Mrs. Frank Crawford is anticipating an unusually interesting winter and will leave shortly to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Richard Lee Metcalfe, and Mr. Metcalfe, who is acting governor of the Canal Zone. The social life in Panama is especially gay and interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee Metcalfe are being extensively entertained throughout the Canal Zone. The American society is largely military, as the other six members of the Canal commission are army engineers. There is also an army post in the zone. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe were guests of honor recently at a dinner given by Colonel and Mrs. Goethals. Colonel Goethals is the chairman of the Canal commission. Colonel and Mrs. Siebert gave a house party in their honor at their beautiful home at Gatun, where are situated the famous Gatun locks. They have received many attentions from the Panamanians, the president of the republic of Panama having given a breakfast recently in honor of Mr. Metcalfe. Among the guests was the ex-president of Peru, who is on his way to Washington. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe were in the receiving line at a reception given by Colonel and Mrs. Goethals in honor of Prince George of Denmark, who is visiting the canal on H. M. S. New Zealand.

Before going to Panama, Mrs. Crawford will accompany her niece, Miss Elizabeth Heaton, to Yassar college, and will meet Mr. Crawford in New York early in October, when they will sail for the Canal Zone for the winter.

Mrs. Frank W. Carpenter, with her son, Frank, and daughter, Rita, left last week for the east. They will go to Wellesley, Mass., where Miss Rita will enter college for the winter, and from there she will go to Cornwall-on-Hudson, where Mr. Frank will enter the military school for the winter. Mrs. Carpenter plans to go to the Philippines Islands shortly after the Christmas holidays, to join Mr. Carpenter there, where he is in the executive secretary of the islands.

Miss Dunice Beaton of Denver, formerly of Omaha, is spending a few days visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Beaton, before leaving for school at Mount St. Vincent on the Hudson.

Miss Mildred Marr of Kansas City is another former Omaha young woman who has returned for a visit and is now with her sister, Mrs. Louis Leung. Later Miss Marr will be the guest of Miss Harold Stott. Many informal social affairs are being given in her honor.

An engagement, announced last week was that of Miss Edith Mickle to Mr. John W. Glover. The wedding will be September 24.

The wedding of Miss Agnes Condon to Mr. E. W. Koltman will take place October 2.

With the Younger Set. There will be quite a bevy of attractive young women this year who plan to remain at home, but who will defer their formal debut for at least another season. One reason for this is probably that so many of the younger set are returning east to continue their studies at boarding school and college.

Miss Frances Houbalter, who attended Ely Court at Greenwich, Conn., last year, will be home this winter. Miss Eugenie Patterson, who was in school in Washington last year, has decided to stay in Omaha this season, as has also Miss Anne Clifford, Miss Greta Lane and Miss Marion Kuhn, but will not make their debuts for another season.

There will probably be four debutantes this year—Miss Maudie Davis, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Davis; Miss Lucille Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bacon, and two young women, who are in Europe, and who will return home this autumn. Miss Helen Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Clarke, is expected back next week. Miss Janet Hall, daughter of Mrs. Richard Hall, is expected home early in November.

Return from Summer Outings. Mrs. Frank Martin and her daughters, Mrs. Carl Oehlert and Mrs. Guy Baker, who have been spending the summer in Estes park, Colorado, have returned. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lamoreaux are home from North Dakota, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Updike and Miss Lucy Updike returned home Thursday, after spending the summer on the Jersey coast and in Woodstock, Vt.

Mr. E. E. Bruce and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, returned this morning from the east, where they spent several weeks. Miss Margaret Bruce will remain a few weeks longer in the east.

Mrs. E. F. Peck returned Wednesday from a visit of two weeks in New York, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Estabrook. Mrs. Ella J. Squires, also a visitor at the Estabrook home, arrived Saturday. She was with her daughter,

Remember That:--

One word of advice given early in regards to our Hats is worth a thousand "I told you so's" when the season is over.

Thompson, Belden & Company

The dominant features of this season's styles, judging from the works of the foremost milliners which speak in no uncertain accents, may be summed up as follows: Hats are to be small or medium, and though a great latitude is allowed in the shaping of brims, there is a marked tendency to turn them up sharply at the side or back; velvet is the most popular material; black is the reigning color; the trimming scant, mostly of feathers upon the poing of which at the proper angle depends the style of the hat.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & COMPANY is the one place in Omaha where discriminating women will find exclusive millinery. Styles that are inspired by the best Paris creates and developed in the prettiest and most practical manner, at prices that are less than are asked elsewhere for very ordinary hats. It is absolutely impossible for the average millinery store to sell hats at the low figures we quote. Hundreds of charming styles, no two of which are alike, at prices ranging from $10.00 to $75.00

We will give equally convincing proof of reasonable pricing in Monday's Exhibit.
