Captain Walter C. Babcock, Thirtieth cavalry.
Captain Alfred A. Starbird, Fifth artillery.
Captain Edwin S. Harshorn, Fourth infantry.
First Lieutenant Forrest E. Overholser, Fifth infantry.
First Lieutenant John H. Trinder, medical corps.
An umpire will be stationed with each battalion for the purpose of watching their movements and in case any of them expose themselves or any part to open fire, which in their judgment in actual warfare would cause great loss of life, they will be immediately ruled out. It is with the idea of using skill and care that regular army officers are detailed for these positions.

Bryan Is Too Busy to Rest at Fairview

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 2.—Secretary of State Bryan will not come to Lincoln for a three-day rest at his Fairview home as he had planned, according to information received here today. The secretary has several chautauqua dates in Nebraska during the coming week and he had arranged to spend Sunday and perhaps two other days here.

LABOR COMMISSIONER REPORTS STATE MORTGAGES

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Labor Commissioner Pool has prepared a statement of farm, city and chattel mortgages filed and released during the last four years. In each instance the amount of mortgages filed exceeds the amount released and is due, in the case of farm mortgages, to the rapid advancement in the price of land in Nebraska and the changes in ownership, necessitating a renewal of a former mortgage, and on land purchased a mortgage given for a portion of the purchase price. On chattel mortgages, in many cases releases are not filed, which consequently makes the release amount unreliable. Following is the statement prepared by Mr. Pool:

Farm Mortgages.
Year.	Filed.	Released.	Amount.
1912	23,927	22,947	$29,319,516.55

Sheriff Sees Dodge County.

BLAIR, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—About a year ago Sheriff Compton of this county caught a man at Florence, who was wanted by the Dodge county officials on a charge of horse stealing and for whom they had offered a reward of $50. He was released on a $500 bail, which he forfeited and skipped the country. The bond was paid, but Sheriff Compton was turned down last week by the Dodge county board and has filed suit to get his money.

Mail Carrier Admits Robbing Himself

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 2.—Postoffice inspectors here announce that Charles I. Wagner, mail carrier at Hachita, N. M., had confessed that he was the man who robbed the mail carried by him, thus solving the mystery surrounding a crime that puzzled the federal authorities for several weeks. Wagner also confessed that he shot himself through the arm to give color to his story that he was held up by two Mexicans.

Mrs. Alice Church Commits Suicide

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Alice Church, 30 years old, divorced wife of Bert S. Church, general superintendent of the Sinclair parking company of Cedar Rapids, Ia., whose body was found in a downtown hotel yesterday, committed suicide while temporarily insane, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury today. Mr. Church testified that his wife had been mentally unbalanced since the death of their only child two years ago and that last September she made two attempts to end her life.

Notes from Glenwood.

GLENWOOD, Ia., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The shoe store of Swartz & Vinton is closed for invoice, this being made necessary by the purchase of the stock of Eric Swartz by Representative A. S. (Fred) Workman.
Malcolm B. McNab and Esther L. Anderson of Council Bluffs secured license from County Clerk Brown at Glenwood yesterday and were married by Rev. Mr. Thompson of the Christian church.
Sam R. Young of the Glenwood Tribune sold his interest in the paper and Thursday will embark in business elsewhere. Mr. Young will visit for a month in southern Indiana and will be joined in Chicago about September 1 by Mr. Young, after he has made a selection from several flattering offers that have been made him.

SENATE DONE WITH MULHALL

N. A. M. "Lobbyist" to Appear Before House Committee Next Week.

WASHINGTON TO TESTIFY MONDAY

Former Representative Expected to Make Vigorous Presentation of His Case to Inquirers of Upper Body.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The lobby committee today completed the examination of Martin M. Mulhall, "ex-lobbyist" for the National Association of Manufacturers, and the grilling of that individual will be transferred early next week to the house end of the capitol. Chairman Garrett of the house committee announced tonight that the examination of Mulhall by his committee would begin Tuesday or Wednesday.

The house investigation, it is believed, will produce more bitterness even than that which characterized the senate investigation, which has been devoted largely to the routine reading of letters in which reference was made to Mulhall's alleged relations with members of congress.

Examination Brief.

The senate committee released Mulhall today after only a brief examination by attorneys for the National Association of Manufacturers and with little cross-examination from the committee.

Chairman Garrett and his associates on the house side propose to begin with a searching examination of the witness. The letters will be identified "in bulk" as they were presented to the senate committee and Mulhall will then be put upon a direct examination as to his alleged activities in legislative matters and elections.

"We will first take up his charges affecting members of the present house," said Chairman Garrett, "then his reference to members of former congresses and to employes of congress, and finally his alleged connection with matters of legislation."

Former Congressman Watson of Indiana, the target for much of Mulhall's attack before the senate committee, will take the witness stand before the senate committee Monday morning. Watson has denounced Mulhall in strong terms since the investigation began and he is expected to make a vigorous presentation of his case on the witness stand.

Date is a Puzzle to the Employes

New light has been shed on the business traits of John Lee Webster, attorney for the board of directors of the Metropolitan water district. Webster was seen in a private conference with E. Beecher Howell when the telephone rang. "Hello," said Webster, when called to answer the telephone. "Well, the hour is satisfactory. Find out whether it's in the morning or evening."

MAN ARRESTED AT CRESTON ON WHITE SLAVE CHARGE

CRESTON, Ia., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—A man who gives his name as Clark and a girl who calls herself Gladys Williams were brought here from Bedford, this afternoon to be arraigned on a charge of white slavery. It is claimed that Clark enticed the girl from her home in Wisconsin and is traveling with her. The circumstances under which the couple were arrested are said to be suspicious. Clark claims to be an acrobat, while the girl says she is a professional snake charmer. Owing to the sickness of Judge Hanna the couple will be held in custody here until a hearing can be arranged.

Burn and Valuable Horse Barn.

PIERRE, S. D., Aug. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—A large barn on the farm of Eugene Hurlbut, nine miles north of this city, was destroyed by fire this evening and along with the building a fine registered Percheron stallion was burned. The loss was total.

ETIQUET OF LOBSTER PALACE

A Chicagoan unacquainted with the ways of New York entered one of Broadway's lobster palaces and ordered vichy with ice and soft-shelled crabs with tartar sauce. In accord with the settled customs of such places, he was not permitted to eat. The chef is a man of no small stature and he was not without ice and that soft-shelled crabs take no tartar sauce in good society. Instead of accepting this with a complacent smile, the rash man insisted on his order, and as a result had some unpleasantness and a fight where he should have had nothing but a long wait, bad service and a big bill.
The incident illustrates western ignorance of the aims and ends of the palatial taverns in New York City. Such places do not call themselves "palaces" without a sense of royal pride. They are not open for the gratification of guests, but for the edification of the innkeeper and his help. The proprietor is above a captain of industry. The chef is a high functionary. The head waiter is a haughty lord. The waiter in ordinary is by no means a subordinate. The way-faring man that enters does so at the risk of something more than his digestion and his private fortune. If he offends the customs of the place by impatient requests for compliance with his orders, he is likely to lose his patience and his dinner as well.—New York World.

IDLE EQUIPMENT OF MEN

Right handed persons are commonly right footed as well. That is to say, they kick or stamp with the right foot, dig with the right heel, tap with the right toe, and, in general, do any unsymmetrical act on the right side. We use a foot without it mate far less commonly than a hand; but when we do, the right side is just as clearly superior in the one case as in the other.
Moreover, as Dr. Gould of Philadelphia has pointed out, right handed persons are normally also right eyed. We sight a gun, use telescope or microscope, with the right eye. We sit on the right side of a drive, in order that the right eye may have the better vision past the horse's head. The engineer sits on the right side of his cab, in spite of the fact that his position brings his left hand on the throttle, in order to see down the track with his best eye. We stand to bat or on the side that brings the right eye most nearly in line with the ball, even at the cost of being an appreciable distance farther from first base.

thinking and remembering done on that side, the right hand, rather than the left, becomes the special servant of the mind. Foot and eye go with the hand. The auditory nerves do not cross, like the others, and the left ear connects most directly with the thinking apparatus.—McClure's Magazine.

LITTLE MOTHER RULED HOME

How Plucky Daughter Grappled with Responsibilities When Mother Died.

When I was a little more than 16 years old and still in high school, mother passed away, leaving to me the responsibility of looking after a family of four—father, sister, brother and myself. My previous experience had been confined to occasionally assisting at odd times in the household.
A few weeks' trial seemed to prove that the work was beyond my strength and ability. Defeat meant the breaking up of the home and the scattering of the family. I knew that lack of intelligent management and experience was the fault; yet I did not wish to give up until I had made a final effort. I believed that if each member of the family would co-operate and a system be evolved there might still be a chance.
The other members of the family agreed with me. They also agreed that economy in labor was more necessary than in finances and advised that I procure any system devised after long experiment. I have not only succeeded in keeping the home up to its former standard, but am able to do so in less than half the time, with less physical effort and with considerable saving of money. I have even done more of the work than had ever been done at home before, for I do all the washing, ironing and housecleaning formerly done by hired help.
I have found by experience that it is the monotony of certain kinds of work that fags rather than the actual amount of work done. So instead of laboring steadily, I find it easier to give it one hour each day for three or five days. I have a regular hour for this, and it comes as natural to iron at that hour as to wash the dishes daily.
Breakfast is at 6:30 o'clock, the men getting to their work at 7:30 o'clock. They look after the furnace and other chores. My sister (aged 16) does the chamber work and washes the breakfast and dinner dishes. This is her share of the housework. On Monday I start the washing while she does her work. While the first boilerful is boiling, I prepare the meat and vegetables for the evening meal. Anything requiring long cooking is at once put into the fireless. Otherwise it is prepared and set aside to put in the cooker after lunch. By 10 o'clock the washing is on the line, with no real work except the handling. The bedroom work is out of the way, the dinner is provided for in the cooker and I still have two hours before lunch for the regular work.
Each member of the family being responsible for his own individual effects, I have little picking up to do. Dinner is at 6 o'clock, and as it is mostly prepared in the fireless, I have only hot biscuit or dessert to make for it. This is a pleasure.

During the rest of the week I iron from 7 o'clock to 8 o'clock, and from 8 o'clock to half past 1 I use the vacuum cleaner. This leaves the rest of the morning for the regular cleaning of pantries, closets, washing windows, cleaning the bathroom and the various household tasks. Each afternoon is thus left free for sewing, rest or pleasure.
I have found that with this system of having a scheduled time for everything and as many labor saving devices as possible it has been possible for even a young girl to fill all the requirements of a large home. It has taken the drudgery out of the work and made it a pleasure.—Pictorial Review.
