MOVES IN THIS DIRECTION

Southern Counties Still Parched, but Indications Favorable to Rain
There at an Early
Time.

A good general rain fell over the northern and western part of state Saturday and Sunday night, and every indication promises that it will reach south and east to Omaha. The railroads running out of Omaha report rains that fell steadily from an hour to two hours and a half last night, and prospects were excellent for more of the welcome precipitation today. It began sprinkling shortly before midnight in Omaha.

of Great Value North.

The precipitation came in time to do much good in the localities visited. It will practically make corn in the northern counties and farther south will go far to save part of the late planted crop of this cereal. Many of the best agricultural sections of southern Nebraska have not yet been visited.

Along the lines of the Union Pacific heavy rains that varied around half an inch fell between Grand Island and Columbus, while east from Columbus to Frederick slightly lighter rains fell. On the Norfolk branch, in the vicinity of Cedar Rapids, good rains fell at odd times Saturday and continued well into last night.

The Northwestern lines reported a two and a half hour rainfall all along the route from Oakland north, and stations along the Norfolk branch reported to the local dispatcher that good rains were falling and heading in the direction of Omaha. At Wakefield and other stations on the Minneapolis & Omaha road, rains were falling and showed no signs of discontinuing.

The Burlington reported late last night that good soaking rains were falling from O'Neill to Sioux City and from Schuyler to Ashland and that the precipitation showed every indication of becoming general over the entire Omaha and Lincoln divisions.

Heavy in West.
Grand Island and Kearney were visited by a drizzle that continued all afternoon and well into the night, as were several other cities in the western part of the state. On the Northwestern stations in the neighborhood of Pilger, Oakdale and Elgin, rains fell to the extent of an inch, while stations closer to Omaha reported light rains.

It is probable that the rains of last night of continued today or tomorrow will practically make late crops north of the Platte and will make the corn yield on the Omaha and Lincoln divisions of the Burlington, which are south of the Platte, an average yield, but there is little doubt that the corn south of the Platte in the western part of the state will not yield over 40 per cent of an average crop, even with continued soaking rains.

In Gage county conditions were serious and farmers declared an immediate root soaker was the only thing that would save late corn.

Good Rain in Dodge.
FREMONT, Neb., Aug. 10.—Sixty hundreds of an inch of rain here, an inch at North Bend and three quarters inch at Scribner, spreading over the entire county, has insured a corn crop. With no more moisture whatever, rain fell steadily from 11 o'clock Saturday night to daylight Sunday.

RAIN BRINGS RELIEF TO CORN

Average Crop Probably Will Be Harvested in Most of State.
In 1909 only three southern colleges had standard requirements for entrance; this year 160 announced standard admission requirements. Thus Miss Elizabeth Avery Coulton, secretary of the Southern Association of College Women, sums up the advancement that has taken place in higher education in the south since 1909, in a report distributed by the United States bureau of education.

Not only in entrance requirements, but also in libraries, laboratories, buildings and equipment of all kinds, as well as in the extremely important matter of the training and ability of the faculty, Miss Coulton notes marked improvement. She

OBJECT TO CURRENCY BILL

Nebraska Congressman Receives Many Letters Opposing It.

STATE BANKERS MAKE PROTEST

Provision of Money Measure Giving Banks Privilege of Loaning Money on Real Estate Criticized.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Events in congress will prevent the attendance at the interparliamentary union to be held August 23 at The Hague of Senator Norris and Representative Kinkaid, both of whom had tentatively made plans to go. The American delegates are selected by congress and it was expected three senators and five representatives would go, with a possibly larger attendance. It seems doubtful now that even the eight delegates will attend.
Representative Kinkaid said today that he regretted that he would be unable to attend. The possibility that a vote will be taken in the house on both tariff and currency bills, he said, made it inadvisable for him to leave. There are certain amendments to the currency bill especially in which he is interested, and the passage of which he expects to urge when the bill comes up for discussion.

Warrick in Capital.

S. K. Warrick of Scott's Bluff has been in the city for a day or two. He attended the conference of western bankers at the Treasury department and has also been making some effort to prevent the adoption of the free sugar amendment to the tariff bill. He has not met with much encouragement from the members of congress whom he has approached on the subject. In spite of the narrow margin which is left to the democrats through the death of Senator Johnston of Alabama, it is not generally believed that any change can be made in the free sugar program.

While Senator Hitchcock voted against the free sugar amendment in caucus he stated at the time that he expected to abide by the caucus instruction in that respect when the final vote is taken on the tariff bill.

Canvass of Senate.

A canvass of the senate has recently been taken with a view of finding some loophole by which the free sugar amendment might be defeated. The result, however, has apparently given no hope to those who are opposed to it, and it is believed that the caucus instruction on the measure will stand.

The recent conference of western bankers with Treasury department officials gave the delegates an opportunity of presenting their views to currency leaders, and it is believed here that some of their recommendations may be adopted before the bill is finally passed. That these recommendations must be adopted before the bill will receive any republican support from Nebraska members is indicated by Representative Barton.

Referring to the currency program today Mr. Barton said that realizing that currency reform was needed, he had opposed it in the past. He said that if it seemed an improvement over present conditions, but he felt that he cannot vote for the administration bill in its present form.

Mr. Barton stated that he has received a good many objections to the bill from various quarters in his district and in other parts of Nebraska, and that the objections seem sound to him.

Received Many Objections.

One strong objection urged in letters and also presented by the Nebraska Bankers who attended the recent conference is the provision relating to giving national banks the privilege of loaning money on real estate. It is pointed out that this provision puts entirely too short a limit of time for which such loans can be made. Real estate loans under the present bill can run for nine months only. Most real estate loans now run for three to five years, and a limit of nine months, it is said, would practically forestall any loans being made on such security.

Representative Stephens has some amendments that he expects to urge before the caucus Monday night. One of these relates to the deposit that member banks must make with the reserve center. Mr. Stephens believes that the member banks should be allowed to deposit commercial paper with such banks in lieu of the cash deposits now required.
He suggests that if a cash deposit is required, from each of the thousands of the banks that may become members of the reserve districts, it will create a shortage in currency, which will be felt all over the country, and seriously cripple everyone, banks and customers alike, as loans of banks would have to be recalled in order to provide cash to make the required deposits. But if commercial paper could be used to make such deposits the loans could still continue to run and a stringency be avoided.

NOTICE FROM JOHNSON;
SICK BOY IS BETTER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—A base ball and an autograph letter from Walter Johnson, Washington's premier pitcher did more than medicine could do to bring about the rapid convalescence of Warren A. Rice, a youthful admirer of the big ball tosser.

Johnson, whose numerous admirers include scores of youths who idolize the pitcher, heard of the serious illness of the lad and wrote to him, sending a base ball he had used in pitching the Washington team to victory. The boy's recovery since receiving the letter has progressed rapidly.

TAX LEVY IS TO BE LESS THAN LAST YEAR

Commissioners Make a Reduction of 3.98 Mills Over the Year

CITY IS TO PAY STATE MORE Increase in State Taxes Amounts to 2.60 Mills.

DECREASE TO BE CONSIDERED

No Levy Made for Judgment Fund
This Year.

WATER FUND ALSO IS OUT

Some Funds Which Were Large Last Year Are Omitted Altogether in Making Up the Present Schedule.

County commissioners figure that the tax levy for this year will be 3.98 mills less than for last year. The levy was made at a meeting of the commissioners Saturday afternoon.

The levy for state and county purposes is 2.5 mills, and for city of Omaha purposes, $3.25 mill. This is more for the county and state and less for the city than last year. The increase in state taxes is 2.60 mills, increase in county taxes, .70 mills, and for city general fund taxes the increase is .68 mills, and for city school taxes, 1.50 mills, making a net increase of 5.48 mills.

To offset this increase the decrease must be considered. This is shown in four items to wit: No levy was made for the judgment fund this year, and last year this item amounted to 2.25 mills; no water judgment fund levy is made this year, and last year this amounted to 4.84 mills. There is a decrease in the sinking fund levy of .34 mills, and a decrease in the water fund levy of .10 mills, making a total decrease of 9.45 mills.

Not Slandered by Charge He Worked
On the Sabbath Day

ALTON, Ill., Aug. 10.—Justice of the Peace Barrett today dismissed a slander suit brought by Deacon John Denother of the Salem Presbyterian church, near Upper Alton, against Deacon Koch on the charge that Koch falsely had accused him of working on the Sabbath day.
The justice held that Deacon Denother was not slandered, because even if Koch charged that he worked on the Sabbath, he was not injured, as the scriptures justify necessary labor on that day.
Deacon Koch had charged Denother with plowing corn on the Sabbath and the congregation formally rebuked Denother for violating the commandments.
Denother said the accusation brought him into such bad repute that his neighbors would not speak to him. He denied that he plowed on the Sabbath, but said he led his horse to water on the Sabbath, buried a dead horse and nailed boards around a stove to prevent his children from burning themselves. These things he considered necessary and therefore permitted by the scriptures.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Aug. 10.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, and Mrs. Lind, and Dr. William Hayward Hale, who has been in Mexico for some time studying conditions on behalf of President Wilson, left here at 6 o'clock this morning on a regular passenger train bound for Mexico City. They are due at the capital about 8 o'clock this evening.

RECEIVES MESSAGE.

A message from the State department at Washington was handed to Mr. Lind as soon as the Lind family was anchored and with Dr. William Hayward Hale, who is also in Mexico as a personal representative of President Wilson, he considered it carefully. Both appeared to be impressed with its contents, but they were non-committal as to its character.

Mr. Lind's call of courtesy on Rear Admiral Frank E. Fletcher aboard the flagship Louisiana resulted in no discussion of his mission, the former governor preserving the same reserve regarding his instructions as characterized him at other meetings.

CORRECT TREATMENT ASSURED.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 10.—Correct treatment of John Lind, counselor of the United States embassy here and personal representative of President Wilson, is assured by the Mexican foreign office, in a message forwarded to Washington today and speculation in the Mexican capital tonight has turned to the nature of Mr. Lind's mysterious mission, which apparently, in the belief of the United States government, can solve the difficulties now besetting the Mexican nation.

While assuring the safety and freedom from annoyance of President Wilson's representative, the Mexican government stands firm on the non-acceptance of mediation, declaring on that point "that it already has made its declaration."

It is regarded as a foregone conclusion in political circles here, however, that the mission is bound to fail, unless the suggestions to be made by Mr. Lind take some other form.

ATMOSPHERE CLEARED.

The reply of Manuel Garza Aldape, acting foreign minister, to Secretary of State Bryan's second note recommending mediation by the Mexican officials and requesting that judgment be withheld respecting Mr. Lind's mission, has cleared the atmosphere of apprehension regarding his reception at the capital, which was built on rumors traceable to no definite source, but nevertheless persistent in its hostility to his coming.

SUFFICIENT CREDIT HAD BEEN GIVEN to these rumors apparently by those charged with the arrangements of Mr. Lind's trip from Vera Cruz to Mexico City to induce the utmost secrecy. The United States embassy has withheld all information respecting his movements, and it is not known tonight by what route he will come to the capital, or the time of his arrival.

LONG CONFERENCE HELD.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Two hours of conference today between President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and the senate foreign relations committee brought about no changes in the attitude of the administration toward Mexico.
The president took the senators into his confidence far enough to outline the following:

THAT JOHN LIND, HIS SPECIAL ENVOY TO
