

The Society Bee-Hive

BY MELLIFICIA. Wednesday, August 6, 1913.

THE country clubs will be deserted this evening and society will attend the circus.

The old-time excuse, "taking the children to see the parade and the elephants," was worn threadbare this morning by the society matrons. Slightly windows along the route of the parade were filled, not only with the bright faces of the youngsters, but interested mothers' faces could be seen as well.

One mother confessed this morning before her departure for the parade that the children would attend the circus this afternoon with the nurse maid, but she would have to go this evening to take her husband.

There will be several large "circus parties," but some of those who have taken motor trips to the northern lakes will seek the country clubs instead, having seen the circus once this summer, and some of them twice.

At Carter Lake Country Club.

There will be an old-fashioned dance at the Carter Lake Country club this evening following the dinner for the residents at the club. In place of dancing the new dances, in which society is so interested, there will be a revival of the Virginia Reel, the lancers and many of the dances which have not been in vogue for several years.

Dr. J. A. Despecher will entertain at dinner this evening, when he will have covers laid for twelve guests.

Among others who will have guests at dinner are L. M. Semtala, who will have thirteen guests; D. C. Dodds, three; W. E. Van Cott, three; C. Leber, three; F. L. Keller, three; A. Jaeger, three; W. Gordy, three; G. Tierney, four; Paul Meyer, two; Charles Dundy, three.

Those who had guests at the dinner dance Tuesday evening were Mrs. F. M. Tuttle, who had ten guests; H. Keating, ten; C. F. Snow, two; H. E. Rogers, three; E. H. Lukhart, eight, and H. J. Deans, two.

At the Field Club.

Mrs. H. B. Morrill will entertain at luncheon at the Field club on Thursday for her guests, Mrs. Helen Sturdevant of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mrs. Plinler and Miss Dorothy Plinler of Dubuque, Ia. Twenty-five guests will be present.

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Knode will have four guests at dinner this evening.

Test-Bixby Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Josephine Bixby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bixby, to Lieutenant Frederick C. Test, took place Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 122 Emmet street. Rev. Marcus McClure of Council Bluffs performed the ceremony.

The bride wore her go-away gown of white linen, trimmed with Irish lace and a white Panama hat. There were no attendants.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Test left for Concord, N. H., where Lieutenant Test is stationed as instructor of the national guard.

Birthday Anniversary.

Mrs. John Richard was at home Sunday afternoon from 1 to 4, at her country home, Riverside, in honor of her daughter, Miss Margaret, the occasion being the nineteenth birthday. About 100 guests called during the afternoon. The rooms were decorated with ferns, palms and carnation flowers, while the tables had center pieces of carnations and roses.

At Seymour Lake Country Club.

Mrs. L. M. Lord entertained at a bridge luncheon at the Seymour Lake Country club house today for her house guests, Mrs. C. W. Hayes and Mrs. E. M. Syfert. Those present were:

- Misses—T. L. Combs, Edward Plalman, L. J. Hensley, C. H. Coons, C. H. Marley, Coburn of St. Louis, N. H. Nelson.
- Misses—M. A. King, John Urion, E. J. King, W. C. Lambert, A. V. Shotwell, Alice Ennor, L. M. Lord.

For Miss Burnham.

The Misses Vera Peery and Alfie Ahlstrom entertained at a towel shower Monday evening at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Alice Burnham, whose wedding takes place in the early fall. The evening was spent in games and music. The decorations were carried out in Japanese style. Those present were:

Daily Fashion Hint

By LA RACONTEUSE.

Simple and young afternoon dress composed of a small and smart orange taffeta, caqueque widely crossed in front. Cut in the kimono shape with the low armhole, the half length sleeves are fastened below the shoulder under a French fold, and finished by a high turn-up cuff, fastened with two taffeta buttons and loops and edged all round by a French fold of taffeta. Deeply opened in front it is edged round the neck up to the waist with a tiny piping of taffeta. A flat round collar trims the shoulder and back. A white chiffon fichu crossed on the front and edged by a full of Maline lace trims the neck. The front crossing part of the coat is trimmed with two motives of taffeta and buttons of the same material. The fullness is lightened at the waist in a plain black silk ribbon fastened on front and finished in two shawl ends edged with long black silk fringe. A white rose gives the gown a delicate touch of color.

A short blouse, slightly gathered, finishes this ensemble, the plain short skirt striped in orange and white taffeta, gathered at the waist, fastens in front under a shawl edged side trimmed with fancy glass buttons. At the bottom the skirt is all up to show the foot.

Butter Prices to Keep On Climbing Toward the Sky

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Although Chicago housewives have been paying midwinter prices for butter and a further advance is expected, there are more than 65,000,000 pounds of the product in cold storage, according to the report today of the Warehousemen's association. This is better than 10,000,000 pounds more than was reserved a year ago.

A half cent increase yesterday made the price 29 1/2 cents to jobbers and another advance of 1 cent was predicted for today. Prices to consumers range from 25 cents to 28 cents, according to location.

Jobbers attribute the high prices and enormous cold storage stocks to the warfare between the Chicago and Elgin butter boards. Butter jobbers have been in the habit of contracting in advance for butter to be delivered during the season of greatest production on a basis of Elgin prices. This year Elgin quotations have been relatively higher than prices at any of the leading markets of the nation.

Jobbers have been paying more for butter than they could sell at and have been forced to place their purchases in storage, awaiting a higher market.

There has been an unusually heavy production of butter and so much of it has gone in storage that jobbers anticipate a crash if there is a mid winter.

WOMAN INJURED BY AUTO AS SHE ALIGHTS FROM CAR

Mrs. J. F. C. Rumohr, 712 South Seventeenth avenue, was painfully injured this morning at Fifteenth and Harney streets, where she was struck by an automobile as she was alighting from a north bound street car. The auto was driven by its owner, Henry Rankin, Tarkio, Mo., and is said to have been going slowly at the time of the accident.

Ranking was driving west on Harney street and saw Mrs. Rumohr. He slowed up, but says Mrs. Rumohr did not see him and stepped in front of his machine. She was unconscious when picked up and after being carried to a drug store was at-
