WATSON DENIES EVERYTHING

Former Congressman Contradicts Mulhall on All Points.

NO INFLUENCE WITH CANNON

Says He Never Was Employed by the Manufacturers' Association and Lobbyist Did Not Raise Funds for Him.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Former Representative James E. Watson of Indiana, before the house lobby committee today, made a general denial of Martin M. Mulhall's general charge that he was one of the active friends of the National Association of Manufacturers in congress during many years.

"At no time while I was in congress or after I left congress," said Watson, "was I in the employ of the National Association of Manufacturers for any purpose, nor was I at any time a lobbyist or a lawyer for it."

Watson said he did work for the National Taxif Commission association, an organization of several hundred associations and many individuals of which, the National Association of Manufacturers was one. He declared that Mulhall's charge that he used his influence to put certain men on house committees and remove others was without foundation.

"You don't need to tell the sun to shine; you don't need to tell the birds to sing, any more than you needed to tell Uncle Joe Cannon who to appoint on committees," he said. "The committees were made up by Mr. Cannon, Hubby, his secretary and Asher Hinds, the house parliamentarian, and I never obtruded my opinions."

When asked to give an opinion on a man's fitness for a committee position, he gave it, but went no further. Watson said he never was approached by and National Association of Manufacturers officials to favor any legislation, and never was interested particularly in any bills they favored, except an anti-injunction bill and the proposed exemption of labor unions from the operation of the Sherman law. He said he held the same views as the association on those measures.

Contradicts Mulhall. Watson explained that Mulhall expected to assist him in his campaign for governor in 1908, but worked only a few months and did not make his promises good. He denied that Mulhall helped raise $2,000 in that campaign. His employment by the tariff association was about April 1, 1908, nearly a month after he left congress. He said he was in charge of the campaign for a tariff commission while the Payne bill was in the house and later in the senate.

"There was nothing secret or insidious about my employment," said he. "I was not in congress and I thought I had a right to that employment. I received $250 a week and my expenses and probably a retainer of $500. There may have been some talk of a contingent fee, but it must have been among the officers. I never heard anything about it."

Takes Shot at Bryan. "While I was whip of the house for six years," declared Watson, pointing on the table in front of him, "I was intimately acquainted with almost every member, and I never knew a corrupt man in the house."

When questioned about lectures for the manufacturers' or allied organizations Watson diverted to take a shot at Secretary Bryan. "He is the John D. Rockefeller of the chautauqua platform," said Watson. "He has made more money out of it than anybody else, and has made more money because he has gone about abusing the other fellows for making money."

THAW FIGHT NOW UP TO GOVERNOR PELKER OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Another Deportation Suit. CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 12.—William H. Olmstead, a New York lawyer, arrived here today to take charge of the interests of Harry K. Thaw so far as action at the state capital may be necessary.

Mr. Olmstead says that if Thaw is taken back to New York a taxpayer's suit will be brought there for his deportation to Pennsylvania on the ground that in his case New York is being taxed for the support of an insane person whose legal residence is in another state.

Regulation Papers Sworn Out. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Papers calling for the extradition of Harry K. Thaw from Colebrook, N. H., to New York state were signed today by Acting Governor Martin H. Glynn. Sheriff Hornbeck left at noon for Concord to present the papers to Governor Pelker.

This is charged with being a fugitive from justice and among the papers are the affidavits of various officials and residents of Dutchess county about Thaw's commitment and escape from the Mattawam state hospital, the flight into Canada and his arrest in New Hampshire. In his affidavit District Attorney Conger says that in his opinion the ends of justice require that Thaw be brought back to New York for trial at public expense and that he is willing that such expense be borne by the county of Dutchess. He says he believes he has sufficient evidence to convict Thaw on the charge of conspiracy.

No indictment against Thaw has been found, the district attorney explains, because no grand jury was in session from the date of Thaw's escape until September 2. A grand jury is now in session, but Mr. Conger says it will be unable to hear the Thaw case for some time and will not make a report of its findings for at least two weeks.

Accused of Robbing Mail. PIERRE, S. D., Sept. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Deputy United States Marshal Laughlin went to Huron this evening to take charge of Everett Brown, arrested on the fair grounds today on a complaint charging him with mail robbery. It is charged that Brown took a registered package containing $600 from the mail pouch on the platform at Van Metre,

Governor Sulzer is Missing from Albany

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The whereabouts of Governor Sulzer continued to be a mystery today. His secretary, Chester C. Platt, said he did not know where the executive was, and it was stated at the executive mansion that he was not there. Mr. Sulzer is said to have been seen in New York yesterday.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 12.—The first requisition on the state of New York from Ohio since the Sulzer impeachment proceedings have been pending was issued by Gov. Cox today and is addressed simply "To the governor of New York." This was done notwithstanding Attorney General Hogan of Ohio had given an opinion some time ago holding that Martin H. Glynn is the legal acting governor. The requisition asks for the return to the Mansfield reformatory of Edward Ryan, a Cuyahoga county prisoner, who is charged with having violated his parole. Ryan is under arrest in New York state.

GERMAN AIRMAN KILLED BY FALL AND EXPLOSION

MUENSTER, Germany, Sept. 12.—Aviator Hans Lorenz was killed here today as he was completing a two hours' flight. He steered the machine downward too sharply and the wings buckled, the aeroplanes falling to the ground. The gasoline tank exploded, and the pilot's body was partly burned before the fire could be extinguished.

CIVIC HONORS PAID GAYNOR

(Continued from Page One.) dead executive's cabinet composed of various city departments and board of aldermen to pass appropriate resolutions on the death of the chief executive and to take in hand the reins of the city government, confused by the mayor's sudden taking off. The recent resignation of John Purroy Mitchell, now candidate for mayor, from the presidency of the board of aldermen and the sudden elevation of Mr. Kilns, vice chairman of the board, to the mayor's chair, has left that body without a head.

No Change in Policy. The new mayor, a republican, who will serve until a successor, to be chosen at the coming November election, is inaugurated on January 1, intends, he has announced, to carry out the policies of the Gaynor administration, "insofar as I know them," and to make no change in appointive officials. None of these officials, it was believed today, would hand in their resignations.

Messages of condolence from all parts of the country continued to pour in today at the office of Robert Adamson, the mayor's secretary, and at the Gaynor country home, St. James, Long Island, where Mrs. Gaynor and her children are reported to be bearing their loss with fortitude. The dead mayor's friends recalled today a paragraph he wrote in a letter to his sister soon after the attempt on his life three years ago. It was this: "I was not a bit afraid to die if that was God's will of me. I said to myself, just as well now as a few years from now. No one who contemplates the immensity of Almighty God, His universe and His works and realizes what a atom he is in it, can fear to die in this flesh, yes, even though it were true that he is to lose his identity and be dissolved forever into the infinity of matter and mind from which he came."

Mrs. Pankhurst Will Be Treated Like Any Other Immigrant

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The nature of the reception that awaits Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader when she arrives here from Europe next month will depend on the outcome of an investigation of her actions in England now being made by the immigration authorities of the United States. Byron Uhl, commissioner of immigration, said today: "It is not at all certain that Mrs. Pankhurst will be detained at Ellis Island. Her actions in England are being investigated and if she is found guilty of moral turpitude she will be detained here; if she is not found guilty of moral turpitude she will not be brought here. It is not at all certain that she will be treated like any immigrant, for there is only one way of handling people here. "It is most unfortunate that this is the case and it is the ground for much justifiable complaint, but nothing can be done about it until congress decides that we need quarters for first class passengers as well as for third class."

MUCH INTEREST IN RACES AT THE FILLMORE FAIR

GENEVA, Neb., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—This city has been tastefully decorated with flags, bunting, pennants and light bulbs and was very festive. Crowds were on the streets every evening. The fair closed today. The following races were run at the fair grounds: Trotting, 2:5 class: Ina Archdale won, Harry Hackaway second, Casey W. third, Tealia Todd fourth. County trot or pace: Doctor Tom won, Lord Kutchem second, Joe Crowley third, Rosy B. fourth. Green trot or pace (county): Dan Scriber won, Kernal second, Gladys D. third. The ball game between Belvidere and Geneva resulted in a score of 1 to 1 in favor of Geneva.

Bowling Notes. The Booster league holds its final meeting before the opening of the season tonight at the Association alleys. Business of importance will be transacted, including the voting in of the Omaha league rollers. For the benefit of those who have the wrong impression about the dope ball it might be said that this style of ball is not barred in any of Omaha's bowling leagues this season. It is true that such bowlers as Yousem, Johnson and Cain have abandoned this style of ball, but they did it because they found that they could bowl better games with the wrist hook ball and not because of any ruling on barring the "Dodo."

IMMIGRATION TO BE TOPIC

Subject for Intercollegiate Debates Has Been Agreed on.

SHALL LITERARY TEST APPLY Nebraska This Year Will Debate With University of Minnesota and With University of Iowa.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—The question which the University of Nebraska's representatives in the intercollegiate debate of the Central Debating League next December will discuss is that of the restriction of immigration by a literary test. The exact wording of the question is as follows: Resolved, That immigration into this country should be further restricted by means of a literary test. Nebraska will this year debate with the University of Minnesota at Lincoln and with the University of Iowa at Iowa City. Last December Nebraska defeated Wisconsin at Madison and Illinois at Lincoln in the compulsory federal chartering of interstate commerce corporations—the institutions. Nebraska debaters excelled in 1919 on both sides of the "closed" shop question. At Lincoln Nebraska will argue for the restriction of immigration and at Iowa City against it.

According to announcement by Prof. M. M. Fogg, professor of rhetoric, in charge of this work, the preliminary debate to select the members of the intercollegiate debate seminary (Rhetoric 22) will be held very early in October. A number of students are already here at work on material listed in a preliminary bibliography. The other members of the Central Debating League are Illinois and Wisconsin.

Always Plays Hard. Jimmy Viox of the Pirates has come along with a rush this year and has become a high-class and valuable player. He plays his hardest at all times and in batting meets the balls solidly and powerfully.
