SILVERY HAIR AND HAIR DYES

What Happens When a Peddler Runs Against an Observant Mind.

"There's no use for gray hair." explained the agent. "Gray hair makes a woman look old, no matter how beautiful her complexion or how sprightly her walk, Now that Prof. Schneldenkercher has perfected his harmless hair dye, which is made of artichokes, builthisties and various leaves, barks and roots, the woman who looks like a relic of prehistoric times has only herself to blame. Your gray hair, madam, makes you look like your own grandmother, but two bottles of the professor's compound--'

"I don't want to hear another word about the professor's compound." exclaimed Mrs. Curfew, "and as to my being my own grandmother, it's just like the impertinence a woman must put up with until the supreme court passes a law defining the powers and privileges of blatherskites who go over the country pestering unfortunate women. "It was only yesterday that Mrs. Cam-perdown, who is ten years younger than I am, said that if she had such a head of hair as I have she'd consider herself a happy and fortunate woman. Wherever go people ask about my hair and say they wish they had the mate to it. and yet you come to my door and tell me that said hair makes me look like my own grandmother, and it's fortunate for you that the mop is not at hand at this writing or I'd rebuke you with it. "I have always held that people should more he uses such things the more disreputable he looks. "The top of his head is bald and this worries him ridiculously. I don't think a bald spot hurts any man's head if he keeps it properly laundered. If you look at the pictures of Elisha and Jeremiah and the other prophets you will see that most of them were bald, and if the prophets were satisfied to struggle along without hair restorers the men of this generation ought to be.

"But Mr. Curfew is forever rubbing
