NAPS AGAIN DEFEAT PIRATES

Takes Second of Series from Pittsburgh, Two to One.

GREGG AND ROBINSON ON MOUND

Hans Wagner, Who Failed to Get Hit Day Before, Drives Out Two Singles, While Lajoie Gets But One.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—Cleveland again defeated the Pittsburgh Nationals today, 2 to 1, in an eleven-inning pitchers' battle. Gregg, Cleveland's star left-hander, opposed Robinson, Pittsburgh's best left-hander, and honors were about even. Gregg's first base on balls helped Pittsburgh to their only run and Robinson's base on balls allowed Cleveland to score the deciding tally.

Dolan, Viox and Wagner singled in succession in the first inning, but Doan and Wagner died trying to stretch their hits. In the fourth Dolan walked, took second on Viox's grounder to Johnston, and scored on Wagner's single to center. Miller walked and both runners advanced on Wilson's infield out, but Mitchell fanned. Simon got three singles after that, but he was the only one of the victors to reach first base. Jackson's great running catch of Robinson's fly doubled Simon off first in the tenth. Robinson kept Cleveland's hits scattered, one to an inning. In the sixth Jackson reached first on Viox's fumble, and scored on Lajoie's single, which Carey allowed to get past him. Jackson reached second again in the ninth on his single and Johnston's out, but was left there. In the eleventh Leibold got to first base on balls off Robinson. Chapman sacrificed him to second and he scored a moment later on Jackson's double.

Hans Wagner, who failed to get a hit yesterday, got two singles today, while Lajoie, his rival, got but one. Wagner handled six fielding chances perfectly. Tomorrow's game will be played at Pittsburgh. Score:

GIANTS OVERCOME WHILE VAST CROWD CHEERS FAVORITES

With Baker at the bat the Philadelphia fans cheered to the echo. Baker fouled off the first ball. Collins scored on Baker's infield hit, which Doyle was barely able to knock down with his gloved hand. McInnis sacrificed, Marquard to Merkle. Baker was out at third when Marquard speared Strunk's grounder and threw to Herzog. Barry doubled down the left field line, sending Strunk to third. Strunk and Barry scored on Schang's three-base hit. It looked to many as if Schaffer misjudged the ball. He leaped into the air while running backwards, but the ball went through his fingers clear to the center field fence. Marquard threw out Bender. Three runs, four hits, no error.

New York—Burns doubled along the left field line. Herzog sent a ball toward third, which was foul only by a few inches. Burns was caught out on the line when Bender took Herzog's grounder and tossed to Baker, who threw to Collins, who returned the ball to Baker for the put out. Herzog went to second on the play. Murray was a strike out victim, going out on three straight strikes. Meyers fled out to O'Driscoll. No run, one hit, no error.

Fifth Inning. Philadelphia—Murphy went out, bunting. Marquard to Merkle, Marquard took O'Driscoll's grounder and threw the batter out at first. Marquard became uneasy and gave three balls to Collins before pitching a strike. Collins walked and stole second. Collins and Baker scored on Baker's home run drive into the right field stand. It was a longer drive than Baker made when he made his famous home run two years ago on the Polo grounds and tied the score. Pandemonium broke loose when the ball fell in the deep right field stand and the Athletic players patted Baker on the back. The Athletics threw their hats into the air and cheered. McInnis fled to Fletcher. Two runs, one hit, no error.

New York—Merkle sent a hot liner over second for a single. McCormick batted for Marquard. McCormick singled to center, Merkle being held at second. Schaffer went out, Collins to McInnis, Merkle going to third and McCormick to second. Merkle scored when Barry took Doyle's grounder and threw wild to first. McCormick went to third, McCormick scored on Fletcher's single, which bounded off Bender's leg into right field. Doyle took third on the play. Doyle scored when Baker took Burns' grounder and threw out Fletcher at second. Collins took the throw. Herzog fled out to Collins. Three runs, three hits, one error.

Sixth Inning. Philadelphia—Crandall went into the box for New York. Each side had made eight hits. Strunk fled to Shafer. After having two strikes on Barry, Crandall gave the batter three balls. Barry out on a long fly to Shafer. It was very dark and difficult for the batters to follow the course of the ball. Schang out on a fly to Burns. No run, no hit, no error.

New York—Murray out, Collins to McInnis. Meyers out when Bender took the chief's roller and threw him out at first. Merkle struck at what was apparently a third strike and Schang dropped the ball. The Giants claim that Schang interfered with Merkle. Merkle ran to first and after there was a long argument the batter was declared out on strikes by Umpire Klem. No run, no hit, no error.

Seventh Inning. Philadelphia—Bender fanned. Murphy out, Doyle to Merkle. Crandall's big round-house curve seemed to worry the Athletic batters. O'Driscoll out on a hard liner to Shafer. No run, no hit, no error.

New York—Crandall out, Barry to McInnis. Shafer got his first hit, a liner over second base, for a single. Doyle singled to right, Shafer taking third. It was a hit and run play, beautifully worked. A double play killed the Giant's chances for scoring. Barry took Fletcher's grounder and tossed it to Collins, forcing Doyle. Collins then threw out Fletcher at first. No run, two hits, no error.

Eighth Inning. Philadelphia—Collins beat out a buff, neither Crandall nor Merkle reaching the Fielding practice was brisk and brilliant by the home folks and the visitors, and plays were loudly cheered.

Line Forms Early. It was estimated that 5,000 persons were in line when the gates to the reserved seats were thrown open at 9:45 o'clock. The weather was cloudy and unsettled. Many women were in evidence, some with their husbands; others unaccompanied.

At 10:15 o'clock thousands were pouring past the turnstiles here. Inside the grounds there was a mad rush to secure front row seats. Men and boys ran pell-mell through the aisles and here and there a few women engaged in the scramble for the best places. There were easily 10,000 persons in the lower and unreserved stands at 10:30 o'clock. Perched on settees out near the home plate, a brass band played its liveliest tunes to keep the crowd in good humor.

The diamond and back fields were in first playing condition. The pitchers' and batters' boxes and base paths were covered with canvas to shield them from any sudden down pour, which seemed momentarily to threaten.

The Giants reported early at the club house. All were in playing trim except Snodgrass, whose Charley horse still troubled him.

The National Base Ball Commission had a big allotment of tickets to be delivered and fans thronged the rooms all forenoon. Among them was Governor Tener of Pennsylvania, himself a former base ball player. Mrs. Tener accompanied him. They have a box for the game.

The commission has done nothing as yet about ticket speculators. Reports of scalpers getting tickets have been received, but no evidence concrete enough to warrant an investigation has come to hand.

Creighton's Squad Coming Back with New Vim and Vigor. Coach Harry Miller put the Creighton pigskin artists through the usual grind of hard practice Monday afternoon in preparation for their game at University Place with Nebraska Wesleyan next Friday. With the exception of Coady, Walworth and Hanley, the entire squad was out in their renovated uniforms or makeshifts. These three will join the squad again today.

Justin Young has not donned a suit for the last few days, but is expected to get into the fray soon. "Shorty" Parker, the midge end, whose arm has been troubling him, expects to be in shape by Friday. Coady, whose leg gave him some trouble in Saturday's game, is again in good shape. The first big game of the year will take place October 18 on Creighton field, when the season will be formally opened at home with Marquette university of Milwaukee as an opponent.

Deal for Indianapolis Club Temporarily Off. INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—The sale of the Indianapolis American association base ball club to G. A. Wahlgreen, J. C. McCall and Jack Hendricks of Denver, which was announced Friday, was temporarily declared off today. The purchasers and Sol Kiser of Meyer & Kiser, owners of the Indianapolis club, failed to agree on deferred payments. Mr. Wahlgreen said negotiations would be resumed later with Sol Meyer, president of the club.

Seventh Series. The 1913 fall series between the White Sox and the Cubs for the championship of Chicago will be the seventh meeting between the Windy City rivals. The White Sox have won three classes, including a world's championship, and the Cubs two, one series having ended in a tie.

Uhlen Lowers Mark for Quarter by Going Distance in 27 Seconds—Great Scott Takes 2:15 Class Pace.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 7.—The world's record for 2-year-old trotters was broken today when Peter Volo won the futurity for 2-year-old trotters, making the second mile in 2:04 1/2. The previous record was 2:05 1/2. The fractional time was: 31 1/2, 1:07 1/2, 1:33 and 2:04 1/2.

Uhlen, C. K. G. Billings' champion trotter, lowered the world's mark for a quarter mile by going the distance in 27. Peter Volo won in straight heats. Second money went to Lady Waneta. The Walnut Hill cup was won by Fan Patch, well driven by Snow, after the daughter of Joe Patchen had lost the first two heats to Bright Axworth. The latter was unable to keep up the pace set.

President Tipton presented B. J. Honsel, her owner, with a silver cup. Ron Zoelock won the 2:10 trot after losing the first two heats to Maria Bellini. The time in the fifth heat equals the world's record for a fifth heat.

The 2:15 class pace was won in straight heats by Great Scott, the gelding beating his previous record of 2:07 1/2 to 2:05 1/2.

Real beauty is the result of simplicity. It is created by the elimination of superfluities. Modern fashions are fair examples. Some designers—and their number is all too many—produce styles, the main features of which are gew-gaws and over-elaboration. The real fashion artists depend upon simplicity and refinement of line. Their product is what you see at the world-famous fashion place—and is the only kind that finds lodgment in this store or stores of like character in other cities.
