DEMAND SENATORS EITHER RESIGN OR STAY ON THE JOB

Leaders of Both Sides Say Absent Members Should Be Brought Back by Force if Necessary.

RECENT PROCEEDINGS A "FARCE"

Body in Humiliating Position is Assertion of Cummins.

ABSENTEES WIRE TO RETURN

Seventeen Democrats Away to Thirty-One in Washington.

MORE REPUBLICANS ARE GONE

Nineteen in Capital to Twenty-Eight Away from Capital—Sergeants-at-Arms Begin to Scur the City.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Demands that senators either "resign or go to work," that absent members be brought back to Washington by the use of "any force that may be necessary," and that "the miserable pretense" of trying to do business without a quorum be ended, marked today's session of the senate.

Leaders of both sides joined in the demand that the "farce" of recent senate proceedings be ended. Senator La Follette, leading the fight for the enactment of the measure, began the attack on absentees, but it was taken up and vigorously endorsed by Senator Kern, democratic leader, and by Senators Borah, Cummins, republicans, and others.

Senator Cummins said the body had allowed itself to get into a "humiliating position" and Senator Borah added that members should be kept in Washington and compelled to take up important subjects put off.

"I am in favor of the exercise of all the powers at our command in bringing a quorum here," declared Senator Kern, the democratic leader. "It will be very unfortunate for us to surrender to the absentees and give up work. It would be a confession to the world that the senate was unable to carry on the business entrusted to it."

His figures showed thirty-one democrats in Washington and seventeen absent, and nineteen republicans in Washington and twenty-eight absent.

A double roll call brought in only forty-five senators, and sergeants-at-arms began to scour Washington for absentees.

Later all absent senators were telegraphed to return to Washington.

Colonies of Germs Found in Note Sent to Extort Money

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Chemists employed by the postal authorities discovered today colonies of germs in a letter sent to extort money from Mrs. Frederick Steele, a wealthy suburban resident. The letter warned Mrs. Steele that it contained 2,000,000 malignant bacilli, with which she was infected by opening it and demanding a sum of money in return for a supply of the only serum that could cure her.

Indications of the presence of a germ culture were found by the government chemists, who, however, were unable to state the nature of the disease they might convey.

RECEIVER APPOINTED FOR BUSINESS OF W. C. ELLIS

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 21.—Insolvency Judge Warner today appointed Philip C. Fodick receiver for the harness and leather business of William C. Ellis, prominent Cincinnati now under arrest in Chicago after confessing to the murder of his wife in that city.

A creditors' petition set out that Ellis' business is without a head and some one is needed with authority to preserve it for the benefit of creditors and for the two children of Ellis. Fodick is a brother-in-law of Ellis.

DAYTON TAKES SECRETARY OF COMMERCIAL CLUB.

J. M. GUILD—Commissioner of the Commercial Club of Omaha—Des. Central Ass. of Commercial Secretaries.

GUILD ACCEPTS BETTER JOB

Commissioner Signs Three-Year Contract with City of Dayton.

TO RECEIVE $10,000 A YEAR

Gets Four Thousand a Year Increase Over Salary in Omaha—Chosen from Among Many Applicants for Position.

Commissioner J. M. Guild of the Omaha Commercial club has been chosen by the Dayton, O., Commercial club as commissioner there at a salary of $10,000 a year. His resignation was accepted by the executive committee of the Omaha Commercial club at a meeting Tuesday afternoon. He goes to Dayton on a three-year contract. His salary in Omaha was $6,000 a year.

The candidates for the position at Dayton were numerous. Mr. Guild was chosen from among a large number of able men in this line of work. Mr. Guild's prominent connection with the tornado relief work in Omaha is said to have had much to do with the choice Dayton made.

He was made a member of the operating committee of the general tornado relief committee, and in that position was exceptionally active and zealous in the relief work. Members of the operating committee scarcely slept for the first two weeks immediately following the tornado, and Mr. Guild was always in the front rank of the activities. Besides this he kept up his work as commissioner of the club, dodging rapidly between the relief stations and his office at the Commercial club, putting in nights when the days would not suffice.

Sorry to See Guild Go.

"It came to us rather suddenly," said Chairman C. E. Yost of the executive committee of the Omaha Commercial club. "We were all sorry to see Mr. Guild go, but the people of Dayton offered him a very nice salary, which was more than we felt we ought to pay. All of the members expressed regret at his leaving. We have appointed a committee to select a successor in the club here."

Mr. Guild's official title at Dayton will be executive secretary of the Greater Dayton association, which is a body just now being formed there. It will take over all the various activities of the old Commercial club at that place, and will in reality be the big commercial organization of that place. The association grows out of some of the reorganization work which followed the great flood of last March. The association already has some 4,000 members pledged and is expected eventually to have a membership of 10,000.

Mr. Guild is to be in Dayton to assist in the organization of the association. Dayton has asked for him just as soon as he can come. He will likely go within the next thirty days.

Commissioner Seven Years.

It was over seven years ago that Mr. Guild came to the Omaha Commercial club as commissioner. It was July 3, 1906. Prior to that time he was five years secretary of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange. Prior to that time he was for twelve and one-half years in the offices in the various departments of the Burlington freight depot in Omaha. He came to Omaha almost directly from Scotland, having been born in Dundee.

Mitchel Asked to Appear Before Grand Jury in New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The grand jury drafted a letter today requesting John Purpur Mitchell, fusion candidate for mayor, to appear before the body and tell what he knows about the alleged colonization of voters by Tammany leaders. An investigation of the matter was on foot yesterday after Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, had taken cognizance of remarks with reference to colonization attributed to Mr. Mitchell and demanded an inquiry as to their truth or falsity.

POSSES HUNT BANDITS WHO ROBBED MAIL

LITTLETON, Colo., Oct. 21.—Posses headed by Sheriff J. W. McBroom or Arapahoe county and Detectives Cole and Maxwell of the Denver police force, had found no trace early today of the two masked bandits who last night held up Station Agent Ray Foy of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, rifled a mail sack, attempted to dynamite the station safe and escaped. So far as known they secured only $1 from the cash drawer at the station. Postmaster E. H. Albertson stated that the mail sack contained nothing of value. Posses continued the search today.

STATE BOARD TAKES SIDE SLAP AT OMAHA

Normal Board of Teachers in State Attending Convention.

FEELING IS BEING WORKED UP

Executives of Association Astounded at the Action.

LINCOLN MEN RETALIATING

Getting Back for Exposure of the Registration Frauds.

THOSE ON PROGRAM MAY COME

Many Teachers Denounce Ruling of Body and Declare They Intend to Go Even if They Lose Their Pay.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—A silent, rabid war is being waged in the ranks of the Nebraska State Teachers' association.

Members of the state normal board have forbidden the normal teachers to attend the state teachers' convention in Omaha next month.

Executives of the association, astounded at this unprecedented action, will appeal to the governor to rescind the order, and failing there may take it to the courts. It is charged by officials of the State Teachers' association, in strict confidence among themselves, that the normal board, controlled by Lincoln men or residents of cities tributary to Lincoln, is retaliating on Omaha for the exposure of Lincoln's fraudulent registration of teachers last year.

The Lincoln Commercial club registered, at its own expense, a large number of teachers who did not attend the meeting, intending thereby to swing the vote on the meeting place and force the selection of Lincoln.

Explain Their Action.

Members of the board say their action is based on the sentiment among students in the normal schools who object to two vacations in the month of November, the Thanksgiving holidays following on the heels of the state convention.

While teachers will not be given the customary leave of absence, those who are on the program of the several divisions of the association may attend the convention long enough to deliver their speeches.

"Considerable activity prevails" among the teachers, many of whom denounce the state board's ruling and declare they intend to follow precedent if they are compelled to do it without consent of the board and without pay.

Mrs. Eaton Wanted Admiral Sent to the Asylum for Insane

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Oct. 21.—Conditions in the household of Admiral Eaton prior to his death by poison last March, were described by neighbors at the trial of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, the widow, today.

A month before his death, Admiral Eaton was planning to take Mrs. Eaton with him on a trip to Panama according to Samuel W. Baker, a Rockland, Me., physician, Baker testified that in February, last, the admiral told him that, acting under commission from President Grant he had made a survey for a canal route across the isthmus in 1871, and that he looked forward with pleasure to the trip that he and Mrs. Eaton were to take to see the completed work.

Mrs. Eaton asked Baker to assist her in having the admiral committed to an insane asylum. She complained that her husband was dabbling in drugs and that he feared he would cause the death of members of the household.

Frank S. Allger, a Rockland newspaper man, testified about conversations with Admiral and Mrs. Eaton. The admiral said he objected to having June in the household because of a story she had circulated about him. Mrs. Eaton complained of her fears that her husband would poison her.

Allger said that he did not consider Admiral Eaton insane, but thought he showed certain peculiarities of speech and manner, due perhaps to long service in the army.

Frisco Receivers Ask Permission to Borrow Millions

ST. PAUL, Oct. 21.—Receivers for the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad today asked Federal Judge W. H. Sanborn to sign an order authorizing them to issue $20,000,000 in receivers' certificates with which to pay the preferred and Car trust claims. Objections were raised by Frank B. Kellogg, who represents the $20,000,000 bonds of the Texas Southern, but that the money raised by the sale of this issue will be used to pay all first lien claims and preferred claims against the Frisco.

In case the New York bondholders make no formal objection before Monday the hearing will not be held and the orders will be signed by the court.

PRICE OF BREAD TO GO UP

So Declares President Ortman of Nebraska Master Bakers.

EVERYTHING HAS INCREASED

Price of Labor and Materials Out of Which This Food is Prepared Have All Made Advances in Their Cost.

"Proper sanitation and absolute purity demand that the baker increase the price of his products," said C. W. Ortman, president of the Nebraska Master Bakers' association, in his opening address to the fifth annual convention at the Hotel Rome yesterday. "For some time the price of material has increased steadily, yet the product of the baker has remained the same in price. It is the tendency of the American public in general to pay such prices as will insure quality."

"It is undoubtedly true that the demand for the general public is keen for purity that the future competition in the baking industry is to be along the lines of effort to produce better quality and not necessarily the same quantity. The baker who is to succeed in this highly competitive future condition must realize that the bakery business is a science and art, and not just so much work and material."

Are for Sanitation.

"Much is said at every convention about sanitation, but the desired results have not been accomplished, simply because of the lack of concerted action on the part of the bakers themselves. Much has been made and said of our state and city inspection of bakeries by the public and by the bakers themselves. Our state inspection is absolutely inadequate and city inspection by the health department is a standing joke. Not only are the present systems of inspection unsatisfactory to the knowing public, but also to the bakers themselves. A system of inspection is desired which will be fair to all classes of bakers and will result in delivering to the public goods of quality."

He advocated a set of rules to be followed in the inspection, and declared, "Such rules must necessarily be made, not by politicians, but by practical bakers, who realize that the establishment of confidence is essential to the enlargement and growth of the baking industry."

Some Fifty at Convention.

Some fifty bakers had arrived before noon for the fifth annual convention, which is to hold three days. E. V. Parrell of the Publicity Bureau of Omaha, gave the address of welcome, and the response was made on behalf of the bakers by Senator George W. Wells of Fremont. The president's address and the appointment of committees completed the work of the forenoon.

Yesterday afternoon a dough demonstration and a demonstration in preparing and baking bread is in progress at the Burns Baking company plant. The demonstration is conducted by Prof. Harry Snyder of Minneapolis.

A theater party of the bakers attended the Orpheum last evening. Many of the bakers brought their wives with them.

Blackmail Charge Grows Out of Story About Atlanta Murder

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 21.—Detectives in Atlanta and Birmingham today were working to uncover what they claim will prove to be an attempt at blackmail in connection with the Phagan murder case. Other arrests may follow the detention of Mrs. W. Fisher, who is held on a charge of criminal libel.

Fisher's statement that he could prove another man and not Leo M. Frank killed Mary Phagan, the factory girl murdered here last April, revived interest in the unusual case. Attorneys for Frank, who has been convicted and sentenced to hang, had Fisher brought to Atlanta from Birmingham. After hearing his story, in which he accused a well known Atlanta furniture dealer of the crime, the attorneys turned Fisher over to local detectives.

Fisher was closely questioned by Chief of Detectives Lanford and was confronted by the man he accused of the crime. Throughout the ordeal Fisher refused to alter his story.

According to police records Fisher has been arrested four times in Atlanta, charged with wife beating. He is 35 years old. After his last arrest Mrs. Fisher filed suit for divorce. This case is pending.

KEARNEY REBELS AT ACTION

Citizens and Students Roused at Thomas' Dismissal.

MASS MEETING AT THE SCHOOL.

Strong Feeling in Kearney Among Business Men at Blow at Man Who Has Headed School Since Its Organization.

KEARNEY, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—A rebellious spirit is apparent in this city today and especially among the students of the State Normal school over the action taken by the State Board of Education at its Lincoln meeting Monday night in dismissing Superintendent Thomas of the normal school.

A mass meeting of the student body of the institution was held in the chapel rooms after the regular chapel period and resolutions drawn and adopted to be sent to the state board. It was feared for a time that the spirit of rebellion would prevail at the school and a strike of the students was averted only upon the advice of the president, who stated that the interests of the school overshadowed any personal feelings. This logic was accepted by the student body after a great deal of discussion from the many students assembled and the resolutions were adopted.

A strong feeling exists in this city against the action of the state board and the matter will be taken up by the Kearney Commercial club and business men body of the normal school are completely broken up over the matter, they knowing as no other person can know the value of President Thomas' work in behalf of the institution.

Complaints of the proposed increases had been made by business interests of Kansas City, Omaha, St. Joseph and Sioux City, and they were suspended pending investigation.

Freight rates on vegetables in mixed carloads and potatoes in hampers, exacted by the Florida East Coast railway from Florida points to Chicago, Ill., today were held by the Interstate Commerce commission to be unreasonable and excessive. The rates must be readjusted within ninety days.

Garrison Released by Court on Parole

HUDSON, N. Y., Oct. 21.—James G. Garrison, friend of ex-Governor Sulzer, who has been confined in the Albany county penitentiary since September 18 for alleged contempt of the assembly, will enjoy his freedom until Friday. Supreme Court Justice Cochrane today after a short argument on a writ of habeas corpus issued in Garrison's behalf adjourned the case until that time and ordered the prisoner in the custody of his counsel. Garrison refused to answer questions concerning statements attributed to him that certain assemblymen were bribed to vote for the impeachment of former Governor Sulzer.

Sir Edward Grey Says It Is His Policy to Aid President Wilson and at Same Time Protect British Interests.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—In connection with the 50 per cent increase of the customs duties on imports into Mexico General Huerta, seeking to obtain ready money, has offered to allow importers a 10 per cent discount on certificates good in payment of such duties if they are issued between October 25 and November 6.

Without waiting for the German government to ask about its forty-three subjects said to be forcibly detained in Torreon by the constitutionalist general, Villa, the United States, through Charge O'Shaughnessy in Mexico City, has made representations to the Huerta government supplementing those made by Senator William's representative, who demanded protection for prisoners.

Consular Agent Carrothers at Torreon was likewise instructed to treat with Villa in behalf of the German, British, French and Spanish subjects detained after a caravan of some 300 Americans departed overland for Monterey. It is reported that General Villa has been holding these foreigners in the city to prevent federal attack. Officials here said today probably that not more than half a dozen Americans remain in the beleaguered city.

Great Britain Will Wait.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—In his discussion of Mexican affairs with the American ambassador, Walter H. Page, yesterday Sir Edward Grey declined to bind the British government to any policy after the elections in Mexico. In this respect therefore the policy of the British government differs from that of the United States.

The British attitude, according to Sir Edward Grey, is that matters should be left alone until after the elections and that future action should be based on their result.

The conversation between the two statesmen otherwise brought out the fact that the views of the British and United States largely coincided and that both were desirous of measures which would assure peace in Mexico.

Ambassador Page explained to the British foreign secretary at some length the policy of the United States, and Sir Edward Grey in reply pointed out that nothing thus far had occurred to change the British view that recognition of the provisional government in Mexico was the correct policy.

He pointed out that the British government naturally desired to support President Wilson in any action he might take looking to peace, at the same time giving consideration to the immense British interests in Mexico.

The action of Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, was not brought into question by the American ambassador, but Sir Edward Grey explained that he was simply carrying out the British policy of noninterference pending the elections.

Shopping Begins At Home

Shopping begins at home.

It is within the family circle that most of the things that go into the home to furnish it and make and keep it attractive are decided upon. So also is much of the wearing apparel discussed and selected.

That is why the retailer, with unerring judgment tells his store news daily in The Bee, knowing well that it will be read and discussed in practically all of the homes in this city.

Profiting by the retailers' first handed practical experience in the actual trade-getting benefits of good newspaper advertising, manufacturers of well known lines of merchandise are also using the same method of advertising their product and telling where it may be purchased.

It means something to an advertiser to have the story of his goods go straight home where it will do the most good.

Manufacturers interested in newspaper advertising for nationally distributed goods are invited to write to the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Association, World Building, New York.
