TWO GOVERNORS OF NEW YORK EXCHANGE OFFICIAL NOTES

and chamber of officers, or elsewhere in my charge, possession or custody, relating to or in any way connected with or pertaining to the executive department, resolved.

"In response thereto, I decline to recognize you as acting governor of the state and decline to deliver to you the seal, possession and occupancy of the executive chamber and office, or in any way comply with the demands and requests in your letter.

"I shall continue to exercise and discharge the constitutional duties of the governor of the state; first, among other reasons, because I am advised that the assembly at its present extraordinary session possessed and possesses no power or authority to prefer articles of impeachment, and, secondly, because the lieutenant governor of the state is not authorized to act as governor in case of the impeachment of the governor unless such impeachment is sustained.

"For the purpose of preventing any unseemly struggle, I suggest that contented for the lieutenant governor and for myself agree on a method of submitting the question to the courts for decision and for that purpose that extraordinary sessions of the courts be forthwith called. In order that a speedy determination may be had, respectfully,

WILLIAM SULZER, Governor.

Council for Lieutenant Governor Glynn later made an appointment to confer this afternoon with D. Cadet Herrick, counsel for Governor Sulzer, in an effort to devise a way in which the courts could speedily settle the controversy.

Key Chained Down.

The second day of the dual administration in New York dawned on confusion in the capital. A steel chain with a heavy padlock decorated the great seal; the privy seal lay under lock and key; the way to the executive chamber, William Sulzer's official residence, was barred and from two offices the rival claimants to the governor's chair continued to exercise their functions.

Control of the national guard, access to the great seal, recognition by New York's secretary of state and by the governor of the neighboring state of New Jersey were prerogatives stripped from Governor Sulzer by Lieutenant Governor Glynn, who claims to be the acting chief executive. Possession of the privy seal, whose imprint validates all documents coming before the governor on affairs wholly within the state, and occupancy of the executive chambers, remained with Sulzer.

It was Glynn's move on the political chess board today. He planned a checkmate. Like a master of the game, he gave no hint to his opponent of what his move would be.

Glynn Declares Himself.

Lieutenant Governor Glynn on entering his office at the capital this morning announced that he would call on Governor Sulzer formally to vacate his office today.

Preparations, as if for a long siege were made at the executive chamber on the arrival of Lieutenant Governor Glynn. The locks on every door leading to the chamber and the governor's private office were changed and an attendant was stationed at each entrance.

Secretary of State Mitchell May returned from Saratoga this morning and called at the office of Lieutenant Governor Glynn before the latter's arrival at the capital.

"I merely called to pay my respects," said the secretary, "and to assure Mr. Glynn personally that I have decided to recognize him as governor of the state. As I read the law, I can find no other way to act consistently. It is not with me a case of taking sides. I can see no other way to perform my duty under the constitution."

Has Not Consulted Attorney.

"I have not yet asked the attorney general for an opinion as to whom I should recognize. However, if I am asked to certify any act of William Sulzer as governor, I shall submit the question to the attorney general and await his formal opinion before taking action."

A sensational report was current this morning that Governor Sulzer would seek the impeachment for treason of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, and organization leaders who commanded the anti-Sulzer forces in the battle for impeachment.

"There is nothing to it," asserted D.

David Dye Marries an Aged Woman Who Gave Him a Home

TABOR, Ia., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—David Dye and Miss Anna Mills were united in marriage at the bride's home in South Tabor today. Rev. George Weavers of the Faith House officiating.

The bride, who is 50 years of age, has for the last ten years looked after the welfare and education of the groom, who is now 23 years old.

Dye came here from Grant county, Missouri, about ten years ago and has made his home in the Mills' household. He has looked after Miss Mills' farm of 300 acres, which came to her upon the death of her mother some years ago.

The bride has devoted the rent from the farm for years to the support of the orphanage operated in connection with the Faith house.

The bride and groom will still occupy the old residence here.

STATE FAIR MANAGERS ARRANGE FOR EXHIBITS

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—The board of managers of the State Board of Agriculture Thursday afternoon spent several hours in arranging the final details for the state fair September 1.

President I. W. Hays, Vice Presidents Joseph Roberts and J. A. Oiler, Jr., Secretary W. R. Moller, Chairman C. H. Rudge and John F. McArdle were present. Peter Youngers was absent.

Considerable attention was given to the arrangements for the boys' school encampment. Mess tents, kitchen arrangements and other matters were discussed. It is expected that the attendance will be satisfactory in every way.

Expressions of sympathy were sent Superintendent J. H. Taylor, who was injured in an automobile accident Thursday at Gretna. Secretary Moller telephoned to Omaha and was assured that Mr. Taylor had rallied and stood an excellent chance of recovering from his injuries.

Nebraska orchardists, writing to President Clyde Barnard of the State Horticultural society, are making numerous entries for the fruit display. All classes will be represented this year. Letters have been received recently from R. T. Chambers of Bennet, Cal. McCormack of Lewellyn, J. R. Huffman of Auburn, C. B. Camp of Henry and others.

The florists are busy arranging their exhibits. Entries have been made by Lewis Henderson of Omaha, Frey & Frey, Lincoln; H. Green, Fremont; and Simon & Penno, Falls City.

The Lincoln Commercial club has selected a delegation of Lincoln men to attend the conference of the Agricultural Development committee of the Nebraska Bankers' association at Omaha, Aug. 20. The following were chosen: R. H. Grainger, E. A. Burnett, C. W. Pugsley, W. R. Moller, A. E. Wilkinson, J. R. Wright and P. L. Hall.

Castaways Rate Suspended.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Increases on freight rates on castaways from New Mexico, Kansas and Colorado to New York and other eastern markets proposed by the Santa Fe railway, have been suspended by the Interstate Commerce commission until December 1.

GOVERNMENT CLOSING CASE

Nellie Barton is Last Witness for the Prosecution in Diggs Trial.

LOLA NORRIS TELLS HER STORY

Admits that She Deceived Her Parents and Knew that the Accused Were Both Married Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The government closed its case this morning against Maury I. Diggs, former state architect of California, with the testimony of Nellie Barton, a friend of Marsha Warrington, whom the government charges Diggs transported from Sacramento to Reno for purposes which the men act defines as a felony.

Back and forth, across and cross-examination, Lola Norris was led today over the testimony of her friend, Marsha Warrington, already heard in the record of the government's case against Maury I. Diggs.

Judge Van Fleet repeatedly warned Attorney Devlin of the defense that the pursuit of "infinitesimal matters, not relative to the material issues of the case," was consuming time which later he might find valuable.

There was a glimpse into the psychology of the story when the well-mannered girl of apparent refinement, told how she had permitted herself to be so much in the company of a married man, Drew Caminetti, was known to her parents, she testified, as Mr. Whitman, and Diggs as Mr. Fisher.

"Why did you deceive your parents?" asked Devlin.

"Well, I knew Mr. Caminetti and Mr. Diggs were married," she answered, "and I knew that my parents would have forbidden us to go with them, if they had known who they were."

"I knew it was wrong for me to go with either one of them, but I didn't consider it positively wrong for me to go with Mr. Caminetti, because the time he spent with me I knew he wouldn't spend with his wife anyway."

Nellie Barton, a pretty Sacramento girl, was in court, accompanied by her mother.

The government will attempt to show by her that Diggs and his attorney, Charles C. Harris, attempted to make use of her friendship with Lola Norris and Marsha Warrington as a go-between for messages to stand pat and testify to nothing that would do Diggs and Caminetti injury.

CALL ON WILSON TO EXPLAIN

dress the senate on conditions in Mexico and will offer a resolution which I hope will go some way toward asserting the dignity of the United States and its firm intention to protect the lives and property of Americans in Mexico.

Bacon Declines to Answer

Mr. Penrose asked Chairman Bacon of the foreign relations committee if he would reveal the status of Hale.

"I decline to answer," replied Senator Bacon.

"Declining to answer will not be satisfactory to the senate or to the people of the country," rejoined Senator Penrose.

Hale, Mr. Penrose declared, had been active in Mexico City, "conveying the impression that he is the representative of President Wilson," and had been in conference with Mr. Lind since the envoy's arrival.

Senator Penrose added he had known Hale several years, and that he left Ardmore, Pa., about thirteen years ago, under circumstances which he need not "more than mention."

"The sooner Dr. Hale's connections are severed the better for the unfortunate American now in Mexico," he concluded.

The resolution calling for information went over to tomorrow.

Senator Lodge charged that democrats were trying to treat the Mexican question as a party affair. His statement made in bitter terms, followed a denunciation by Senator Bacon, "that force means war."

Says Force Means War.

"Everything is being done now that can be done," Senator Bacon declared, "short of using actual force, and force means war and war is not a thing to be rushed into hurriedly and rashly, not to be encouraged by intemperate speech at this time."

Attempts by democratic leaders to stop the Mexican discussion and turn the senate back to the tariff bill brought an outburst from Senator Lodge.

"I want to support the president in every possible way on this Mexican matter," he cried, addressing the democrats. "He is not your president alone; he is the president of the American people, as much mine as yours. But I want no partnership in the handling of this serious situation. You can't have non-partisanship on party lines, and that is what you are trying to do."

"You can do nothing worse than to exercise the power of your majority on this Mexican question. This question cannot be disposed of that way; it cannot be dismissed with a smile and a sneer."

Another resolution by Mr. Penrose calling for consular reports as to happenings at Durango since January 1, was introduced by Senator Penrose, calling for information as to measures to protect Americans in Mexico and one by Senator Brandegee, calling for a joint investigation by the house and senate naval committee to determine what increase in the navy was being made and what naval program was under consideration, were introduced.

Known by His Senate.

In a demand that the senate should not pass or consider resolutions until foreign relations committee had an opportunity to take them up, Senator Bacon urged that all possible support be given to the president.

"While the senate is deliberating in his committee," interrupted Senator Penrose, "Americans are daily being murdered in Mexico. Here is a prominent American citizen in danger of being shot. I have information that more than 100 Americans have been killed and that their names are on file in the Department of State."

"The president of the United States is known by this senate," returned Senator Bacon, "to be in good faith, and to the best of his ability, trying to deal with the situation through methods that will save this country from the great disaster of a war. I believe the American people recognize that and are upholding him in his efforts."

Senator Penrose retorted that he believed the administration was engaged in good faith in a patriotic effort to solve the problems, but that he believed it was time to take some police measures to prevent further murder of men and outrages on women.

Objections carried all the resolutions over for another day without reference to committee.

MERCILESS SUN IS STILL BURNING THE FIELDS OF KANSAS

out, put their beds in the open and sleep there until driven back home by hot rays of the morning sun.

Bert Goin, swimming instructor of the Kansas City Yacht club, said today he sleeps with a damp blanket over him. "I am always in the water and don't take cold, but I would not advise anyone else to adopt my plan," he said. Many persons sleep in motor boats on the Missouri river, where the air is cool after dark.

Stock Range Dried Up.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 15.—Notwithstanding the warning of the Kansas state officials that the farmers should not rush their cattle to market, 12,000 cattle were brought to the local market today. This was almost three times as many as were brought in a week ago today. Stockmen of the western ranges of Kansas find it almost impossible to obtain feed and water for their stock and it is estimated that already they have sold almost one-third of their cattle.

Prisoners Escape and Take Guard Along

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Aug. 15.—Private Walter Vaudine and Cockran, Company F, Fourteenth Infantry, and James Bruns, Company F, Twenty-second Infantry, prisoners in the guard house at Fort Leavenworth, escaped last night by overpowering their guard and forcing them to accompany them.

With Private Walter Richmond, Troop G, One Hundred and Fifty-eighth cavalry, as guard, the men were sent for a supply of water. After entering a forest west of the reservation, the prisoners disarmed Richmond. Taking the guard with them, they entered a motor car that was waiting near by and escaped.

Officers are trying to learn the identity of the persons who stationed the motor car at that point.

CURRY GIRL BABY IS GIVEN CHRISTENING IN THE FALLS

YOSEMITE, Cal., Aug. 15.—Under the curling white crest of Vernal falls, Yosemite park, where the waters drop sheer over a granite cliff 300 feet, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Foster Curry was christened Katherine Cherry Curry by Rev. George Maxwell of the Episcopal church of Sausalito, Cal., at sunset yesterday.

As the clergyman sprayed water from dripping mosses at the conclusion of the rite, the setting sun shined through the falls formed a rainbow arch above the heads of the party.

LIND CONFERS WITH GAMBOA

Nothing Given Out as to What Came of the Meeting.

MEXICAN INDIANS IN REVOLT

Federal Troops Are Sent Against Followers of Zapata and Milla Alta and Also Against the Texcoco Rebels.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 15.—John Lind had a conference lasting an hour late last night with Federico Gamboa, the Mexican foreign minister, at Senator Gamboa's residence. Mr. Lind went and returned unaccompanied.

Several thousand Indians in the Huasteca district of Vera Cruz have risen in revolt, according to official reports received here. The Indians are said to have listened to promises made to them by Carranza's agents that the land is to be divided among them. The Indians are poorly armed. The governor of the state of Vera Cruz has sent a mission to try to bring about their pacification.

Detachments of federal troops have been sent from here against bands of adherents of Emiliano Zapata, who have been operating in the neighborhood of Milpa Alta, within the federal district southeast of the capital, and against a group of rebels at Texcoco and Otumba, northeast of the city.

Rumor of Intervention Request

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 15.—The Mexican consul at El Paso reported to the government today that Colonel Jesus Carranza, a brother of Governor Venustiano Carranza of Coahuila, the head of the revolution, has asked the United States to intervene in Mexico.

Hulse and Wife Safe.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Shirley C. Hulse, son-in-law of Lieutenant Governor Reynolds of Pennsylvania, with his wife and child, believed by Senators Penrose to be in imminent danger from revolutionists, are now safe in the city of Chihuahua. This information reached the State department from an American who had just reached the border from Chihuahua.

PAGE INCIDENT IS A SURPRISE

England Knows Nothing About an Apology Being Demanded.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Surprise was caused in England by the news from the United States that Ambassador Page had been instructed to apologize to the British government for comments made on the British-Mexican policy by Henry Lane Wilson, American ambassador to Mexico. The affair had not excited the slightest attention.

The British newspapers had hitherto ignored Ambassador Wilson's statement, but they print it today as an explanation of the grounds for the apology.

Ambassador Page is not likely to see Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs this week.

as Mr. Page is attending the Pilgrims' ceremony at Southampton today and expects to go to the country tomorrow.

The West Minister Gazette, the government organ, says:

"The difficulty between President Wilson and Ambassador Wilson is purely domestic and will not cause a ripple in the relations between the British and American governments. President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan may have good reasons of their own for not recognizing provisional President Huerta's government at the present moment, but they will not take offense at other governments which have taken a different course and least of all at us in the circumstances which now have been disclosed."

CARRANZA ENTERS A DENIAL

Mexican General Says He Has Not Asked for Intervention.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Aug. 15.—General Jesus Carranza, brother of the constitutional leader, denied today that he had invited American intervention in Mexico and said his utterances on this subject had been misquoted.

He declared that constitutionalists will fight Huerta until he is eliminated, and added: "If intervention came constitutionalists would know how to deal with it in a manner consistent with the honor and integrity of the nation."

MRS. SCHIRCK COMES OUT FROM HER HIDING PLACE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 15.—For four months, during which a nation-wide search for her was made, Mrs. William A. Schirck was sequestered in a cottage a few blocks from her home, guarding the secret marriage of her 16-year-old daughter to a Japanese. This became known today when Mrs. Schirck returned to her husband and other children.

When she heard of the wedding, the mother lacked courage to tell her husband and secluded herself in the residence of her Japanese son-in-law.

KING'S SPEECH READ AND PARLIAMENT IS PROROGUED

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The British Parliament was prorogued today and will not reconvene until February, next year, unless something extraordinary happens.

The king's speech, as read in the House of Lords, was colorless.

Any Man's Straw Hat in the Store

Boys', Misses' and Children's Straw Hats

Ratine Hats and Tams for Auto Wear

Infants' and Small Girls' Summer Dresses

Women's and Misses' Lawn Dresses

About 300 pairs of Quality Oxfords and Pumps in much broken assortment. All leathers and fabrics that sold for $3.50 to $6.00 when line contained full run of sizes. Ladies' sizes run from 2 1/2 to 7—mostly in the smaller sizes and a great snap for Milady with small feet—widths AA to D—Saturday until 6 P. M.

Wayne knit, pure silk, lace sole and top—gauzy and extra fine—all sizes—in the colors that comply with Fashion's last decree. All this season's goods—all fresh and new—none mused or soiled. We simply had too many of them and they're yours for a song. Saturday until 6 P. M.

Our hats are all waterproofed and sold during the season at $2.00 to $3.00. Knowing fellows—the ones on speaking terms with Dame Fashion—pronounce them the last word in correct style. We have 137 left and the fellows who hurry can buy them up until 6 P. M. for, each.

Any Boys' Straw Hat in the store (original prices to $2.75) included. Misses' and children's straw trimmings hats that touched $3.75 in the original price scale also included. Think of it! Even if these young people had new hats only yesterday you can't afford to pass lightly by this before six bargain offer. Each.

No hat like a ratine for motoring. No ratines like ours—in fact, we've had the only representative line in town this season. An early buying coup conferred the favor on us. Line sold up to $3.50 but it is broken now. Swell Tam O'Shanter for misses included. Not the cheap trash so often foisted on an unsuspecting public—but quality headwear, at.

Percales and Gingham in French and Russian styles for girls 2 to 6 years old. Sold originally up to $2.50—also much broken lines of Baby Dresses, sizes 6 months to 3 years. Some are slightly soiled, others mused, others neither soiled or mused—but they must obey this "get-out" order of the department head. Until 6 P. M., each.

About 35 dresses, made of sheer lawns in low neck and short sleeve styles to fit women and juniors. Sold originally up to $3.95. They're soiled and mused, but one washing and, presto, like new. Colors all good, in fact, nothing wrong with them other than our desire to get them out of the way, each.
