Yankton College Has Strong Lineup

TANKTON, S. D., Sept M .- (Special)-Two weeks' preliminary practice under Coach Kerr has rounded out Yankton's Coach Kerr has rounded out Yankton's foot bail squad into some semblance of a foot bail team. The time has been largely devoted to puoting, passing, falling on the ball and dummy work. The first scrimmage took place last Friday night when a provisional varsity took on the fast high school team for a little workout. The work of the college was unfinished, but gave promise of a powerful team. Joe Johnson worked at left half and showed up well as a plunger seph, and in carrying the ball. The line, which Two-kapp and Gray at center, Penenga, Kniffen and Schnaldt at guards, and Nelson. opened up big holes for the backs. Hungerfords and Stevenson both worked at full, and both showed that they were good possibilities, Stevenson in particular taking advantage of every opening. Warren and MeArthur alternated at right

Pirates Take Opener.

Pittishurgh, Sept. 24.—Chicago's errors and two wild pitches by Cheney in the third liming gave Pittsburgh the opener of the series, 3 to 2. Carey leading off in the first inning was safe on Evers' fumble. A wild pitch enabled Carey to take second. Dolan hit to Cheney, whose throw failed to get Carey at third. With Wagner up Cheney then uncorked his second wild pitch, Carey scoring and Dolan reaching third. Wagner walked and Dolan scored on Vlox's sacrifice fly. Another fumble by Evers of Dolan's grounder in the third, followed by Wagner's double that hit the left field fence, gave the Pirates their third run.

Chicago scored a run in the fourth when Evers singled, Williams walked and Vlox in his haste to complete a double play on Zimmerman, threw wild. Leach's short fly went for a double in the sixth and he scored when Williams singled Score:
