

WINTER WHEAT ACREAGE BIG

Fall Plowing and Seeding is Progressing Very Rapidly.

TO EQUAL LAST YEAR'S CROP

Heavy Rains of Last Week Put the Ground in Excellent Condition for Fall Work—Potato Yield is to Be Large.

The crop and soil report of the Burlington for the week ending last Saturday shows that all over the state there was an abundance of rain late week, the precipitation for the period ranging from one-half to three inches, thoroughly soaking the ground and materially improving the pasturage and range.

Fall plowing and seeding is reported to be progressing rapidly, with a prospect that the acreage will be not much less than that of last fall, which, so far as wheat was concerned, was the largest in the history of the state. It is estimated that over the three eastern divisions, last Saturday night, fully 50 per cent of the seeding had been finished, while on the McCook division the percentage was much greater.

So far as the corn is concerned, the report indicates that north of the Platte river the grain is being harvested and is turning out fairly well.

South of the Platte it is light and where it has not been put into silos or saved for rough feed and fodder, it is being run over by the live stock.

In the south part of the state, taking the section as a whole, the potato crop is estimated at one-half of the normal.

Farther north, it is something of the bumper variety, many fields yielding 300 to 350 bushels per acre.

PUBLICITY BUREAU HELPS MANY AK-SAR-BEN VISITORS

Nearly 1,000 out-of-town visitors during Ak-Sar-Ben week were directed to rooms in the residence portion of the city by the publicity bureau conducted by the publicity bureau at 215 Farnam street between 700 and 800 rooms were rented through it. Besides directing parties to rooms the girls in charge had to answer innumerable questions, such as "What time does such and such a train go, what is the fare to Des Moines, how far is it to Hastings, what time can I get away for Norfolk, and, how high is the Woodman of the World building?"

CALL FOR COMMITTEE ISSUED

Chairman Hillis Asks Members of Republican Body to Meet.

REVISE THE CONVENTION RULES

Many Members of Body Insist No Convention Needed and that Changes May Be Made by Committee.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The republican national committee will meet in Washington on December 15 "to confer on party matters and to take any action which may be deemed advisable." A formal call for the meeting will be issued tomorrow. The meeting was decided upon at a conference of Chairman Charles D. Hillis and Secretary J. B. Reynolds.

The decision to call the national committee results from the repeated requests of republican leaders that an opportunity be given to revise the rules of the republican party. The principal changes demanded are in the basis of representation from the southern states at national conventions; and in the method of electing delegates from states that have primary laws covering that subject.

The New York state republican convention, held recently adopted strong resolutions favoring the holding of a republican national convention at an early date to accomplish this revision of party rules.

Senators Renew Request. Senators Jones and Cummins, representing the so-called conciliation committee selected by republicans and progressives at Chicago last spring have been in communication with Chairman Hillis recently and have renewed the request of the party factions that the national committee take up the convention question at once.

It is expected that the national committee when it meets in December will not agree to the calling of a national convention without protest on the part of some of its members, who claim that the committee itself has ample authority to make the necessary changes in rules and regulations.

An increasing number of republican leaders, however, which includes many of those prominently identified with party management in the recent past, insist that whatever changes are made should be authorized by a national convention thoroughly representative of the voters of all the states.

If the national committee decides to call the proposed convention it is expected that it will set a date early in the spring for the gathering, so that the party machinery may be ready for the campaign preliminary to the congressional elections of next fall. It is expected the convention, if called, would be held in Chicago.

GEORGE M'BRIDE STRICKEN SECOND TIME IN A WEEK

For the second time within a week, George McBride, county surveyor, was stricken with paralysis while sitting in his home Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. His condition is very serious this time, according to Dr. Frederick O. Beck, and he is still unable to have free use of his limbs.

Mr. McBride had partaken of a hearty meal at noon Sunday and was feeling in the best of spirits. He was stricken suddenly and did not regain consciousness for some time.

Mr. McBride was stricken a week ago about the same time of day, but his recovery was relatively rapid and he was in the best of health. His recovery this time will not be as rapid.

STARTS ON HIS PASTORATE

Rev. Titus Lowe Preaches First Sermon to First Methodist People.

FEELS INTEREST IN MEMBERS

Assumes that Those of Congregation Are Just Plain Folks and Special Forms of Ministry Not Needed.

Rev. Titus Lowe, pastor of the First Methodist, preached to the congregation of that church for the first time yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Lowe's words were marked by simplicity and assurances of affectionate interest in the affairs of the members of the congregation. "I have formed no particular plan, nor do I believe that your needs require any special form of ministry," he said. "I am assuming that you are just plain folks, some of you good, some better and some worse."

"I have found that all kinds of people are much alike when you get acquainted with them."

The pastor extended an invitation to all persons who particularly needed the attention of a minister to make known their needs immediately, naming especially persons who were in trouble, the sick and the aged. He took his audience into his confidence in discussing his family, saying that he would be able to accomplish much more after his wife arrives, which will be in a few days.

Real Men Are Needed. Rev. Mr. Lowe changed the topic of his sermon from "The Challenge of Christ," which had been announced, to "God's Masterpiece." He dwelt on the theme that the need of the world always has been for real men who possess strength and daring and keen vision.

In a printed announcement of the beginning of the new pastorate Rev. Mr. Lowe greets his new congregation as follows: "By the appointment of Bishop Bristol, and I sincerely trust by the appointment of Almighty God, I take up the work of minister of this church and congregation. I am well aware that I have been preceded in this holy office by eminent and distinguished men, who have wrought with efficient zeal for the welfare of the church and for the cause of vital religion in Omaha."

"If we were entirely dependent upon our own skill or knowledge failure would assuredly face us in the immediate future. But we confidently look for two mighty factors outside of ourself, the inspiration and direction of the Holy Spirit and the hearty and enthusiastic cooperation of all the lovers of our Divine Master in the congregation."

"As I take up this solemn task I have but one ambition—to be your minister in the fullest sense of the word, daily making full proof of my ministry as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. Let your earnest prayer be that this ambition may be abundantly realized."

SEES TWO RESURRECTIONS

Length of Life of Human Beings is Constantly Growing Shorter.

Rev. J. A. Gillespie, at Jacobs hall yesterday afternoon, said the only hope man has to conquer death is to trust the Lord. There will be a great resurrection, he believes, lasting over 1,000 years and in the order of their service to Christ, the Christians will be promoted in the heavenly service of God. He said: "We are not to suppose that all will be resurrected at once. The resurrection day shown in the scripture is a 1,000-year day."

"There will come a second resurrection, including first a great company of good Christian people called in the Bible the great multitude. These were not so faithful to the master as were the members of the little flock. These will not sit on Christ's throne, but will be permitted to serve day and night before the throne. They will not wear crowns of glory, but will be permitted to carry palms of victory." Continuing Rev. Mr. Gillespie said:

"Man once had perfect life, and no such thing as death existed. When man disobeyed, he became amenable to the death penalty and since then death has gradually been gaining in ascendancy. Before the flood the average man lived 700 years before he became the complete victim of death; immediately after the flood the average fell down to 120 years, whereas now the average length of life is a little above thirty years. Even the proverbial threescore and ten years is a thing of the past."

"If something is not done soon, what may we expect for our race in the course of a few centuries? Thank God the Bible points out a relief and assures us it will come before it is too late!"

FARMERS' CONGRESS MAY MEET HERE IN DECEMBER

Parish of the publicity bureau in regard to arranging dates and a program for the meeting of the association here. It is thought that the association will meet some time in December.
