Executive Committee of the Commercial Club at Work Again.

COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

Will Open Up Bureau of Information for the Benefit of Visitors to the Fall Festival—New Members Enlist.

A world peace committee was appointed by the executive committee of the Commercial club at the first meeting of the fall, held at noon yesterday. This step grows out of the suggestion given by Albert G. Bryant, who spoke on world peace at the Commercial club last week. Those appointed to work along lines of world peace are John L. Webster, Henry W. Yates, Norris Brown, Dean J. A. Hancock, Dr. D. E. Jenkins, Edgar Scott, W. F. Gurley, Dr. Harold Gifford, W. F. Baxter and E. U. Graff.

It was decided also by the executive committee that through the publicity bureau an information bureau should be established in Omaha for the benefit of out-of-town guests during Ak-Sar-Ben. Lists of rooms for the out-of-town people will be kept and a force will be kept to aid them in finding rooms.

C. E. Yost, chairman of the executive committee, in opening the first meeting of the fall, expressed the hope that the affairs for the good of Omaha would be handled with the same zeal with which they were handled in the past. "You will have to go some, though," he said, and he called attention to what had been done in the six months before the summer vacation. He reported that in that time there had been 25 meetings held at the club, with a total attendance of 2,416, which means that 4,000 hours of work were devoted to the interests of Omaha.

To Visit Court House.
The invitation of the county commissioners to visit the new court house was accepted and a date will be fixed soon. An invitation was received to attend the formal opening of the new Salvation Army headquarters at 112 Dodge street Thursday of this week. The report of the municipal affairs committee made a partial report on its investigation of the collection and disbursement of city funds. The committee asks for more time to make further investigations.

New members were elected to the Commercial club as follows: E. S. Koller, assistant general manager of the Burlington; C. W. Y. Loucks, secretary of the McKean Motor Car company; Ray C. Kincaley, Columbia Optical company; William J. Joyce, manager Moursie Oil company; E. L. Fries, auditor of disbursements of the Union Pacific; George B. Dyball, vice president of the Alamito Creamery company. Nonresident members were chosen as follows: C. L. Wattle, banker, of Neigh; Louis Vierling of the Vierling Steel works, Chicago.

Ak-Sar-Ben Ball Tickets Will Not Be Transferable

At the regular meeting of the board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben Monday night, it was decided that tickets for the ball cannot be transferred from father to son or vice versa. "The ball tickets are not to be looked upon as heirlooms this year," says "Dad" Weaver, secretary. "Of course, the stubs may be retained and put away in the family album and all that, but there will be no transferring of ball tickets this year."

Tickets for the Hippodrome show will be put on sale tomorrow at Beaton's drug store. The special rate will be six tickets for $1, and the sale will continue until the opening day of the carnival. The regular price of the Hippodrome tickets are 25 cents.

It was decided that a letter shall be written to the Ministerial alliance by the board of governors inviting a committee to come to King's Highway and look over the shows. They will be asked to censor the offerings. The invitation is extended to the ministers to visit the carnival grounds the second Saturday of the carnival, September 27. "Dad" says all the dozen attractions will stand the careful scrutiny of any committee of ministers.

Council Refuses to Pass Cheaper Car Fare Ordinance

City commissioners, voting unanimously, refused to pass even for a quarter street car ticket ordinance, and upon the advice of City Attorney, John A. Rine, passed a resolution authorizing the submission of the proposition at the next election, which will probably be the charter election.

"The proposition does not have to be submitted at a general election," said Rine, "but at the next election, regardless of whether it is a special or general election."

A protest, filed by the street railway company, saying the initiative petition of the socialists was insufficient and illegal, was placed on file by the commissioners.

WESTERN ROCK ISLAND LINES SHOW BIG EARNINGS

The report of the Rock Island road for the fiscal year ending June 30 has just been made public. It shows a prosperous condition and that the company made money, but that the western district, including Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, was the section from which the profitable freight business came.

In all districts the business was good, but the western was far ahead of any of the others. In the western district the operating income increased 11.2 per cent over 1912; in the eastern, 4.1, and in the southern, 2.1 per cent.

Indian Lad Wins Place in Trinity Cathedral Choir

After an absence of twenty-five years, a South American Indian of chiefly ancestors has returned to Omaha, where, as a boy, he received part of his education.

When Chief Caupolican was a youngster in Omaha, singing for two years as the soloist in the choir of Trinity cathedral, he did not know that his stay here was to be merely a part of his education. His father was the chief of the Araucano tribe in Chili, South America.

In the grammar school, where the high school now stands, he was known as Emilio B. Yates.

When he entered Trinity choir, which was then directed by Mrs. J. W. Cotton, there were three boys that competed in a contest to decide which of them should become soloist. In addition to the Indian boy, the contestants were Charles Rogers, now with The Bee, and Ralph Grandall, And the little Indian won. This week his singing is one of the attractive features of the Orpheum.

J. L. SVOBODA RESIGNS AS CASHIER OF STATE BANK

J. L. Svoboda has retired from the office of cashier of the State Bank of Omaha. While he tendered his resignation September 9, it was not acted upon by the board of directors until Monday. Mr. Svoboda will re-embark in the banking business after he has taken a short vacation.

C. M. High is acting as cashier until a new officer is elected to fill the vacancy.

MAZZIE FINED FOR STRIKING OFFICER AT POLLING PLACE

Samuel Mazzie pleaded guilty before Judge Crawford of the county court to a charge of interfering with an election official, and was fined $5 and costs. Mazzie was alleged to have struck a peace officer appointed by the election commissioner in the Second district of the First ward.

Debutante Slouch Seems Natural to Brandeis Model

The sensation of the style show at the Brandeis stores this week is Miss Virginia Rappe, who is known as the "Girl with the Million Dollar Smile." Miss Rappe was engaged last season for the style show, but instead announced her engagement to a young millionaire. Just before the wedding was to have taken place she decided not to give up her artistic career and has been continuing her work as a star in the movies and as a model at the various style shows. Miss Rappe, who has had unprecedented success in the east, is now en route west and will appear next week in Los Angeles. The new walk, "the Debutante Slouch," is gracefully expressed by Miss Rappe, to whom it seems to be natural, for she uses the new walk when on the street, as well as when exhibiting gowns.

Miss Rappe is much sought after for her pictures for advertising. Beside having perfect features, she has unusually pretty dark hair and eyes and the proverbially "pearly teeth," which one reads about but rarely sees. After traveling for a time, Miss Rappe will return to the stage, where she has been understudy for a number of stars in New York, last year being understudy in "Roly Poly," with the Weber & Fields' production.

Earlier in the season she was featured prominently in the "himenocolor" style pictures, produced in Lillian Russell's play, "Fashions."

Miss Rappe objects seriously when asked if she ever appeared in the chorus. "No, indeed; when I made my debut on the stage, my name was on the program. The part was a minor one, but I refused to start with the chorus, so I was given a part."

This beautiful model's hobby is motoring, and when in New York she drives a racing car. According to Miss Rappe, the women do not pay enough attention to their clothes, but she believes for motoring that simple and tight fitting clothes should be worn. Owing to aeroplaning and driving their own motor cars, Miss Rappe thinks that pantalettes will soon be the rage for sportswomen.

They are beauties both in design and coloring. You can have your choice of a red, yellow or green one, for only fifteen cents and a Bee coupon at The Bee office.

EVERYBODY will want a pennant for Ak-Sar-Ben Carnival. It will be the fad to carry them all week, and to decorate business places, autos and homes with them. By using all three colors, they make most attractive window displays.

Besides the Ak-Sar-Ben pennants, we can supply you any of the following at the same price of only fifteen cents, when accompanied by a Bee coupon: Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Knights Templar, Shriners, Masons, Eagles, Knights of Columbus, Odd Fellows, Modern Woodmen, Woodmen of the World.

They are handsome, exclusive designs, beautifully embossed on college felt, size 15x36 inches, usually sold for seventy-five cents and one dollar.

A Bee pennant coupon will appear every day on page 2 of The Bee. Cut them out and save them. You will need one coupon for each pennant, and YOU WILL WANT THEM ALL.

If pennants are to be mailed, add five cents for each pennant to cover postage.

MOST PROMINENT MEN IN OMAHA ENDORSE TUXEDO

All mention special Tuxedo qualities which give new note of satisfaction to their pipe smoking

One of the many well known Omaha men who have endorsed Tuxedo publicly is quoted here and the thousands of Tuxedo smokers in Omaha will see in what he says an exact reflection of their own opinions. Every man in Omaha owes it to himself to try Tuxedo because it is the one tobacco which combines freedom from bite with supreme fragrance and flavor.

Tuxedo is the very finest tobacco Kentucky grows—ripe, mellow, sweet and mild old Burley, aged right up to perfection day. Then treated by the original "Tuxedo Process" which takes out the sting, makes Tuxedo smoke cool and slow, and guarantees that it cannot bite your tongue.

Mr. Richard Kitchen, manager and popular host of the Paxton Hotel, is one of the many prominent Omaha men who have discovered by experience and comparison that smoking Tuxedo puts a pipe at its best, giving wonderful fragrance, flavor and mildness without the slightest irritation to tongue or throat. Mr. Kitchen says:

"I have always thought I would like to write advertisements about Tuxedo. If there is anything in enthusiasm, I would certainly make converts. Tuxedo is the best ever. It makes a real companion of the pipe. It's just right for mildness and fragrance, stays lighted and doesn't bite."
