

EIGHTY WINS FOR MACKLEM

League Leaders Take Last Game of Season in the West.

SHUT OUT ST. LOUIS BROWNS

Cal Brown is Invincible at Critical Stages, While His Teammates Found Mitchell Hard—Score Eight to Nothing.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—Cal Brown was invincible at critical stages this afternoon while his teammates pounded Mitchell hard and the St. Louis fielders played their positions poorly, Philadelphia winning its last game of the season in the west by the score of 8 to 0. It was the league leaders' eighteenth victory of the season. Clarence Walker, the $15,000 outfielder secured by the home team from the Kansas City club of the American association, reported this afternoon and played a brilliant game in left field. Two of his putouts were spectacular. He also caught two men in second base, quickly returns of hits. He failed to get a hit in four attempts, but reached first base on an error. Score:

Senators Trim Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Washington got the and piled up a five-run lead, which the locals were unable to answer. The visitors last appearance of the season here. Manager Callahan gave his latest pitching recruit, Scotty Snodgrass, the nod. Hugo (Old) club of the Oklahoma-Texas league, a tryout, but he was unable to locate the plate. He walked, Moeller stole second. Foster grounded to Weaver, who threw wild to Chase, and Moeller scored and Cicotte was sent to the rescue when Milan had three bases on him. Cicotte walked him and Gandil followed with a single, which scored Foster. Lord's error of Morgan's grounder let Milan score and Shanks singled, scoring Gandil. Laporte sacrificed and when Henry hit to Weaver Morgan scored. Boehling, who had been experiencing a losing streak since his long string of successive victories, was on the mound for the visitors, and did not allow a hit until Cicotte's double singled. He was forced by Collins, Schalk and Cicotte each drew bases on balls and with the bases filled Weaver doubled, scoring three runs. After that Boehling allowed but two scattered hits. Score:

Tigers Lose to Red Sox

DETROIT, Aug. 26.—Battered by miserable support and victim of one batting rally, Ralph Comstock, Detroit's $2,000 beauty, pitched a heart-breaking game against Boston today and lost. The score was 7 to 6. Detroit tied the game in the seventh and Boston batted across the winning tally in the eighth. Comstock's first league debut was far more impressive than the score would indicate. Man after man—eight in all—struck vainly at his fastball. He pitched the first four innings he struck out six men after his teammates' misplays helped to place runners on the bases. Score:

City Council Fixes Tax Levy for Year at Twelve Mills.

CITY CUTS OUT PRIVATE PHONES

Decides Not to Pay for Instruments in Homes of Chiefs of Police and Fire Departments—School Board Meets.

The tax levy for 1914 was fixed at 12 mills by the city council last night. The levy was determined after Councilman Cavanaugh submitted his financial report, giving a detailed statement of the city's present indebtedness. According to Councilman Cavanaugh the approximate valuation of South Omaha property is $2,000,000 and the 12-mill levy on that amount will be sufficient to pay the interest on the debt, the running expenses of the city and will leave a surplus which may be applied to the city debt.

Officers Chosen For New Hospital

Officers for the German Deaconess Hospital society were elected last night in Rev. Julius Schwarz's office, 620 Paxton building. The society was formed at a mass meeting Sunday night in the Young Men's Christian association assembly hall, and a board of directors was chosen. The hospital is intended for the use of all German denominations and all German societies.

Would Fight Trusts With Co-operation

GLASGOW, Scotland, Aug. 26.—Co-operation as the basis of the ideal state of the future was the keynote of the address of Earl Grey, former governor general of Canada, at the opening of the congress of the International Co-operative Alliance here today. Co-operation would put a barrier against the tyranny of the trusts, he said, and would reconcile the warring forces of labor and capital. Six hundred delegates were present, representing 20,000,000 members of co-operative societies in America and Europe, and Earl Grey's views, enunciated with much fervor, were warmly applauded.

Two Women Swallow Poison, but Yet Live

Two women attempted to end their lives last night by drinking carbolic acid because of the actions of their husbands. Both are in St. Joseph's hospital, badly burned, but with good chance for recovery. The first woman to make the attempt was Goldie Dinn, wife of Ernest Dinn, a bootmaker living at 230 North Twentieth street. She quarreled with her husband and then swallowed the poison. Edith Jensen declared that she had married in haste and did not care to repent too long, so she, too, tried the acid route.
