Word has been received from Chicago that the Rev. Frederic E. Pamp, present pastor of the Edgewater Swedish Mission church of that city, has accepted the call to the pastorship of the Swedish Mission church of Omaha, Twenty-third and Davenport streets. Rev. Mr. Pamp has resigned his present charge and will take up his work in Omaha the first of s varying as follows, in comparison next year.

Rev. Mr. Pamp succeeds the Rev. C. A. Turnquist, who will go to Chicago in December to become pastor of the South Side Mission church. Rev. Mr. Turnquist has been with the Omaha. church for the last eight years, and his loss will be felt greatly. A number of attempts have been made to induce him to remain in Omaha, but to no avail. The new minister is a young man and has been in Omaha several times in the Are Held by Bandits last few years in the interests of the church. He is a graduate of North Park college. Chicago, the convenant seminary,
