AN ANNOUNCEMENT luncheon was given today by Mrs. R. B. Busch at their attractive home on North Thirty-eighth street, when the engagement was announced of Miss Marguerite Busch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Busch, to Mr. Thomas R. Heyward of Pittsburgh, formerly of Charleston, S. C.

Corsage bouquets of Mrs. Ward roses marked the places for the guests and the announcement was in the form of a souvenir card on which were kodak pictures of the bride and groom to be. Twelve guests were present at the luncheon.

The announcement does not come as a great surprise, as Mr. Heyward has visited in Omaha on numerous occasions.

The wedding will take place in the early winter and the many friends of Miss Busch regret that she will move to another city. Miss Busch is a graduate of Brownell Hall.

REV. C. W. SAVIDGE HAS BEEN HERE THIRTY-ONE YEARS

Thirty-one years ago today Rev. C. W. Savidge came to Omaha, where he has resided since. In a reminiscent mood Mr. Savidge recalled his entrance to Omaha.

"I came in on a freight train and brought my old black mare along" said Mr. Savidge. "I led her up the unpaved streets and put her up for the night in a livery stable which stood where now is located the big store of Hayden Bros."

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty-Seekers

W. C. D. says: "My face is freckled the year round; nothing I try seems to help much. Is there anything that will really take off these horrid spots? Have you tried the treatment recommended to Minnie L.? I've known this to remove very obstinate freckles."

Ellen B. asks: "What should I do for deep lines under my eyes and across my forehead? Such lines, and all wrinkles, are best obliterated by bathing affected portions in a good astringent and tonic lotion, which strengthens and draws in the relaxed tissue. I've a reliable formula: 1 oz. powdered saxolite, 1/2 pt. witch hazel; mix and use daily until entirely relieved."

Minnie L.: "The undue redness as well as the pimples, may easily be removed by using ordinary mercurized wax. Apply nightly like cold cream and erase mornings with warm water. Soon you'll have a beautifully white, clear, soft and velvety complexion. Mercurized wax, sold by all druggists, is better than cosmetics for any complexion trouble. One ounce suffices for most conditions."

Commercial Club Members Will See the Hounds Course

An invitation to attend the annual coursing meet at Wynmore, October 21 to 23, has been accepted by the Omaha Commercial club. The action was taken by the executive committee at the meeting Tuesday afternoon.

At the suggestion of Frank B. Hubbard of Irvington, it was decided that steps should be taken to send to Governor R. L. Metcalfe of the canal zone, a collection of exhibits of Omaha and Nebraska made goods to fit up his "Nebraska room" in his apartments.

The committee ordered that a letter of commendation be prepared for Commissioner C. H. Withnell for the progress he has reported in the abatement of the smoke nuisance in the city. The commissioner reported a long list of manufacturers who have installed smoke abating appliances of one kind and another.

A comprehensive program of entertainment for the winter was approved. A good fellowship dinner is to be given for club members November 4. During the holiday week this year the annual dinner for the sons of members is to be given. This time was chosen in order that the sons who are away to college might be here to participate.

The annual dinner of the club is to be given February 2, which is also the anniversary of the incorporation of the city of Omaha. The club will also join the Woman's club in a reception for the teachers of the state one afternoon during the first week in November.

BURLINGTON MAY OPERATE WESTERN ENGINES WITH OIL

There is talk now of operating all the Burlington engines on lines west of the Missouri with oil instead of coal. The Northwestern line has found this a success, and the Burlington is said to be anxious to get in line, especially since the Burlington has secured control of some valuable oil fields in Wyoming.

AGREATNOVELIST'SGREATWORK

The Woman's Home Companion announces the new story by Margaret Deland—"The Hands of Esau," which begins in the November number. This is the first story that Mrs. Deland has written since "The Iron Woman," which made even a greater impression than "John Ward, Preacher," the most discussed novel of its day. In the opinion of authoritative critics these novels, together with "The Awakening of Helena Richie" and "The Land of the Living," establish Mrs. Deland as the foremost American novelist.

THE PROBLEM OF HEREDITY

Nina Morgan, the beautiful heroine of Margaret Deland's new story, is confronted by the tremendous problem of heredity in the man she loves, when she learns that the traits and tendencies of the father are visited upon the son.

Had you been in her place would you have accepted him? Had you been in his place would you have told Mrs. Deland's great story, "The Hands of Esau," begins in the November Woman's Home Companion.
