Schang to Collins. No run, one hit, no error.

Philadelphia—The defensive work of the Athletics in the fifth inning was simply superb. Marquard went into the box for New York. Wilson caught for New York. Baker fanned. Marquard kept the ball on the far corner of the plate and very low for Baker. Marquard threw out McInnis. Marquard just control and Strunk walked on four pitched balls. Barry got a two-base hit. DULL CLOUDS SCREEN THE SUN

Outlook is for Rain When Practice Begins.

SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—Twenty thousand excited Philadelphians and some hundred anxious New Yorkers came out to Shibe Park today to see the New York National League champions engage the Philadelphia Athletics in the fourth game of the world's base ball series. A victory for the Philadelphia club would make it only necessary for it to win another game to capture the base ball honors for 1913, while the Giants would have to reel off three straight to win the series. Still another murky day was furnished for the sport. Dull clouds screened the sun, giving indications of a squally weather, while now and then a vagrant drop of rain fell. The diamond was in fine condition and the players said it was lightning fast, but the outer meadows were sodden and slow. The New York club came on the playing field ready to make a gallant stand. Manager McGraw told "Steamer Al" Demaree to be ready to take up the pitching burden and the former Mobile moundsman replied: "Give me half the lead the Athletics gave Bush yesterday and we will go back to New York winners today."

Some of the Athletic players admitted that Demaree would probably prove a puzzling proposition because of his peculiar delivery. The Athletics were prepared to send either Shawkey or the Indian Bender to the pitchers' box, while New York fans behind the Giants' bench wondered if Connie Mack would uncover another sensational youngster slabanian like Bush to blast the hopes of the National leaguers.

Athletic Fans Confident. Now that two of the New York pitchers have felt defeat at the hands of the Athletics, Philadelphia fans feel more comfortable and were confident that the home team would triumph today. The victory yesterday of Bush, Connie Mack's youthful twirler, over the veteran Tesreau has measurably increased the optimism of the Athletic adherents as to the final result of the series.

Last evening another big throng gathered at Shibe Park to wait in line all night for the bleacher gates to open this morning. It was an even larger crowd than that which waited in the rain for Wednesday's game, due, perhaps, to the improvement in the weather.

Many of the Athletic adherents believed that Shawkey would be the pitching choice of the White Elephants' manager and figured that he would be equally as puzzling to the Giant batters as was Bush yesterday. Bender, however, was anxious to go in and there was a strong possibility that his wish might be gratified.

Athletic Star at Bat. The Athletics have now faced the pitching of Mathewson, Marquard, Crandall and Tesreau, three of whom are the pick of New York's twirling staff, while the Giants have batted against Bender, Plank and Bush. Each of the Philadelphia pitchers finished his game without assistance, but of the New York moundsmen only Mathewson, winner of the tenning victory against Plank, completed a game. Manager Mack has commented on the fact that he has Shawkey and Brown in reserve while Manager McGraw has Demaree, but neither manager has given any intimation who would be used.

"The result of yesterday's game bore out my claim that we had young pitchers who could be compared to any of the Giants' staff," said the Athletic manager. "Of course, a club that is equipped with hitters does not have to depend so much on good pitchers to win. Mathewson threw a wonderful game against us, but I don't think one pitcher can win a world's series."

Grain Men Have Base Ball Fever

Proprietors of a large number of the grain commission houses of the city and their customers have contracted the base ball fever in an acute form. Every house that has a New York wire is now getting reports of the progress of the games each afternoon. As soon as the market closes the New York wire is cut in on the base ball loop and the detailed play is received and called in the Omaha offices.
