THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE. PUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR. REE BUILDING, FARNAM AND ITTH Entered at Omaha postoffice as second-

TERMS OF BUBBURIPTION:

DELIVERED BY CARRIER: REMITTANCE.

REMITTANCE.

Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to The Bee Publishing company. Only 3-cent stamps received in payment of small accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha and eastern excrange, not accepted.

OFFICES:
Omaha—The Bee building.
South Omaha—Ells N Street.
Council Bluffs—14 North Main Street.
Lincoln—25 Little building.
Chicago—95 Hearst building.
Chicago—95 Hearst building.
New York—Room 10%, 288 Fifth Ave.
St. Louis—68 New Bank of Commerce.
Washington—75 Fourteenth St., N. W.

CORRESPONDENCE.
Communications relating to news and ditorial matter should be addressed main Bea, Editorial department.

JULY CIRCULATION.

50,142

State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, sa. Dwight Williams, eleculation manager of The Bee Publishing company, being duly sworn, says that the average daily Bee Publishing company, bein in, anys that the average dall, for the month of July, 19th DWIGHT WILLIAMS, Circulation Manual was 50,142. scribed in my presence and sworn fore me this 4h day of August, 1812. HOHERT HUNTER, Notary Public.

Subscribers leaving the city temperarily should have The Bea infled to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

Hush! 'Tis the eve of September morn.

Who's been boosting those midsummer water bills so sky-high?

Nothing hurts Tammany so much from it.

An extra session of congress has come to mean an extra long session

Some men who are spirited lag terribly when it comes to being pub-Ho-spirited.

Mr. Hearst supports the head of the fusion ticket in New York by repudiating the tail. Banana consumers are warned against slipping up on that der eratic tariff poeling. Ho, there, down in Panama: Isn't that coming perilously close to the brink of nepotism? Huerta didn't pen an ultimatum," says the Baltimore American. No. he just ecratched it off. King Caucus is a merry old soul, who is as much at home in one political party as in another. To reach The Bee's business office in its new location, take the main entrance of the Bee building.

Folks judge the coming of cold geene fly, just as if they were not

An Omaha man captures the presidency of the National Organization ica except Mexico, and it may even of Retail Jewelers. We should gain Mexico's endorsement, sparkle.

Note how carefully our democratic United States senator is to keep the gate open for an early return to the reservation?

September morn and September corn rhyme all right, but that is about as close as they get to one another this year.

Talk about the cost of living coming down, when the price of a seat somely assimilating our styles and people, and the state should have on the New York Stock exchange has gone up $13,000.

Perhaps the colonel could be prehis way to South America and settle all one way. Have not we imbibed the thing for all concerned.

tracted period of eating in summer CAPS. The lord high chancellor of England favors suffrage, but not the militant variety. He is down in the books as a young bachelor of not yet 60 years. The lord high chancellor of Great Britain on his five days' visit to America comes just in time to find two governors in New York and Thaw in Canada. With all due respect to prevailing journalistic etiquette in Oklahoma, we nevertheless protest that it is a with the native redskins along the breach of the professional code to eastern slopes some centuries ago. tional Negro Bankers' association at tween times as it is. shoot an editor dead as an alterns- Your little hand-painted Pocahontas, Philadelphia for the establishment tive to him eating a copy of his own caucus is "a machine within a ma- not the glow of a girlish flush. Grand Island.

The New Farmer.

of Nebraska were swept one day by a simoon, and the growing corn was withered as by a furnace blast. The result was untold distress and suffering, with great financial loss. The summer just closing has been one of unprecedented drouth, accompanied by torrid weather beyond any former experience, and again the cornfields loss of the corn crop no longer means general suffering in the state. Nebraska has been lifted out of the list of "one-grop" states, and while the vested were of such value that the deadly drouth lost its terror. of new methods down in Gage county of earlier times. proof of the intense and intelligent guage is going on all the time; interest Nebraska farmers are taking should this evolution cease, it would in the science of agriculture. It is before long become like more ana splendld guarantee for the future cient tongues found only in library prosperity of the state.

Nebraska has long been in the front ranks of food-producing states, but the new farmer of Nebraska is going to not the mark far above that of any of its rivals. With the generous natural gifts of climate and soil, Wave of Indecent Dressing," in supplemented by intelligent direction, based on results of scientific investigation, Nebraska's farms are as to see good money getting away destined to be the most productive in the world.

The Nagging British Press.

find anything good in the United and decency, have become pure com-States, which it seems to regard as mercialists, and who, laughing in a Nazaroth out of which good cannot their sleeve at the American women, come. This prejudice crops out in are, as one of the greatest of them newspaper discussion of our Mexican | recently said, seeing how far they policies, notwithstanding their ac- can go 'in making d-d fools of the copiance by the British and other American women." foreign governments. The Pall Mall Gazette, for instance, says:

on's message is born of the travail of his soul. He is a good and devout man, carnestly desirous of furthering deals of peace and justice, but on him rests the responsibility for protecting not Paris—if Paris is responsible for it only the interests of the United States in —has dumined over here has been so, but the lives of some tho of American citizens who have settled the Capitol," adding, "We shall see fashions for Italian, Spanish for what Mexico has to teach them."

The Evening Standard goes the ing American diplomacy by saying in refinement, lag behind others in dig-

Deploring that in America diplomacy and warm weather by the way the in foreign affairs are the most amateuris now left to a group of politicians who ish of amateurs. And yet this amateurishness has France, Japan and all of Pan-Amer-

It would be interesting to know which represents the British public opinion in this instance, the London or the officials of the British gov-

Is it Poor Lo's Fault?

The white man boasts, not wholly without warrant, of civilizing the Indian, who, we say, is now handcustoms. Certainly much may be said for the sboriginal progress and enlightenment, but when it comes to assimilation we should pause to convalled on to stop off in Mexico on sider whether the process has been of the Indian's tastes and fancies?

Let us see. The Indian loves Semahow or other, the food at things gaudy. His friendship was home tastes mighty good after a pro- bought by the early settlers with glittering beads and jewels and cloth boarding houses, hotels and dining of many colors and hues. Not content with his native red skin, he daubs and paints it various shades. He regales himself in fine feathers, spectacular blankets and long strands of beads. - Even the softening shadows of civilization have not as yet effaced all these wild fancies.

But how about the pale-faced fellow citizen? Do some of them paint their cheeks and plume their heads with gaudy feathers and other wild creations and bedeck their bodies in weird, fantastic styles and colors? Paint, feathers, beads and gemsthey are all there, just as they were chine," just an old-fashioned steam If an artist, scolding us as usual $1,600,000, and annual business of tened out Mr. Bryan that day in characteristic with Americans, is it pected, where most of the negroes dedication of The Hague palace of the fault of Lo, the poor redman? It are. Virginia has more than any peace.

Nineteen years ago the cornfield: hung his sign on us.

Word Coinage.

Attention has been attracted by the prospectus of a new dictionary publication setting out how many new words it contains that are not of Nebraska have suffered. But the to be found in its previous editions. It is only an incident that of these new words the introduction of some thirty is credited to Colonel Roosevelt and of about 200 to Gifford blazing days of July and August Pinchot, the latter being for the burned up a million dollars in pros- most part merely the registration of pective corn each twenty-four hours, terms long in common use among crops that had already been har- foresters and lumbermen. The real Nebraska's present prosperity is with many expressions falling into learned, and is learning, how to get while at the same time a contemporthe best out of his soil at the least aneous word-coinage mint is at work, through the assistance of the agri- otherwise met. The same thing is capita. cultural college, and he is giving seen in the twisting of old phrases careful heed to the teachings of the into new meaning, whereby the experts. The gathering of 500 present-day use would not be comfarmers at a district demonstration prehensible to their closest familiars The transformation of the lan tomes or monument inscriptions.

Why Not American Fashious?

It might be well if every American woman read Edward Bok's striking article on "Remedy for the which he purports to show that the latest of our dress styles, which admittedly come from Paris, are not patronized by "any Frenchwoman of the slightest refinement." "They are creations," he says, "of the disordered minds of French dressmak-It is hard for the British press to ers, who have lost all sense of art

It is beside the mark to parley over the reliability of Mr. Bok's We fully understand that President statements, so long as we have before our eyes so much tangible evidence in these freak creations, and know that thus far nothing that -has dumped over here has been too bad for us.

But European women are not pat-Continuing in this vein of biting ronizing the Parisian degeneracy, Spanish and so on. Why not American for American? Why shall our Pall Mall Gazette one better in derid- women, surrounded with culture and laugh at the whole subject of fashions as a mere foible, but it is no laughing matter in view of the threatened serious consequences.

escaped the governor's logic. port this proposal has been that the other fellow's tale of woe. offices belong to the state or the him if elected.

made in Colorado where each polit- the lawyer's-the fee, we mean. ical party is allotted out of the pub-He treasury a proportionate sum, accally in position to snuff out new its own penalties. parties and independent candidates by withholding all share of the caminterested students of our politics, next fight. without convincing them of its superior advantages.

Negroes as Bankers.

with her furtive, fetching suffic, is of a bank in Liberta, and more negro just as apt to stain John Smith's banks in the United States, invites senior senator that the democratic is the work of patient, studied art, duct sixty-two banks in this country, States and Mexico. with a total capitalization of about is hardly worth while denying the other state-twelve. It is note charge, and it seems more likely worthy that a woman is president of than not that in working the assim- one of these banks in Bichmond. lation business on the Indian he has Alabama comes next, with eight; then Mississippi and North Carolina, with six each, and Texas with five. In the northern states Illinois leads. with three, two in Chicago and one at Springfield, Indiana, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania have one each, and one is located in Washington, D. C. Thus the colored man is proving himself equal to the delicate demands of the various lines of business in which he is called on to engage. In their offices opposite the postoffice, These banks are widely influential in beginning September 1. promoting habits of frugality and industry among the race, which, numbering about 10,000,000 today in the United States, holds title to $700 .point is that in living language like 000,000 worth of property. In 1863 ours constant change is in progress, 3,960,000 black slaves in the south due to the "new" farmer. He has disuse, and thus becoming obsolete, 000 to their owners, about $500 a were valued as worth $2,000,000,head. Today 10,000,000 black freemen are worth in their own name expense to its fertility, and is apply- whose fresh output goes the way of and right $700,000,000, and those in ing his knowledge with wonderful the survival of the fittest, finding the south, as commonly computed, results. Chemistry and bacteriology lodgment in the dictionary to the an economic value to that section of have come to the aid of the farmer, extent that it supplies a need not about $10,000,000,000,000, or $2,500 per

The Kick on the Caucus.

Procisiming aloud his new declaration of independence, our distinguished democratic United States senator from Nebraska bravely declares "that the individual democrat, like the individual republican, ought to be permitted by his party to stand here and vote for his convictions." (Great applause in the gallery and full-faced type in his own personal newspaper.)

But please not'so fast. Take with this bold defi of King Caucus the acompanying explanation: "I am not quite so extreme as some who decry which have grown out of caucus legislation and caucus domination, I believe there are occasions when the ize party action upon a party bill."

In the uncouth but expressive language of Mayor Jim, "Cut out the bunk."

What is Senator Hitchcock's kick on King Caucus? Merely a personal out by the party bosses.

What if a majority of his democratic colleagues had accepted his proposed penalty tax on tobacco pro- grand time. duction by incorporating it into "a party bill" with the backing of the Twenty Years Agocaucus decree, does anyone imagine here" and summon recalcitrant dem-up a compromise and give him ick building on Farnam street and a enough of the appointive patronage to satisfy him, the wonderful fight the course of a grossly stupid and un- nity and independence? Folks may King Caucus will turn out to be mere repetition of the Don Quixote battle with the windmills.

"I determined this, that I would not come again to you in heaviness," the avowed support of Great Britain. Public Money for Campaign Funds. the Apostle Paul wrote the Corinth-Governor Baldwin of Connecticut, lans. He had been in trouble and who renews agitation at the gover- thought best not to visit them until nors' conference for payment out of he felt brighter. And his wisdom the public treasury of the expenses contains a very timely and practical of all candidates for office, rests his modern suggestion for all. "Go argument on the point that such a bury thy sorrows, the world hath its newspapers, characteristically plan would enable poor men, virtu- share," runs the old song, while the steeped in anti-American prejudice, ally barred if compelled to pay their later vernacular puts it, "Tell your own way, to run for office. The fact troubles to the police." But the that so many poor men land good point of it all is that the world welelective offices would seem to have comes nothing so much as a pleasant face, even on unpleasant hearts and The chief argument offered to sup- minds, and has little time for the

> It is more than funny. Thaw in men to fill them who owe nobody fall in a strange land, cut off from for their campaign expenses, which personal communication with the is not the case, it is contended, when outside world, hardly lands in the of the swarm flew away. a candidacy is promoted by private Sherbrooke cell till he is besieged | Carroll G. Pearse of Beatrice president interests, or even a political organ- with generous-hearted lawyers, will- of the State Teachers' association, was fration, sure to assert claims upon ing to go the route for him. When it comes to good Samaritanism and Mr. Max Haretzek, who came to take A' start along this line has been philanthropy, you have to give it to charge of the Omaha Opera Festival

> "My son, if sinners entice thee, cording to the vote polled at the pre- consent thou not." That is a man's geding election, yet in the form advice to men, simply pointing out cated, that liquor was being sold a adopted it is open to numerous ob- the wrong without a threat of pun- business and social clubs without a b jections and abuses. For example, the ishment, appealing, therefore, to the cense, and called the matter to the atparty in power has a tremendous boy's or man's best sense. But the handicap in its favor and is practi- law, of whatever character, supplies hus, the school board commended for

> The pugilist who dealt the blow in paign fund. It may be worth know- that fatal fight at Los Angeles is ing, too, that the scheme has been "cleared," and the accessories es- candidacy for nomination for county carefully dissected by altogether dis cape, which clears the boards for the judge on the republican ticket.

the legislature. It takes the best Omaha for the new lessees, Messra Etair The formation of plans by the Na- most states can do to recover be-passionate lips as ever she was, for attention to the fact, not generally strong on inspiration from events You have the word of Nebraska's the rose-tinted blush upon her cheeks known, that negroes own and con- now transpiring between the United served two years in the American army

While Mexico and the Balkans are relier, as it were, like the one on for our obtuseness about real art, some $20,000,000. Most of them raving around, the affable old Laird The only investigating committee that which the senator sat when it flat- says the fancy for gaudiness is quite are in the south, as might be ex- of Skibo slips another across in the ever excited our envy was the one that

Looking Backward This Day in Omaha COMPILED FROM BEE FILES OOD AUGUST 31. 2 000

Thirty Years Ago-According to dispatches from Des Moines, the U. P.'s did it again by a opre of 8 to 4 Another evidence of Omaha's increaing prosperity is noted in the establish ment of another firm, composed of Mesers, John L and William McCague, who are to transact a banking business

It turns out that while the Westinghouse party was making a visit in Omaha, they were also looking after intracts with the Union Pacific to install their new air brakes on freight entertained their Sunday school scholars senior quite so extreme as some who decry Piorence Heffley, Anna Thompson, Anna the caucus. In spite of all the evils Traynor, Clara Pierce, Titlie Leisenring. Thompson.

Goos, returned from his European tour, caucus may be necessary to harmon- bringing with him about forty settlers to swell the population of Nebraska. in Baumer's jewelry store after three

Mr. Paul Morton and a hunting party went west in a special car of the Burling-collision with the program mapped Welty and wife ando family, C. J. Barber, wife and daughter, T. C. Brunner and wife and R. N. Withnell and wife no matter how oppressive or corrupt. are a party of Omaha people back from the subjects believing, in their blindness

George Francis Train, who was making our Senator Hitchcock would be de- Prohibition never prohibits, reforms never nouncing King Caucus and cham- reform. They always have an axe to pioning for its opponents the right grind and so-called reforms are only of individual conviction? Is it not schemes of the few to further their po-Dick Smith started a brick yard a ocrats to abide by the judgment of nishing employment to ninety men. He arcasm, the Gazette ridicules the Mr. Bok says; they are rebuking it the majority as the embodiment of said he would burn 1,000,000 brick, all of sneezed at president's policies, referring to the by inventing their own distinctive wisdom and the only salvation of the which had been sold beforehand to the

George Whitlock, ex-building inspector, And if the bosses eventually fix tied his borse in front of the old Shiverlock hastily freed him and drove to another hitching post. Somebody in the crowd gathered, caught the queen and put her in a nall keg, when the rest in town stirring up interest in the next meeting of that association school, arrived and put up at the Madison.

Ten Years Ago-

The Board of Education at its meeting brought up the report, which it authentitention of the Board of Fire and Police trying to break up the illicit sale of liquor by drug stores. Member W. R. Homan introduced a resolution and told a few

Charles S. Elgutter filed his announced Harry B. Zimman, as president of the city council and mayor pro tem, mads a speech from a box at the opening of the Governor O'Neal of Alabama new Krug theater, in which he bespoke pleads for more frequent sessions of the friendly feeling of the citizens of & Havlin and Hudson & Judah. The theater opened under the local management of H. J. Gonden The remains of Oliver P. Moore, s

That sweet, gentle theme of uni- of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore, 848 South versal disarmament ought to wax Twenty-third street, arrived from Manifa to be interred at Purest Laws. Oliver Moore, though only 18 years of age, had in the Philippines when slain in battle.

passed on the merits of a half-century bottle of apple jack recently unearthed in lows.

SECULAR SHOTS AT PULPIT.

Philadelphia Ledger: Thousands of experts have been hammering at parts of the Bible with unusual assiduity and leries. scholarship, disproving the flood, hectoring poor old Jonah, muckraking David and showing alleged errors. But all of decues. them put together are read by only a few thousand among the 1,500,000,000 people on earth, while the Hible remains more than ever the great Book of the world. The American Bible society nearing 100,000,000 copies issued since began, in 1816. But even that would not tell the whole story, for the British and Foreign Bible society since 1804 has distributed more than 240,000,000 volumes Any individual or sect may criticis; an argue and dogmatize over or about the Bible, but the Book itself is the biggest permanent fact in the records of the hu-

Atlantic Monthly: The country minis ter is paid when the money comes in. that is, if it is enough to balance all accounts; otherwise his claim walts until the rest are paid. Said the treasurer to she is stout. me once: "Your salary is $100 in arrea."s. A girl clerk in a dry goods store doesn't but all the rest of the bills are paid. This get to say much, but she does a lot of leaves the books clear." That was at mental cussing every time she has to the end of the year. Usually the minister is paid when the money comes 19, which may be once in two or three months, or twice a year; and I have up her sleeves and look like a real houseknown instances where the payment walts the end of the year, and, as in the call. above instance, is then not always ready. Sometimes there is an agreement that the minister shall be paid quarterly, but such agreement is generally made with But daughter wear so little that she can the mental reservation on the part of the give a fireman a hard race when it comes reasurer, at least, "providing the money is then in hand." If it is not then in nand the minister must walt until it comes in. This, to the minister, often becomes not only an annoyance, but a hardship. If such a condition were unavoidable one would not complain, but when the comnittee knows that in the end all bills just be paid, and are paid, it gets on one's nerves to be put at such a disadvantage.

Baltimore American: There is a strong egree of sublimity surrounding the basis Mesdames Lawrence, Elliott and Jones of opposition to making the office of bishop of the Episcopal church yesterday afternoon at the former's elective, as voiced by Bishop Tuttle of residence, those present being the Misses St. Louis, the incumbent of that exalted place. But the line of reasoning does not appear wholly convincing. Mabel Pratt, Anna Eliett, Lulu and learned bishop contends, in effect, that under the present system the office is Peter Gooz, proporietor of Hotel de filled by "God's providence directly and without man's agency. He is the senior bishop in the order of consecration, hav-ing jurisdiction within the United States. William G. Habaill is again at his post | The death of the preceding senior invests him with the office of presiding bishop, and death is God's messenger alone. The solemnity of his appointment to office by the act of God is unspeakably great. The argument is as old as the known history of mankind. It is the same that served to perpetuate through many ages the autocratic form of civil government, Spirit Lake, reporting having had a and superstition, that the ruler was placed in authority by God, and that to interfere meant damnation. We hear less of this in these enlightened days.

People and Events

part of fifty tons of storage food products destroyed in Philadelphia last week. Speculators sacrificed the food rather than "break the market price." Liberty E. Holden, proprietor of the able to Pittsburgh, taxation on improved real estate is to be decreased one-tenth every three years until one-half the assessed value of the improvements is cut off. The value thus shaved off is to be placed on unimproved real estate. The purpose of these steps toward single tax is to make landholders diagorge some of the profits derived from the enterprise of neighbors.

"Port" exclaimed Health Computationers real estate is to be decreased one-tenth "Rot!" exclaimed Health Complesioner

Young of Chicago, replying to the assertions of anemic reformers that kissing is tions of anemic reformers that kissing is unhealthy. "Kissing," he declared, "is only unhealthy when indulged in to such an extent that father and mother notice it. What are the benches in the parks for? Why is the gas fixed so that it can be turned low? There's a reason. Go ahead—kiss if you get a chance." Dr. Young is as shrewd as he is wise in arguing along lines of least resistance.

The conqueror's crown of glory is set with many a gem.
But I join not in their triumph—there are plenty to shout for them; The cause is the most applauded whom warriors gain the day.

And the world's best smiles are given to the victors in the fray.

But I join not in their triumph—there are plenty to shout for them; The cause is the most applauded whom warriors gain the day.

And the world's best smiles are given to the victors in the fray.

But I join not in their triumph—there are plenty to shout for them;

The cause is the most applauded whom warriors gain the day.

And the world's best smiles are given to the victors in the fray.

But I poin not in their triumph—there are plenty to shout for them;

The cause is the most applauded whom warriors gain the day.

And the world's best smiles are given to the victors in the fray.

But I poin not in their triumph—there are plenty to shout for them;

The conqueror's arem.

MUFFLED KNOCKS.

The world may be growing better, but there are still too many photograph gal-A girl thinks men are all kings. An old married woman thinks they are all

What has become of the old-fashloned man who wanted to fight when you called him a liar?

Man may be the noblest work of God. but you can never make a married woman believe it. A man always says he would rather have a clear conscience than $1,000,000 because he hasn't the $1,000,000. A man always gets mad when he pays $3 for a straw hat and a month later sees the same one marked down to to cents.

The only people who can afford to tell the truth all the time are those who don't care whether they have any friends

In the good old days a fat woman just naturally had to be fat. But nowadays she can wear a straight front and say wait on a fusey woman. A girl who doesn't know how to boil water likes to don a big apron and roll keeper when she expects a young man to

When mother was a girl she used to have to the four strings around her waist before she donned an outer skirt. to dressing fast.-Cincinnati Enquirer.

SUNDAY SMILES

"Last spring," said Mrs Crosslots, "that next-door neighbor of ours planted large quantities of sweet corn and pease and potatoes that nobody has seen since." "Perhaps," replied her husband, "But I'm too busy a man to follow up any of these tips about buried treasure."—Wash-ing Star. A man entered a store and bought three igars and lighted one. "My, this is a rotten cigar!" he ex-daimed.

claimed. "Say, man what are you complaining about?" replied the dealer, "You have about?" replied the dealer. "You have only three of those chars and I have 1,000, Be reasonable!"—Kansas City Star. "Bothering me again about that bill, Say, didn't I tell you three weeks age that I was short?"

"Yes, but you are short too confounded long."—Boston Transcript.

"What's the baby crying for?" asked the head of the house from the dept of his paper.
"He wants his own way," answered the And with his mind on the latest stock quotations hubby replied: "Well, if it's his, why don't you let him have it?"—Lippincott's.

"The inn which has the reputation of being haunted is doing a big business with the theatrical folks, I wonder why?" "Perhaps they are anxious to see the ghost walk."—Baltimore American.

"Isn't Bugsby the kind-hearted chap who built the luxurious patent kennel for stray dogs?"
"Yes."
"Mow did it work?"
"After he had been bitten seven times while trying to coax the dogs to enter it the humans society locked him up for cruelty to animals."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hay fever is now diagnosed as "a million little ants running up and down inside your nostrils." Only the immune imagine hay fever is a thing to be sneesed at.

Soweral thousand pounds of spring chicken in cold storage since 1906 formed

An absent-minded acientist, in the employ of the government at Washington,
"I don't know what's the matter with me, doctor," said the man of science.
"I am limping badly today. Do you think it's locomotor ataxia?"
"You are walking with one foot on the curb and the other in the gutter."— Everybody's Magazine.

THE LOSING SIDE.

Arthur Legge in Philadelphia Ledger. Relmet and plume and saber, banner and lance and shield, Cleveland Plain Dealer, is dead at his home in Cleveland, aged Si. He was a distinguished figure in the newspaper life and the band of broken soldiers, with a of Ohio, achieved marked success as a weary, hopeless air.

With heads in silence drooping, and eyes of stem despair. publisher and backed public enterprises of grim despair.

With pen and means. Moveover his activities were crowned with an abundance of years.

By a new law in Pennsylvania, application.

By a new law in Pennsylvania, application.

Wisdom of age is vanquished, and gener fame, Are here—on the losing side.

The conqueror's crown of glory is set

"Now My Woolens Will Be Safe"

"The cedar bottom in the lower drawer of this dresser makes it a practical cedar chest. The mild, sweet cedar odor is very pleasant and just strong enough to discourage moths and Luger "Cedar-Line" Dressers and Chiffoniers Cost no more because of this desirable feature.

This and the dust-proof, mouse-proof bottom, the easy-sliding drawers, the strong inter-locking construction and other valuable features make them better than other makes selling at the same price. If your furniture dealer can't show you the "Cedar-Line" we'll tell you who can.

LUGER

