

What Is Home Without an Appetite?

Many a Miserable Dyspeptic Can Quickly Enjoy a Good Appetite Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is nothing so deplorable as a home where at every meal one member of the family sits in silence eating a special diet while others are partaking of the regular food.

The Child—'Please eat some nice chicken, papa.'

The Father—'No, Buster, daddy don't feel like eating.'

The presence of dishes before him that a stomach sufferer cannot eat, makes him sick at his stomach and he is actually doing himself an injury when he eats at such a table.

A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet taken after each meal will excite appetite and in a short time one will find the slight food becoming less and less repugnant until after a few meals one will take courage enough to join with the family in the regular fare.

As soon as this is done and there follows up with effects then by continuing the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets you will soon be restored to your normal, healthy and vigorous appetite.

One of the real pleasures of eating is the joy of smelling and seeing food. These qualities are essential to the normal digestion for they excite the flow of saliva in the mouth, and the gastric juices in the stomach and thus make ready the digestive apparatus for the food when it is eaten.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain ingredients that every system needs. Weakened fluids of nature used in digestion are quickly restored to their normal proportion, and in a short time as so evenly balanced that the system can manufacture its own pepsin and hydrochloric acid as it should.

Go to your druggist today and buy a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets price, 50 cents.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

William Byrne, Grocer, Proposes to Bring Suit Against the City.

PAVING CONTRACTOR INCLUDED

Alleges that Torn Up Condition of Street for Months Worked an Injury to His Business.

William Byrne, a grocer residing at Twenty-eighth and Q streets, has notified the mayor and city council that he will sue the city and the National Construction company jointly for damages sustained by reason of the tearing up of the pavement on Q street, which he alleges was left in a dilapidated condition for more than a year while the matter was in court. Byrne claims $3,000 as compensatory damages.

Q street was torn up in July, 1912, by the National Construction company, which held the contract for paving A. A. Wright, however, had attacked the right of the city to let the contract to the company under the existing law and charter provisions. The matter was in court for many months, during which time the contractors did no work on the street, nor did the city restore the pavement temporarily. September, 1912, the work of putting down the new pavement was begun. Byrne contends he lost trade and besides has his property injured by the under drains caused by the rain water flowing in the torn up street.

Thieves Visit McKenna's. Thieves broke into the store of John McKenna at Thirty-third and Q streets Thursday night and stole goods to the value of $50. The police believe the thieves obtained entrance through a rear door. Among the articles taken were several cartons of smoking tobacco, a quantity of plug tobacco and a broken gum machine. The police have taken the matter up.

Murphy Points Out the Law. City Attorney Murphy has pointed out the state law under which the Fire and Police board is supposed to confiscate the licenses of saloonkeepers who have screens, window shades or barriers of any sort before the windows of the saloons.

In a letter to the city attorney Mayor Hoctor asked for legal advice on the question. The mayor stated that Commissioner Donahue wanted to know, City Attorney Murphy quoted the section of the Nebraska statutes governing the matter and says the law is so plain that it needs no elucidation.

A large number of saloons have pasted paper or put screens up inside their windows. This prevents outsiders from seeing into the places, which are said to be occupied after hours sometimes.

Rumors of a Break Between Sulzer and His Counsel Denied. ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Rumors that Governor Sulzer and his counsel were at the parting of the ways were denied today by D. Cady Herriek, chief of staff. Herriek broke his silence only after a story had gone broadcast that several of the attorneys would withdraw from the case on Monday.

There is not a word of truth in the stories, he said. He may be having trouble with other attorneys with whom he is reported to have consulted, but not with those who have appeared in court for him. We will be on hand on Monday and insofar as I know every other day until the trial ends.

Herriek also denied that counsel and the governor are at loggerheads over the story Sulzer insists he will tell from the witness stand. It was reported that the governor's plan of throwing down the bars and laying bare his whole political career was distasteful to his attorneys.

That the governor's counsel is none too well pleased with his consulting attorneys other than those appearing at the counsel table is well known, but he has permitted the latter to have their way on all points of great import and so no serious break is expected.

Use O-Cedar Polish

The O-Cedar Polish Way

Wet a Piece of Cloth— in water—cheese cloth is the best.

Wring It Dry— or until it is just slightly more than damp.

Pour on O-Cedar Polish— until the cloth contains as much polish as it does water.

Go Over the Surface— to be cleaned. Varnish absorbs O-Cedar; but not water—the friction removes the dirt and dust—and the surface is cleaned.

Polish with a Dry Cloth— Slight rubbing will quickly produce the desired lustre and finish.

The Beauty of the Grain— is brought out—seeming blemishes disappear and the article looks like new.

A Hard, Dry Lustre— not gummy or sticky. A cambric handkerchief would not be soiled if placed on any article polished the O-Cedar Polish Way.

Be sure you always get O-Cedar Polish
