

By MELLIFICIA. Friday, September 26, 1913.

THE students of Creighton university are preparing for a series of interesting parties. The first large dancing party of the season will be November 19 at Chambers' academy, and will be given by the Senior Arts college. This will be the first large formal dance given for several seasons, the entire series last year being informal. The different departments of the college, and also the alumni, will participate in this entertainment.

The committee in charge of the formal includes Messrs. Earl Connelly, Charles McInery and Frank McDermott.

The Creighton Dental college plans to have a series of five informal dancing parties, and the Creighton medical department usually entertain at several affairs during the season.

One of the enjoyable affairs last year was the Interfrat dance, and this will probably be repeated this year.

Delta Phi Delta fraternity have taken a house and plan to have informal dances in the fraternity house.

IGNORANCE THEIR DRAWBACK

So Declares Bishop Parks in Reference to Negroes as a Race.

MEET NEXT YEAR AT ATCHISON

Conference of African Methodist Episcopal Ministers of Nebraska and Kansas Will Assemble There Next Year.

"There's a Mountain Filled With Blood," led by Rev. T. J. Smith of Topeka, opened the third day's session of the Kansas-Nebraska conference Friday morning in St. John's African Methodist Episcopal church, presided over by Bishop H. Blanton Parks, D. D. of Chicago, Ill.

"Ignorance is a drawback to any individual, race or nation," declared the bishop, "and it is our aim to get rid of ignorance and illiteracy in our race. We have made wonderful progress in the past fifty years, but with the school room open to our boys and girls, we intend to do more of it in the future. It is cheaper to build school houses and employ good teachers than it is to build jails and employ police. It is dangerous to live in an ignorant, vicious community. Wipe out ignorance and there will be less lynching and fewer crimes and our country will take its place in civilization."

"We are getting the right conception of life," said the Rev. Dr. C. R. Runyon of Lincoln, Neb., "and I am proud to say that we have many friends in this state today. We have learned that we must use our way to civilization as other races have done, and civilization is not a garment to be purchased at some of the downtown stores and worn off on the first fitting, but represents years of toil and often sacrifice."

Prof. H. T. Keating, president of Western university, Quindaro, Kan., who is regarded one of the most noted educators in the negro race, was introduced and made a short address. He will speak tonight at the educational mass meeting.

"Are all preachers blameless in life and conversation?" was asked by Bishop

Parks, which brought up for scrutiny the official, religious and moral acts of all the ministers in the conference. Revs. J. Housley and W. B. Johnson were named and their cases referred to a special committee which will report in executive session Saturday morning. The death of Bishop William B. Derrick and Moses B. Salter was announced by Bishop Parks and with bowed heads the members of the conference stood and sang: "Shall We Meet Beyond the River?"

Atchison is selected. "Where shall our next conference be held?" Atchison, Kan., was selected. Revs. A. J. King, W. P. Green and E. W. Alexander were superannuated by the conference and placed on the pension roll. G. E. Horsey, M. D. of Kansas City, Kan., was elected to elders' orders and will be ordained Sunday morning. The report of the dollar money committee showed that the collection for that department during the conference amounted to $2,223.19, an increase of $108 over the previous year.

"The tie between the African Methodist Episcopal church and the Protestant Episcopal is found in Richard Allen and Absalom Jones," declared Rector John Albert Williams of St. Philip's the Deacon Episcopal church. "When you were pulled up from prayer your manhood asserted itself and you took counsel as to the best course of action. Forty-two decided to follow Allen and organized the African Methodist Episcopal church. 'When you were pulled up from prayer your manhood asserted itself and you took counsel as to the best course of action. Forty-two decided to follow Allen and organized the African Methodist Episcopal church."

"Your body has developed strong men. You have wrought well for God and humanity. You have made progress." Dr. B. F. Watson responded to the address. Telling how the church had grown and how it was teaching the negro to depend on himself. "Beggars are not regarded by any people."

Clyde L. Thomas, a young negro business man of Omaha, presented a plan for raising money with which to meet church expenses and do away with a begging system. His work was approved. Several committees reported during the morning session. Tonight "Education" will be discussed. Prof. H. T. Keating, E. R. Vaughn, D. NEGRO PICKPOCKETS

Relieve Visitors of Considerable Money

Visitors to Chicago, the chief city of Quivera, contributed $75 Thursday night to negro women pickpockets and negro "strong arm" men in the lower part of the Third ward.

George Mince, Lincoln, with J. C. Nash, Hot Springs, ventured too near Thirteenth and Cass streets and the former lost $10, but the latter, who had $25, escaped with his money. Women, with whom the pair talked, got the money. Policemen Frank McCabe and Frank Goodrich arrested Lulu Richardson, Nellie Porter and "Mad" Morgan, the latter a man, and they are being held on suspicion.

Otto Heesh, Carroll, Ia., lost $20, a negro woman pickpocket getting the money, and George Thompson, Mason City, lost $20 in a similar way. Joe Peters was in the neighborhood and paid $15 for his visit when two negro men hit him on the head with a club.

By order of Chief of Police Henry W. Dunn all coppers on duty during the Al-Sar-Ben carnival must buy a shave or scrape their own faces every morning. The policemen must also wear white vests and gloves. The chief says he is proud of the appearance of the coppers. "They're the smoothest looking bunch of policemen you ever saw," the chief declares.

TO ELIMINATE SOME SALOONS

Anti-Saloon League Initiates Campaign Here Sunday.

SPEAKERS IN MANY CHURCHES

Regular Pastor in Many of the Places of Worship Will Speak on the Subject from Pulpits Sunday.

Most of the important churches of the city will be given over to anti-saloon programs Sunday morning and evening, which is the day set by the State Anti-Saloon league to initiate its campaign in which it hopes will eliminate hundreds of saloons in the state, including the road houses, in Douglas county. Nearly sixty churches have already agreed to conduct anti-saloon programs Sunday. The league is placing speakers in every one of the list, or is arranging with the regular pastor to give a talk on the subject, outlining the program of the league and telling of the progress made. Petitions now being prepared will be in the churches Sunday to be signed. Thus the league hopes to get a good line of signatures to the initiative petition it will circulate in the hope of bringing before the people at the 1914 election the question of eliminating saloons within two miles of state institutions, eliminating all saloons except one to every 500 inhabitants in any town in the state and taking away from the Douglas county board the power to grant licenses within two miles of the city limits.
