TUESDAY—Mrs. Glenn Wharton, luncheon for Mrs. Jacobs; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, dinner for Mrs. Jacobs; Mrs. Harold Sobokter and Miss Trimble, afternoon bridge for Miss Margaret Busch; Crestlight Medical dance at Chambers; wedding of Miss Josephine O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, to James Hugh Hanley at St. Cecilia's church; Prairie Park Needlecraft club at club house; Mrs. Stewart of Council Bluffs, Oregon party.
WEDNESDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Denise Barkalow, dinner for Mrs. Jacobs and Miss Stearns; Mrs. George W. Laninger, informal luncheon at home; Mrs. Douglas, Welton, matinee luncheon.
THURSDAY—Mr. and Mrs. P. Nash to entertain dancing club.
FRIDAY—Dinner dance at Omaha club; Dr. Larra, Crummer and Mr. Ben Warren, dinner for Mrs. Lillian Jacobs at Omaha club; Brownell Hall alumnae tea from 4 until 6 o'clock; La Salle club, Halloween dance at Chambers.
SATURDAY—Omaha Junior club dance at Country club; wedding of Miss Marjorie Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Benson, to Sumner Brees; University of Omaha sophomore Halloween party.
The Country club will close November 1, when the Omaha Junior club will give a dancing party there for the members of the younger social set. It was formerly planned to keep open until January 1, but there is scarcely enough patronage so it was decided to close earlier. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton and Miss Mae Louise Hamilton entertained delightfully at a tango dinner at the club in honor of Miss Hamilton's guest, Mrs. Lillian Jacobs of Littleton, Colo. About fifty guests were present.

November Weddings.

There will be several large weddings in November which will be among the more prominent social affairs of the autumn.
Mr. and Mrs. Truman Ellsworth Stevens have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Ellsworth Stevens, to Mr. Ben Brown Wood. The ceremony will be Saturday evening, November 8, at 8:30 o'clock at Trinity cathedral, followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, 28 South Thirty-fourth street, from 9 to 11 o'clock. After a wedding trip they will reside at 264 Davenport street.
Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lyman Ringwalt have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mary Louise Carlson, to Mr. Thomas Jay Hayes, Jr., lieutenant of the Fourth United States Infantry, on the evening of Wednesday, November 12, at their home, 68 North Thirty-eighth avenue. The wedding will be small, followed by a reception from 9 until 11 o'clock. Miss Dorothy Ringwalt will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Ethel Waddell of Kansas City and Miss Leota Holdrege.
A wedding of the latter part of November that of Miss Margarette Busch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Busch, to Mr. Thomas E. Heywood, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will take place Saturday evening, November 30, at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Busch on North Thirty-eighth street. Miss George Trimble will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Helen Spencer and Miss Marjorie Howard.

Announced in London.

A far-away engagement of more than usual interest to many Omaha people is made public today in the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. David Wolff, 108 Sunderland avenue, Malda Vale, W. London, England, of the betrothal of their daughter, Ruth Davida, to Rabbi Max J. Merritt of Evansville, Ind., formerly of Omaha. There is a whisper of romance back of the forthcoming marriage due to first meeting and acquaintance during the recent vacation tour of the Holy Land by Rabbi Merritt, whose lucid letters of travel and observation there appeared in The Bee. Miss Wolff is said to be the only daughter of a substantial London coffee merchant and importer, while Rabbi Merritt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Merritt, and several of his brothers are well known old-time residents of Omaha, and he himself, educated in our public schools.

With the Visitors.

Mrs. Carlton Ranney and small son, Robert, are visiting Mrs. Ranney's grandmother, Madam Dietz, at Mrs. Ranney's sister, Miss Evelyn Stokney, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. Gould Dietz, and Mrs. Dietz. Both young women have visited here before and have a large circle of friends in Omaha.
Miss Lydia Cook of Portland, Me., arrived Sunday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Carter and Miss Alice Carter. Mr. B. F. Smith is expected about November 19 to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Baldrige.
Miss Mary Stearns of Denver is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Denise Barkalow. Miss Stearns' engagement to Mr. Robert Barkalow of Denver has been announced.
Mrs. Hoxie Clark is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ella Squires.
Mrs. Albert Carroll of Pasadena, Cal., with her small daughter, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Victor Caldwell.
Lieutenant Roger H. Williams has returned from a three years' stay in the Philippine islands and a two months tour of China and Japan. After spending three weeks visiting the mother, Mrs. E. Williams, Lieutenant Williams will leave for the Mexican border.
Many affairs have been given for Miss Caroline Johnson of St. Joseph, Mo., who is visiting at Hillsdale, the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tates. Mrs. F. N. Conner entertained at luncheon at the Omaha club Tuesday, when she was the honor guest. Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze gave a dinner Tuesday evening in her honor at their home. Mrs. George Voss gave an informal afternoon tea Thursday for Mrs. Johnson, and Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kennedy entertained at dinner at their home in Fairview for Miss Johnson.

Creighton Senior Prom.

The Creighton college seniors are making elaborate preparations for their formal dance to be given at Chambers' dancing academy November 8. Invitations have been sent out and a good attendance is assured. Because of the crowded condition at former dances, the number of couples will be limited this year.
Fancy programs of an original design, which will form attractive favors, have been ordered, and the members of the class declares they will surpass the programs of any former dance. This feature has always been one on which the seniors of past years prided themselves, and this year's class is endeavoring to distribute even more tasteful souvenirs. There will be a large list of patronesses.

November Musicals.

One of the large affairs of the season will be the musicale given by Mrs. J. M. Metcalf at her home Tuesday, November 11, when Miss Munchhoff and Miss Ella Robinson will give the entire program. Mrs. Metcalf's home is well adapted for such an entertainment and invitations will include 120 of her friends.

Return from Europe.

Mr. Harry McCormick left Thursday for the east to meet his sister, Mrs. Arthur Remington, who, with Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, Jr., sailed from Genoa Thursday on the Princess Irene for New York. Mr. McCormick will stop in Chicago on his way east.
Mr. E. M. Fairfield left Wednesday for the east to meet Mrs. Fairfield and daughter, who are due to land Monday.

Halloween Party.

The David A. Bustin club of the Young Women's Christian association entertained the new employees of Orkin Bros. at a Halloween party Wednesday evening in the gymnasium at the Young Women's Christian association. The decorations were suggestive of Halloween. Those present were:
