McCague-Hollinger Wedding.

A pretty home wedding celebrated Wednesday evening was that of Miss Marie Duncan Hollinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Charles Hollinger McCague, Jr. Rev. W. Asper Howell of the First Baptist church officiated. The ceremony took place in the living room, which was decorated with white chrysanthemums and palms, and ferns. Pink roses were in the dining room. The Lohengrin Bridal Chorus was played on a harp.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white crepe fallie with long pointed train. The bridesmaids were dressed in white tulle and white chiffon embroidered in pearls and the lace also formed a tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and a wreath of the same kind of blossoms held the long tulle veil in place.

Miss Greichen McConnell was maid of honor and wore pink charmeuse draped round length and trimmed with white fox fur, shadow lace and chiffon trimmed with the fur formed the bodice.

The bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Harding and Miss Mary McCague. They were gowned in white lace over white satin with trimmings of pink tulle. At three of the bride's attendants carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink rose buds in lace bills. The bride gave them gold bracelets.

The ribbons were stretched by the Misses Alice Carter, Helen Clarke, Helen Murphy and Mary Sheets. They were each gowned in white.

William Babcock of Rochester, N. Y., who attended Amherst college with the groom, served as best man. Following the ceremony there was a reception for the wedding guests. Mrs. Hollinger was gowned in Copenhagen blue crepe fallie trimmed with shado wice.

Mr. and Mrs. McCague left last evening for an eastern wedding trip, after which they will be at home at 3111 Webster street, where their new home has just been completed.

Assisting at the reception were Misses: Mary McCague, Mary Sheets, Anna McCague, Hazel Howard, Helen Clarke, Carol Howard, Helen Murphy, Katherine Beeson, Josephine Murphy.

Masterson-Lawless Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Lawless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lawless, and Mr. Wilson Masterson took place at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Rev. Father D. P. Harrington of St. Cecilia's church performed the ceremony. The bride wore a simple gown of white satin voile, trimmed in shadow lace and rhinestones and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Catherine Lawless, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and wore gray charmeuse with shadow lace and pink rosebuds and carried pink roses.

Mr. Roy Masterson, brother of the groom, of Cape Girardeau, was the best man.

The house was prettily decorated with pink and white roses and ferns. The marriage lines were read beneath a canopy of greens.

Following the ceremony a dinner was given the bridal party, and in the evening a reception was held for the immediate relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Masterson will be at home at 3115 South Twenty-sixth street after November 1.

China Shower.
