There's Big Money
In Stock Ralsing
On the 'Nelson Morris Ranch.'
For years this has been the most noted ranch in the famous Midiand cattle country of west Texas. We are now selling it in stock farming tracts. A proven stock county for thirty-five years; mild climate, no use for barns, pure water, nineteen highly nutritive grasses for grazing; within a night's journey of Fort Worth, a big cattle market. Dry farming has been successful for many years in raising grains for 'finishing' the stock. By irrigation with water pumped from wells, these grain crops have been doubled, tripled and quadrupled, providing wonderful possibilities for big money-making stock farming on a comparatively small tract with the least labor and expense. Stock farming is the big farming opportunity today. The market is undersupplied and will be for years. We have some facts and figures that will interest the experienced stock farmer and the ambitious city man who is willing to learn etock farming, Write O. W. Besides acting on an assumption that selling in the last few days had been too free, buil leaders were influenced by additional news from were influenced by additional news from India of developments unfavorable to the crop there. This, in the minds of many traders, offset improved conditions in Argentina and generally weak European markets. The market was nervous at first and weakened after a show of strength. Then came the buying rally which carried prices up again and had them there till the close.

George C. Flack states that the demand for property close to a car line and with modern conveniences was illustrated in their sale of 265 lots in the same locality in June, when every lot was sold in two days and as many more could have been disposed of. Harper & Flack have already arranged for fifteen houses, which are already started, and they expect this new addition to build at a rapid rate. The hullding restrictions only countenance good homes.

MEAL UNDER HALLUCINATION

F. E. Payeon, Macon, Mo., alightly demented, entered the Millard lunch room Wednesday evening and after ordering a meal, consisting of a cluster of pork chops, a piece of pie and seven glasses of water, tried to duck without paying for his repast. He was accested and held for Dr. George Tilden, after declaring he was a detective and had taken this means of specting the proprietor of the Millard cafe, who four years ago atole his pocket knife.

"You see, judge, my brothers are trying to get all I've got—and I haven't got anything." was as far as Payson was allowed to elucidate.

Peru Club Banquets Hundred and Sixty at Sumptuous Feast

The reception tencered the visiting teachers and representatives of the Peru State Normal school, which was held at the Rome hotel Wednesday evening, was attended by a merry host, who between the hours of 8 and 9 talked under, around and over the one subject that held an interest for all, namely, the school. Members of the Omaha Peru club who were responsible for the reception were kept decidedly busy previous to the banquet in welcoming the crowd who attended. Following the reception the Peru Normal annual banquet, at which covers were laid for 160 guests, held the attention of the visitors and a program of toasts. songs and short talks enjoyed. C. E. Benson of the class of '07 presided, while B. Clifford Hendricks, '06-'10, acted as toastmaster.

GOES TO DULUTH TO PROSECUTE DAMAGE SUIT

Tony Donohoe, Missouri Pacific yandmaster goes to Duluth, Minn., where in court there next Monday morning his suit for $50,000 damages will be called against the Lee Hotel company.

The suit brought by Mr. Donehoe arise from injuries sustained by his daughter. Cecella, aged 16 years, who, with her parents, were guests at the hotel two years ago. At that time the child was a passenger in one of the hotel elevators, and, while at the fifth floor landing, the elevator was started while she was stepping out, and she was precipitated to the bottom of the shaft, sustaining injuries that will cripple her for life. She was terribly out and bruised, and one of her legs so badly broken and crushed that six inches of the bone was removed.
