

NEW PHASE BROUGHT OUT IN THE CASE AGAINST HARRY THAW

Customary Practice in Handling
Lunatics by Canadian Government May Be Followed Out.

ONE OBSTACLE IS IN THE WAY

If Crazy, the Course Would Be to Deport to New York.

MUST FIRST PROVE THE CHARGE

Secretary Bryan Wired Suizer that Government Cannot Act.

WILSON FINDS NO LAW TO APPLY

London Asking for Legislation that Will Fit Just Such Conditions as
Have Arisen and Held Prisoner in Canada.

OTTAWA, Aug. 22.—A new phase of the Thaw case developed here this afternoon in a statement of one of the officials of the Department of Immigration that there is a strong possibility of Thaw being turned over direct to the New York authorities. It appears that the practice in deporting lunatics has been to consult the nearest United States immigration inspector as to what place the lunatic should be sent back. If custom is followed in this case the man consulted would be John Clarke, United States inspector at Montreal, and his desire as to deportation would be complied with.

"A possible obstacle to this plan would be that Thaw's lawyers might compel the Canadian authorities to prove that he is a lunatic. Rather than go to this expensive procedure the immigration authorities would prefer simply to reject the fugitive when he crossed the border."

Bryan Will Not Help.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Secretary Bryan today sent the following telegram to Governor William Sulzer, Albany, N. Y.:

"This case of Thaw, being one which in its present aspect involves the application of Canadian immigration laws, this government cannot act officially. Steps have been taken to lay the information as to his escape informally before the Canadian authorities."

Sulzer asked that the Canadian immigration authorities be requested to return Thaw to House's Point, N. Y. Secretary Wilson, who has the immigration bureau, today sent this dispatch to Acting Governor Glynn and Attorney General Carmody:

"I am unable to find any law which would authorize the Department of Labor to ask the Canadian government to deport Harry K. Thaw to the state of New York as requested by you. I am advised that steps have already been taken by the Department of State to bring the matter to the attention of the Canadian government through the proper diplomatic channels."

Wants Laws Changed.

LONDON, England, Aug. 22.—A plea for a uniform international extradition law is made in the Law Journal, a legal weekly, in commenting on the question of the deportation of Harry K. Thaw from Canada.

"In the present conditions," the Law Journal says, "the most dangerous homicidal mania is a free man when he crosses the borders of any British possession. The moral of the situation is that the governments of the civilized powers should make a serious endeavor to formulate and adopt a uniform and logical system of international extradition to replace the present cumbersome system, which is complicated by imperfect treaties."

MANY BANKERS AT MEETING

Gather at Chicago to Object to Glass-
Owen Currency Bill.

THREE SESSIONS TO BE HELD

Hepburn of New York Leads in the Speaking, Sounding the Keynote of the Conference of Bankers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—More than 300 bankers, delegates from clearing house and banking associations, assembled here today to voice their objections to certain sections of the Glass-Owen currency bill, now before congress, and make suggestions for a law which they hope will bring about an improvement in the banking system of the country.

The conference was called by the currency commission of the American Bankers' association. Its purpose, as explained by Frederick E. Farnsworth of New York, secretary of the organization, is to aid the administration in effecting good currency legislation.

Arrangements were made for three sessions today and it is the hope of members of the commission that by tomorrow recommendations for amendments to the Glass-Owen measure will have been agreed on which will make it satisfactory to a great majority of financiers of the country.

"There are four fundamental features of the bill to which the bankers of the country are almost unanimously opposed," said Mr. Farnsworth. "They are the government control provision, the reserve feature, the portion referring to note issue by the government and the stipulation for the refunding of the 2 per cent bonds. The ideas of the bankers on these scores are well known and it is probable that their action will make the form of resolutions protesting against the objectionable features and suggesting amendments."

Hepburn for Co-Operation.

The pledge of co-operation by A. Barton Hepburn of New York in his speech as chairman was an evidence of the attitude the bankers are to maintain in their consideration of the pending currency measure. Mr. Hepburn gave high praise to the administration for its earnestness in taking up the subject. He commended many features of the bill, but did not hesitate to indicate that here were others which, in his opinion, needed revision.

The failure to fully develop the central

Baker Details the Drowning of Mrs. and Miss Rirdon

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 22.—The first survivors to reach here from the team-ship State of California, which sank last Sunday in Gambier bay, Alaska, after striking an uncharted rock, brought word today of the death of Mrs. H. C. Rirdon of Chicago, 34 years old, and her daughter, Miss Estelle Rirdon, a Chicago high school teacher, both formerly of Omaha.

R. E. Baker, a water tender, who rushed on deck as the cabin list, found boat No. 4, with a few persons in it, among them Mrs. Rirdon. "The water was just up to the boat, but in the excitement it had not been loosened from the fastenings which held it to the deck," he said. "I grabbed an axe and cut it loose, and as the steamer sank, it floated, but the after-draft sucked it down. I caught a piece of wreckage and tried to save Mrs. Rirdon, but she went down before I could reach her." Her body was recovered, but that of Miss Rirdon is listed among the missing.

Baker was picked up by a launch.

Customers in the Meat Market Are Present at Murder

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 22.—While the salesroom in one of the largest retail meat markets here was full of customers today Frank Mooney and Mark Hamilton, meat cutters, engaged in a death struggle across a meat block until Mooney fell on the floor with the blade of a butcher knife thrust through his heart. Women screamed and fled from the store.

Warren Leads Fight Against Free Wool

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The free wool fight in the senate opened today with Senator Warren of Wyoming leading the onslaught against the tariff bill. Free wool he described as uncalled for, cruel and unwise. He predicted ruin for wool growers and high prices for mutton. Anti-election promises of the president and the democratic party, he said, had been repudiated.

Responding to a recent resolution by Senator Sutherland, Secretary McAdoo estimated that importers having merchandise American warehouses under bond awaiting the new tariff rates would save about $10,000,000.

WILL STOP IMMIGRATION OF ADULTS TO UNITED STATES

IOWA FARMER BLEED BY BLACKMAILERS

Frank Rosenkrans Turns Over Four Thousand Dollars in Few Months Under Threats.

FOUR PERSONS ARE ARRESTED

He Makes Large Withdrawals from Bank and Suspicion Aroused.

VICTIM THEN TELLS HIS STORY

Goes with Another Pile of Money to the "Rendezvous."

ACCOMPANIED BY ARMED PARTY

Quartet of Men Make Appearance,
Are Taken Into Custody and Bound Over to Grand Jury.

SPENCER, Ia., Aug. 22.—That Frank Rosenkrans, a wealthy farmer near here, has given blackmailers over $4,000 since last April developed today.

Four men are under arrest. Rosenkrans has made several large withdrawals from his bank account since last April and his banker, J. H. McCord, asked him what he was doing with so much money. Rosenkrans was finally persuaded to confide in McCord and said that a gang of men had threatened to take his life if he did not advance them the money they demanded. Since April 22, he said, he had given them about $4,000 in cash and notes.

Last night Rosenkrans had again turned over $2,000 more. Rosenkrans went to the appointed place with money, but was accompanied by Banker McCord, Sheriff Lidman, Night Watchman Smith and Attorney G. A. Heald, all armed with guns, except McCord. These men hid in a nearby cornfield. In a short time William Carter approached Rosenkrans and started the "game." He was quickly arrested, and three others, Mack McCort, Matt Adair and Oscar Cunningham, were taken into custody today. All were bound over to the grand jury, which meets next week.

Senator Jones Prepares a Plaza for the Women

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Intended as a harbinger of woman's political emancipation, Senator Jones of Washington state has offered a bill setting aside a space in the proposed plaza between the capitol and the Union station solely for the raising of statues and memorials to women. He would have it known as the Parthenon.

"I suppose they'll be erecting statues to the inventor of the bloomer and the silk skirts," sneered a dyspeptic anti-suffragette house member. "It will be a pretty sight, a lot of female statuary all in a clump. Those who don't mistake it for a marble reproduction of a fashionable young women's seminary out for a walk, will think it a female burying ground."

Senator Jones is in earnest in his proposal, however, and he has the support of other members of congress who come from suffragist states.

Tammany Picks McCall as Candidate for Gotham's Mayor

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Edward E. McCall, chairman of the State Public Service commission, announced today that he would accept the offer of Tammany hall leaders to be their candidate for mayor of New York City.

United States the Big Shopping Center

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—As an international department store the United States is rapidly becoming the shopping center of the world, for in July the business done with other nations exceeded all records for any single month in the history of the nation. The Department of Commerce in a statement made public today takes added satisfaction in the showing because this record was established in spite of the fact that reports fell below those of July, 1912. The balance of trade was all in favor of American manufacturers and producers.

Last month the exports were more than $1,000,000 greater than in the corresponding month of last year, while in the twelve months ending with July 21, the goods sent abroad exceeded in value by more than $25,000,000 the merchandise and products sold to foreign buyers in the preceding twelve months.

ELECTRICITY FOR NEW TOWNS Power and Light Transmission Line to Be Strung at Once.

M'KINLEY IS TO BE THE BUILDER

Small Towns Along the Route Which
Have Been Without Electricity
May Be Supplied Right Away.

The power and light transmission line from Papillon to Springfield, Louisville, Meadows and Richfield will be constructed immediately by the McKinley interests that have purchased the Nebraska Traction and Power Co. property with lines extending from Omaha as far as Papillon. This does not mean that the interurban railway will be extended at once, but it means that the transmission cables to supply light and power to the towns along the line will be built.

Arthur English, receiver of the Nebraska Traction and Power Co., has just returned from Peoria, Ill., where he has been in conference with the officials of the McKinley interests that now own the line here. He said the material is ordered and should be on the way here at once. With Mr. English from Peoria came E. E. S. Light, engineer for the McKinley system. He set to work at once on plans for the extension of the power system, and both he and Mr. English say that within a few weeks the work will be actively in progress. "A force of men will be put to work as soon as the material arrives here," said Mr. English, "and that should be very soon as the material is all ordered before I left Peoria."

The line will be built first before plans are taken up for a power plant. It is likely that power will be purchased from some local power plant for a time and that the matter of a possible separate power plant will then be considered. The towns to be reached by the transmission lines are towns that have been without electric lighting plants in the past and towns that have been very anxious to get an electric lighting system. Also it is expected that the stone quarries at Louisville will have the great advantage to have electric power brought to their door, as hitherto the great stone quarries and crushers there have been operated by means of a steam plant.

Bryan's Peace Plan Goes to the Hague

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Secretary Bryan's peace plan will be laid formally before the conference of the Inter-Parliamentary union at The Hague September 1 by Senator Burton of Ohio, who will sail from New York tomorrow as one of the American members. He is also one of seven members of a special committee representing the United States, Austria, France, Belgium, Greece and the United States charged with planning a permanent Hague court.

Secretary Bryan's peace plan, under which nations would bind themselves to submit all grievances to arbitration and defer preparations for war meanwhile, will be laid before the special committee and later before the parliamentary union.

Caminetti is Not to Deny Statement of Miss Lola Norris

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—"No matter what happens to me, I shall not deny any statement made by Miss Lola Norris regarding the Reno elopement. I have the greatest respect for Miss Norris and would rather go to jail for life than throw a shadow of a doubt on the accuracy of her testimony."

This was the statement made today by Caminetti, who goes to trial next Tuesday in the United States court, under an indictment for violation of the Mann white slave traffic act, under which his companion, Maury I. Diggs, was convicted last Wednesday night.

The National Capital Friday, August 22, 1913.

The Senate.

GRAND JURY MAY BE CALLED

Judges Will Meet and Consider Such a Need Saturday.

Judge A. L. Sutton Questions
Whether the Outlook at This Time Will Justify Such Investigating Body.

Whispers of a possible grand jury in prospect for Douglas county, which for days have circulated about the court house, culminated today in a definite admission by Judge A. L. Sutton, who presides over district court room No. 1, that the subject would be discussed at a meeting of judges to be held at the court house this morning.

The judge was inclined to discourage the idea that the calling of a grand jury was at all certain or that the question would be definitely settled today. He said the judges were not desirous of making an expense of several thousands of dollars for the county if the summoning of a body to inquire into violations of the law were not necessary.

"Personally, I am not convinced that a grand jury would find much to do," said Judge Sutton, "but now is the time if any person knows of crime in high or low places; of wrongful acts done by public officials or of any subject which should be investigated, to come forward with information. We will discuss the question of a grand jury at a meeting of the judges Saturday morning."

Sentiment on the part of the judges appears to favor opening of district court the middle of September in spite of objections of the Omaha Bar association, but to draw a jury panel only about two-thirds the usual size. Then lawyers who do not desire to try cases before the first Monday in October would not be compelled to do so, but a large number of criminal cases pending would be cleared from the docket.

Dr. Duncanson Sues Neighbors for Damage

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 22.—Wrongfully convicted on perjured testimony Dr. Eitelbert Duncanson is suing four of his neighbors in Pomona for $10,000 damages. ## BOLTON THINKS SYSTEM IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS IS WRONG

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—The system of study in the public schools does not interest the average boy and girl, said Prof. F. E. Bolton of the University of Washington in a lecture at the University of Chicago. He supported his statement by statistics showing that only 50 per cent of the children of school age in this nation are found in the school rooms.

"There is not enough opportunity in the schools for boys and girls to construct things," said Prof. Bolton. "The desire of the average boy and girl to fashion and create things is not recognized. It is not a square deal when we educate the men who are going into professions with courses of Latin and history and do not educate to the same extent those who expect to enter a trade."

The speaker asserted that many of the study rooms in the schools might be turned into workshops and laboratories with good results.

BRYAN WARNS BOTH SIDES IN MEXICO TO PROTECT AMERICANS

Serves Notice on Constitutionalist and Huerta Commanders at La
Boquilla, Chihuahua.

HOLDS THEM RESPONSIBLE

Message Forwarded Through the United States Consul.

PROMPT ANSWER IS DEMANDED

Wilson Personally to Read His Message to Congress.

SUMMARY OF LIND'S DATA

No Recommendation for Action Will Be Made, but President Expected to Reiterate Attitude of Government.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Curt warning to both the Huerta and constitutionalist commanders at La Boquilla, Chihuahua, Mexico, that the United States will hold them personally responsible for any violence against Americans by anyone claiming civil or military authority, was sent today by Secretary Bryan, through American Consul Letcher at Chihuahua City.

Bryan instructed Letcher to dispatch his message to La Boquilla by courier and secure an answer. This was in response to a request by Senator Penrose for action to protect S. C. Hulse, Chief Engineer Fuller and other Americans in a plant of the Mexican Northern Power and Irrigation company.

Secretary Bryan's telegram follows: "Information having been received by this government that threats of violence and death have been made against Fuller, Hulse and others at La Boquilla, this government deems it proper to say that if any violence is visited on any American citizen there or elsewhere by anyone claiming civil or military authority the United States will hold personally responsible the perpetrators thereof."

"Courier should ascertain condition of all foreigners at La Boquilla and report with reply the officer in charge making to this government's message."

WILSON'S MESSAGE ON MEXICO Document Will Summarize Informa- tion Sent by John Lind.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—President Wilson will personally read his message on Mexico to both Houses. The message will summarize the principal points made in the note presented by the Huerta government in reply. The full text of both communications will be presented to congress as exhibits. No recommendations for action will be made, but the president's statement is expected to reiterate the attitude of this government and indicate that only on the basis therein outlined can negotiations with the Huerta government be continued.

White house officials feel that the reading of the message will itself be a factor in the situation, serving perhaps further to emphasize that the United States will under no circumstances recognize any but constitutional government in Mexico. The effect of the unyielding attitude of the United States is said to be already apparent.

Dispatches today from John Lind indicate that the Mexican administration would welcome further parleys. The Huerta government, it is said, is casting about for new ground on which to renew the negotiations.

Another factor which contributes to the optimism of administration officials is a reported disposition in Europe to deny the Huerta government any further loans pending the outcome of the efforts of the United States to bring about peace. Postmaster General Burleson and Secretary Daniels were at the White House early today conferring with Secretary Tumulty and offering their advice on the message.

NOT TOUCHED IN EDITORIALS Mexican Newspapers Tell of the Pen- rose Resolution.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 22.—All the news papers of Mexico City today print without editorial comment, Washington dispatches telling of the introduction in the United States senate by Senator Penrose of a resolution requesting President Wilson to take necessary steps to place United States troops in Mexico for the protection of American lives and property.

El Independiente follows its article with an editor's note, assuring its readers that the action of Senator Penrose expresses only his personal opinion and does not reflect the sentiment of the United States nor the attitude of the American people.

Personality in Advertising

That stores and shops are very much like people is often shown by their advertising. All of us doubtless have acquaintances, some of whom we never seem to "warm up to," and others who encourage us in the most friendly relationships. So it is with shops. In some we feel happy and at home. Others we are never induced to enter. Like people some have an atmosphere of courtesy and friendliness, and others have not.

There is so much personality in merchandising today that advertisements tell you just what kind of places you may patronize with the greatest personal satisfaction. Keeping in careful touch with advertisers will direct you to places where you may be sure of receiving courteous treatment and intelligent service as well as dependable merchandise.
