Swedish Woman's Score of Thirty-Two Years Distances All

There are many cases on record of peo. ple remaining in a sleep-like trance for several years, these trances being often caused from injuries to the head, but no one has had so long a sleep as a woman named Caroline Allson, who lives in the little island of Okuo, off the coast of

The sleeper of Okuo was born in 1961; she was a perfectly normal child, and for the first fourteen years of her life was strong and healthy. She did not go to work till just before her fourteenth birthday. One day she came home con plaining of toothache and went to bed. Soon afterward she fell into a deep trance, which lasted from 1875 to 1907, a period of thirty-two years. While in this state she did not seen nourishment consisted of two cupfuls o After the death of her brother she was left in the care of a housekeeper, and then gradual signs of awakening intelligence began to dawn. Once she was left along for several hours with food near her, and the food was seen to have gradually disappeared. There was no doubt that her trance had been broken. A few months later she regained consciousness, asking for her mother. She did not recognize her brothers at all, for she only remembered them as tiny boys. Gradually she regained possession of her faculties, until, at the age of 46, she had completely recovered from her trance, being in perfect health and well and hearty in every way. She only remembers her early life, but nothing that happened during her long illness. Her case has completely mystified the doctors, who cannot explain it in any way.-Phliadelphia Ledger.
