DANCE HALL IMMORAL PLACE

Des Moines Man Convicted on Testimony of Reporters.

CHIEF SAYS EVIDENCE SLIGHT

Jurors of Two States Witness Eighteen Major Operations in Methodist Hospital at Des Moines.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—

Max Kromer, who conducts a public dance hall, was today found guilty in police court of conducting an immoral place. He will appeal to district court and fight the case. The chief of police had practically taken the side of Kromer, but declared he was pleased and if the police court would make other convictions on such slight evidence he would have no trouble cleaning up the city. The proof the dance hall was conducted in violation of city ordinances was secured from newspaper reporters wholly.

SURGICAL OPERATIONS.

An unusual procedure was witnessed at Methodist hospital today when fifty surgeons, members of the Iowa Clinical Surgical society and representing many of the large cities of Iowa, as well as Omaha, witnessed sixteen major surgical operations of great importance. The entire society was present, and it is intended to have other similar meetings at leading state hospitals.

Four Police Women Detailed to Guard Mrs. Pankhurst

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragist, arrived here today. She will speak at a theater tomorrow and remain in Chicago several days for a rest. Mrs. Pankhurst was greeted at the station by Mrs. Grace Wilbur Troup, president of the Illinois Political Equality league, and by delegates from that and other suffragist organizations. The arrival of the English leader had the effect of pacifying misunderstandings that threatened to break out among the women's associations over the sale of seats for the Pankhurst lecture. Mrs. Pankhurst declared that the profits of her lectures were to be turned over to the English suffrage cause, and were to provide funds for next year's campaign, which, she said, "will be a terrible one." She said that she could see no occasion for militancy in America.

Four of the newly created squad of police women were detailed to attend on Mrs. Pankhurst, this being the first special assignment of the police women. They were instructed to protect her from molestation or annoyance.

New Trials Refused Drivers Who Killed Men With Their Cars

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Judicial decision, said to be of great importance as a precedent, was made here today by Judge Fenimore Cooper when he declined to grant a new trial to two men convicted of murders committed in the use of automobiles. There have been convictions for manslaughter in similar circumstances, and this is the first instance in Illinois of conviction and sentence for murder.

The defendants, Frank Hrodek, and Laurence Lindbloom, were convicted in Judge Cooper's branch of the criminal court of Cook county, respectively, of killing Patrick J. Condon, a retired merchant, and Joseph Weiss, a cigar manufacturer.

DELEGATES TO CONSERVATION CONGRESS ARE APPOINTED

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—President Harrison of the Nebraska State Lumber Dealers' association has, by authority of the association, appointed the following delegates and alternates to the fifth Conservation congress to be held at Washington, D. C., November 18-20: Delegates, George L. Turner, Broken Bow; W. B. Banning, Union; S. M. Philippott, Humboldt; F. A. Good, Cowles; S. D. Ayres, Central City. Alternates, Hans Peterson, Dannebrog; W. H. Buck, Gibbon; Fred Duerfeldt, Gordon; John McLellan, Alda; Lars Larsen, St. Paul.

FRESNO DAN ONE OF HEIRS

Master Pevey Files His Report in the Russell Will Case

SHARE FOR CALIFORNIA MAN

Dakota Claimant Is Held Not to Be an Heir of the Late Daniel Russell of Massachusetts.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 1.—

Fresno Dan, the California seeker for a share in the $500,000 estate of the late Daniel Russell of Fresno, is declared the rightful claimant in the report filed in the supreme court by Gilbert A. Pevey, master in the case, who listened for eleven months to the testimony. "Fresno Dan," says the master, is undoubtedly Dan Blake Russell, long lost son of Daniel Russell. "Dakota Dan," the rival claimant, from Dickinson, N. D., is declared to be James Delbert Russell. He has neither the mental, moral, physical nor intellectual characteristics of the Russell family, says Mr. Pevey.

The master calls the court's attention to the testimony given by two witnesses for the Dakota claimant, which, he said, was grossly false.

The report of the master settles the case so far as the facts are concerned and any appeal must be based on questions of law.

The Russell will case has been before the Massachusetts courts for four years and has occasioned two unusually long hearings, first in the probate court, from the adverse decision of which the North Dakota claimant appealed, and second, before Master Pevey.

It was in the midst of the probate hearing that the claimant, now declared to be the rightful heir jointly with William C. Russell, another son of the merchant, was discovered at Fresno, Cal. He was acknowledged by the Russell family. Counsel for the Dakota claimant filed with the court seventy-five objections to the master's findings and asked that Mr. Russell be required to report in full the evidence pertaining to the various objections.

The principal objections relate to the finding of the master that the Dakota man is not the son of Daniel Russell, that William C. Russell is not mentally deficient and the intimation that two of Dakota Dan's witnesses committed perjury.

HUERTA SUPPORT IS CALLED ARTIFICIAL AND NONEXISTENT

announcement by the president of the newly planned policy of the United States in regard to Mexico.

There was discussion today in official circles over the possibility that the president might send a message or make an address to congress giving a detailed report of what has occurred since he last informed congress on the Mexican situation. There was no indication at the White House that such was the plan. Inasmuch as it has been said at the White House that no communication was intended to be addressed directly to the powers and since negotiations with the Huerta government formally have been broken off, one inference drawn in official circles was that the president might address himself to congress again, foreign governments being advised of his views simultaneously as that of the program.

Federale Hold Chihuahua. EL PASO, Nov. 1.—Chihuahua City is still in the hands of the federals, although a momentary attack by the rebel troops of Pancho Villa is expected. This is the declaration of the Mexican federal officials in Juarez today, who claim to be in constant communication with the capital city.

These officials deny knowledge of the report that General Marcero, commanding the federal troops in Chihuahua, has asked President Huerta for permission to evacuate the city. They say he is still in the capital and that all his troops and commanders are loyal.

Two Boys Killed and Girl Badly Hurt

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Two boys are dead and another boy and a girl are suffering from painful injuries as the result of a Halloween prank played here last night. While trying to pull down an arc light, Morgan Campbell, the 15-year-old son of J. F. Campbell, a broker, came in contact with a charged wire and was instantly electrocuted. Tomaso Laquinto died in a hospital from injuries sustained when he was knocked down by a fire department wagon which was answering a false alarm some joker had turned in. Twelve-year-old Besse Gerber received medical attention after she suffered a bad cut on the face when she fell while running from a gang of masked celebrants.

Man Kind to Iceman Demands His Pay

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Because Samuel Ramsey, a government clerk, was kind to the iceman during the civil war, his estate is now seeking to have the North Dakota claimant pay the iceman's estate to pay some $3,000.

The iceman was Joseph W. Parish, who furnished ice to the army in 1863. In the nineties, while still pressing his claim for payment, Ramsey helped Parish make computations and loaned him money. It is contended Parish promised to pay Ramsey 5 per cent of whatever he should collect.

Parish's estate recently received $51,000 from congress for the old ice bill, and now Ramsey's estate is insisting on its 5 per cent.

Original Deed for Manhattan is Sold

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—It is a well known item of history that Manhattan island was originally purchased for about $24. The deed of this sale, given by the Indians, sold last night at auction here at about seventy times the original cost of the island. The deed was bought by George D. Smith for $1,700, the highest price bid at the sale of many valuable historical documents.

PAPERS IN FRENCH DIVORCE SUIT FILED

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 1.—Papers in divorce proceedings instituted by Mrs. Pauline Leroy French against Amos Turk French, are on file here. It was stated by the clerk of courts today. They were filed three weeks ago. No return of service has been made.

Under the law, divorce proceedings need not be made public until the case is placed on the docket for trial, and the customary secrecy accompanied the filing of Mrs. French's papers, and has been maintained until now.

MORE IMPROVED LAND SHOWN

State Assessment Roll Reveals Agricultural Efforts.

HORSES SHOW A DECREASE

Cattle, Sheep and Hogs Are Also Less in Number Than Formerly—Showing in Personal Property.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 1.—(Special.)—According to figures in the office of Secretary Henry Burroughs of the State Board of Assessment, there are 124,830 more acres of improved lands in Nebraska, as shown by the 1913 assessment, than there was at the last assessment. It is also shown that there are 1,441,093 more acres of improved lands in the state. Improvements on the above lands show a total of increase of $784,644 in the same period.

Horses show a decrease in number of 3,675, but mules have increased so that there are 5,100 more of the long-eared Missourians than there were in 1912. Cattle, sheep and hogs have also taken a fall.

Notes secured by mortgage have fallen off in the amount of over $2,000,000, but other notes have increased $2,882. There is less money loaned out this year than there was last and also less on deposit, but there is $28,543 more paid to building and loan associations.

People are becoming less musical than they were a year ago, as there are 2,772 less pianos and 3,844 less organs in the state, though the pianos are valued at $2.90 more than last year and thirty cents more than they were last year. The increased cost may have cut down the number. However, the secret of the falling off in music is shown when the record discloses that the people have 6,686 worth more of diamonds and that the number of automobiles have increased from 15,073 to 23,543, and that automobiles are worth less this year than they were last by $4.48.

There is one consolation in the whole business and that is that the 107,870 dogs in the state average just five cents more in value each than they did last year.

Notwithstanding, it is generally understood that Nebraska, which cut down the yield on crops in some localities, still the state raised 3,293,961 more bushels of wheat, 1,076,669 more bushels of corn, 138,250 more bushels of rye, 1,978,966 more bushels of oats, 68,521 more bushels of barley and 22,965 more bushels of potatoes than was raised the year before. On the average given, which are one-fifth actual values, it means that the value of these half dozen items alone is over two and one-half millions of dollars more than they were the year previous.

ESTATE OF WEALTHY HASTINGS RECLUSE GOES TO OMAHA MAN

Story of a Waif. More interesting even than the foregoing articles was a book entitled, "A Story of a Waif," said to have been given to Culavin by O'Connor and bearing the inscription on the flyleaf, "Where is the waif now?" Mr. Tunnell asserts that the story related in the book concerns so closely the life of Mr. O'Connor that he is inclined to believe it was written about him. In the printed narrative the waif disappears in his middle age, or about the time of life that Mr. O'Connor came to Hastings.

At one of his meetings O'Connor is said to have disclosed his true identity to Mr. Culavin, declaring that his real name was John Brady; that he was a native of Ireland and had come to this country with his family when quite young. He soon became a waif and drifted to the northwest, where he found a home with a family whose name he adopted. His foster father abandoned him, and at the age of 15 he again wandered into the world, going to various places in the west and northwest.

Spreads story of Death. At some town, the name of which has not been disclosed, O'Connor married, and some years later committed a crime and became a fugitive from justice, adopting the name of John O'Connor. In 1887 O'Connor paid Culavin to go back to the town where the crime had been committed and tell the authorities that the fugitive had died. In order to successfully carry out his mission Culavin had imitated newspaper clippings printed, reporting the man's death in a railroad accident. Culavin carried out the mission successfully, his story of O'Connor's death being accepted by the authorities and by his wife and children. While in the town Culavin found the Episcopal church where O'Connor had married and saw the record of the wedding, which information he sought to add him in finding O'Connor's wife.

Culavin and Tunnell recently visited the town where O'Connor is said to have married, and from information gained there located two sons of O'Connor, John H. born in 1868, and Rudolph, born in 1871. Two daughters, Clara and Elvira, born in 1862 and 1867, respectively, died in infancy. The marriage bears date of 1865.

The next information bearing on the Culavin claim to the estate was gained from the latter's sister in Iowa, who had a letter purporting to have been written to her by O'Connor on August 1 last, telling her that he was in poor health and was preparing a will leaving all his property to her brother, John Culavin, with directions that he provide for her and her children. He also asked for her brother's address, saying that he wished to write to him.

Culavin visited Hastings on October 14, and when he inquired at the postoffice if there was any mail for him, was given another letter which had been addressed to him at the Merchants hotel in Omaha and returned to Hastings. This letter purported to have been written by John O'Connor on August 1, the same date as that of the letter to Culavin's sister. It advised him that several letters sent to him at Omaha had been returned unclaimed and gave the further information that he had been made the sole beneficiary of the will.

Will Comes by Registered Mail.

The story concludes with the receipt of the will by registered mail at the county court here on October 22. It had been sent by registered mail from Grand Island, the registry being in the name of Smith, which is believed to be fictitious. This will has been opened by Judge Hutton, and while it has not been exhibited for public inspection it is said to convey the entire O'Connor estate to Culavin. Persons who have seen the signature and are familiar with O'Connor's handwriting declare it is genuine. It was executed in Hastings under date of August 1, 1913, and was properly witnessed.

Culavin declares that he and his sister saw much of O'Connor many years ago, and the latter visited them frequently up to 1892. Mr. Tunnell has power of attorney from the two sons and is representing them as well as Mr. Culavin.

Application has been made to have the will probated and hearing has been set for late this month.

The letters of August 1 to Culavin and his sister, with the postmarked envelopes, are among the documentary proof which will be presented in support of the will.

Mr. Culavin lives at 1368 Dodge street. It was stated there this morning that he had been out of the city for several days.

SOUTHEASTERN NEBRASKA DENTISTS IN CONVENTION

FAIRBURY, Neb., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—The Southeastern Nebraska Dental association held its third annual meeting in the Fairbury Commercial club rooms the last of the week. This district embraces Jefferson, Thayer, Gage, Johnson, Pawnee, Nemaha and Richardson counties. The address of welcome was made by Charles H. Denney, a Fairbury attorney. The first day's program consisted of talks by Dr. Clyde and Dr. H. A. Shannon of Lincoln, and W. E. Ragan of Hebron.

In the evening a banquet was held and Dr. Harold of this city was toastmaster. Toasts were responded to by Dr. Clyde Davis of Lincoln, Dr. H. A. Shannon of Lincoln, Dr. L. R. Fritz of Wymore, Dr. L. L. Ellis of South Auburn. The second day's papers were read by Dr. C. W. Graff of Tecumseh, Dr. C. E. Leach of Fairbury, Dr. L. R. Fritz of Wymore, Dr. C. A. Spellman of Beatrice, Dr. Clause Ellis of Diller and Dr. E. W. Fellers of Beatrice.

A unique feature of the association was the placing of two dental chairs in the Commercial club rooms and giving exhibitions of work.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. O. L. Beeson of Beatrice, president; Dr. C. W. Graff of Tecumseh, vice president; Dr. B. L. Spellman of Beatrice, secretary and treasurer; Dr. W. E. Ragan, member of the executive council of the state society.

The next meeting will be held in Beatrice in October, 1914.

ARTHUR STROMBURG DRAWS SECOND CLAIM

STROMBURG, Neb., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—Arthur Stromburg of this place drew No. 2 at the recent land lottery at North Platte. Mr. Stromburg was born and reared in Polk county and is at present farming his father's farm a few miles out of the city. He says that when he went out he had no thought of registering, but was coaxed to go along with the crowd. However, it proved he was the lucky one. He is 25 years of age and expects to go up there and become a homesteader. He is a young man of pleasing address and will make a success of his undertaking.

Young Man Robs Till.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—After the Rock Island agent at Thompson, six miles northwest of here, had given Ray Worden permission to sleep in the waiting room of the depot, the lad pried open the ticket office window and relieved the cash drawer of $7 in currency. Special Agent Ben Jenkins of the Rock Island located Worden at Endicott. He was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail. He is 19 years of age and claims his home is in Ovid, Mich., and was on his way to Littleton, Colo., to visit relatives.

Laus-Coltrains.

FRANKLIN, Neb., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—Miss Mary Coltrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coltrin of this city, was married Thursday morning by County Judge Thomas Robertson at Bloomington, to Will Laus. They will live on the farm of the groom north of Macon.

STRIKERS GREET SOLDIERS

Fifteen Hundred Men, Women and Children Meet General Chase.

MINE WORKERS ARE FOR PEACE

Conference is Held and Plans Are Discussed for Colorado Miners Turning Over Their Arms to the Authorities.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Nov. 1.—Fifteen hundred men, women and children of the Ludlow tent colony, singing "Marching Through Georgia," marched one mile south of the tents today to meet Adjutant General John Chase in command of two troops of cavalry and a platoon of artillery as they approached.

"You come to us in peace and we greet you as friends," was the greeting extended to General Chase by John R. Lawson of the United Mine Workers, who marched at the head of the procession. Many of the men-carried picks and the women and children carried American flags. The formalities concluded, the entire company turned about and moved in the direction of Ludlow station to await the arrival of the infantry from Trinidad and Walsenburg.

The infantry from Trinidad detrained at 11:30 o'clock and received a demonstration similar to that accorded General Chase. The soldiers marched between solid lines of strikers on either side of the road to the tent colony, where General Chase at once entered into a conference with John Lawson regarding the manner in which the arms are to be collected. Eleven rifles have been turned over to the troops at noon.

EXPRESS RATE ON STOCKS IS ON MARKET VALUE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—In transportation of stocks, bonds and other securities, the Interstate Commerce commission today held a carrier is responsible in case of loss for the market value of the securities only and not the par value. The decision was in the case of Acme Portland Cement company against the American Express company, in which the express company charged $27.50 for transporting securities from New York to Seattle and based its rate on par value. The commission held that the charge, based on market value, should have been $18.25 and ordered reparation amounting to $2,014.25.

JUDGE WITTEN ARRIVES AT PIERRE FROM NEBRASKA

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge J. W. Witten of the general land department arrived here this afternoon to look after the sale of lands on the Lower Brule reservation not yet filed upon. He came here direct from the drawing for Nebraska lands.

Newspaper Advertisement Points Way to Health

I can truthfully say that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a very good medicine, not alone for kidney trouble, but also for weak and sore back, as well as for rheumatism. About a year ago I became ill and unable to work, my trouble being a lame back. I read of your Swamp-Root in the newspaper and in an Almanac. Believing it would do me good, I went to my druggist, Mr. Skinner, and purchased a bottle. Finding relief in one fifty-cent bottle, I purchased several more and in a short time was able to continue with my work and am today feeling well and strong. I always recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to my friends as I believe it is as good a medicine as can be found.

AUGUST STRONG, 844 Washington Ave., No. Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. Skinner makes affidavit that he sold the Swamp-Root to Mr. Strong.
