

FUND FOR LINCOLN MEMORIAL

Transcontinental Highway to Be Marked by Monument.

SUBSCRIPTIONS ALREADY START

Business Men Meet in Commercial Club to Start Ball Rolling—Enthusiasm at High Pitch.

Thirty-five certificates of $5 each were bought last night as a start in raising funds in Omaha for building the Lincoln Memorial Transcontinental highway.

W. D. Hoefel was chairman of the meeting. He said there had been a "mud tax" or the useless expense occasioned by bad roads.

Vice President Pardington went over a big map with the audience, explaining the reasons for choosing the route in detail. He pointed out now the roads over the mountains were chosen at certain points because there was the least snow to encounter.

Choice of Route. Mr. Pardington said the governor of Ohio had told the association merely to state what it wanted in his state and they should have it.

Besides the thirty-five certificates bought last night to start the fund, a number of pledges were telephoned to Mr. Lawrie in the afternoon by men who said they would be unable to attend the meeting, but wanted to be identified with the starting of the fund here.

Music

A piano recital was given Thursday evening at the Young Women's Christian association by Edna L. Wagner, under the auspices of the Suffrage Association of Omaha, that was a treat of its kind.

The second group was taken from the works of modern composers, Capriccio, by Regner was a charming, brilliant number, and the Schott "Printemps Oublie," which followed, was a lyric of much melody.

The third group was unusual and was made up of several characteristic national numbers. A delightful short dance, founded upon a popular melody of Finland, by Palmgren, came first and found much favor.

The last group gave Mrs. Wagner considerable use for her ample technique. The Chopin Preludes, opus 28, No. 3, and the second movement of Schumann's Fantasie, opus 12, were the numbers Mrs. Wagner plays maturely and with keen musical insight and her work at all times is so clear and finished that it is a pleasure to be present.

Mrs. Wagner was very generous with her scores, giving three: "Tempo di Minuetto," by Beethoven; "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," Cadman, and a most attractive septet, "In the Woods," by Staub.

cession brings forgiveness of sins between man and his Maker, sins between man and man are not forgiven until redress is made for the injury. The eve of Atonement Day, therefore, becomes the occasion for the cessation of feuds and ill will. And the Day of Atonement is known as the Sabbath of Sabbaths.

The service of the Day of Atonement, beginning with Kol Nidre service on the eve of Atonement, is a continuous one throughout the entire day. The prayers in the synagogue are intoned in plaintive penitential tones. The spirit of the masterly sermon of Isaiah (Isaiah viii:1-9), which is the prophetic portion of the morning's reading, is manifested throughout.

Services will be held this evening at 8 o'clock, when Rabbi Frederick Cohn will speak, taking as his topic, "On the Heights." Miss Helen Homers will play a violin solo, the traditional melody of "Kol Nidre," and H. S. Diabrow, baritone, will assist the choir.
