OMAHA DROPS TWO GAMES

Both Ends of Double Bill Go Easily to Grizzlies.

FIRST CONTEST IS A SHUTOUT

Brenner Unable to Handle the Bear Batters—In Second Schlitter Does But Little Better Against Harris.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Omaha dropped two games today, closing the season for that team in this city. In both games the Denver pitchers played the star parts, assisted by marvellous fielding. Indeed the field work of both teams was far above the average, and Omaha's men played better than in any of the other games here this year.

Brenner in the first game was unlucky to commence with, but after Chanell made his twenty-fourth home run for the year was compelled to take the bad end of it.

Schlitter in the second game held up well to the fourth inning, when Denver hitters fell on him for five singles which closed the contest. Omaha played thirteen innings without scoring a run counting in Wednesday's contest.

In the first innings of the first game Justice worked his way to third by beating an infield hit, a sacrifice and an error. In the fourth inning Congalton worked his way to third. Omaha made its strongest bid in the seventh. Johnson singled and went to third on Grubb's single to center. Brenner's grounder to Quillin forced Johnson at the plate. Grubb got to third, but no farther. In the ninth Omaha started like a whirl. Payne singled to right and got to third on a double by Sheats, but could not get home.

Omaha could make but one run in the second game. In the first inning Justice hit into the automobile in left field for three bases, scoring on Coyle's out. Disaster came in the fourth when five singles in a row were made off Schlitter and both Thomson and Congalton made wild throws to the infield on hits to the outfield. Score, first game:

Washington Now Within a Single Contest of Second Place in American League Pennant Race; Johnson in Box.

Win Fifth Straight Victory Over Cleveland in Four Days.

ONLY ONE GAME BETWEEN THEM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—With today's 5 to 1 victory over Cleveland, the fifth straight in four days, Washington climbed to within a single game of Cleveland in the fight for second place in the American league pennant race. The home team won by hitting Blanding hard when his meat runs. The big pitcher was sent back in a vain effort to check Washington and for the first three innings the game looked as if it would be close.

Washington got off to a one run lead in the second, but Cleveland tallied in the half of the fourth and the teams again were on even terms.

The tie was short-lived, however, as Washington landed on Blanding in the fourth for two doubles and two singles, and these, helped along with an error, were good for three runs. The locals scored again in the sixth and in the eighth and, with Walter Johnson mowing down the Clevelanders in regular order the result became a certainty.

It was Johnson's second victory over Cleveland of the series. He was in fine form, allowing but four widely scattered hits, striking out seven and giving but one base on balls. In the field, he accepted six chances perfectly.

Milan was the hitting star of the day, getting four hits out of four times up, two of them being doubles. Almsmith also batted hard, connecting for a triple and a double out of three times at bat. Joe Jackson, Cleveland's slugging outfielder, was hurt in the fourth inning while going after Milan's double to the fence, and had to be replaced by Ryan.

Jackson and the ball hit the fence about the same time, the ball rebounding into Lobbed's hands while Jackson scurried up in a heap, unconscious. His condition is not considered serious and he is expected to be in tomorrow's lineup against Philadelphia.

Manager Birmingham received notice today of an indefinite suspension from President Ban Johnson, as the result of his argument with Umpire Egan yesterday. As Birmingham was told of his suspension, he had been lifted, and the Washington manager donned his uniform and went out on the field to lead his team on to its fifth straight victory over the visitors. Washington Now Within a Single Contest of Second Place in American League Pennant Race; Johnson in Box.

Win Fifth Straight Victory Over Cleveland in Four Days.

ONLY ONE GAME BETWEEN THEM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—With today's 5 to 1 victory over Cleveland, the fifth straight in four days, Washington climbed to within a single game of Cleveland in the fight for second place in the American league pennant race. The home team won by hitting Blanding hard when his meat runs. The big pitcher was sent back in a vain effort to check Washington and for the first three innings the game looked as if it would be close.

Washington got off to a one run lead in the second, but Cleveland tallied in the half of the fourth and the teams again were on even terms.

The tie was short-lived, however, as Washington landed on Blanding in the fourth for two doubles and two singles, and these, helped along with an error, were good for three runs. The locals scored again in the sixth and in the eighth and, with Walter Johnson mowing down the Clevelanders in regular order the result became a certainty.

It was Johnson's second victory over Cleveland of the series. He was in fine form, allowing but four widely scattered hits, striking out seven and giving but one base on balls. In the field, he accepted six chances perfectly.

Milan was the hitting star of the day, getting four hits out of four times up, two of them being doubles. Almsmith also batted hard, connecting for a triple and a double out of three times at bat. Joe Jackson, Cleveland's slugging outfielder, was hurt in the fourth inning while going after Milan's double to the fence, and had to be replaced by Ryan.

Jackson and the ball hit the fence about the same time, the ball rebounding into Lobbed's hands while Jackson scurried up in a heap, unconscious. His condition is not considered serious and he is expected to be in tomorrow's lineup against Philadelphia.

Manager Birmingham received notice today of an indefinite suspension from President Ban Johnson, as the result of his argument with Umpire Egan yesterday. As Birmingham was told of his suspension, he had been lifted, and the Washington manager donned his uniform and went out on the field to lead his team on to its fifth straight victory over the visitors.
