Resolutions demanding that junketing by public officials at public expense be prohibited by law; that the use of public schools for meetings be confined to improvement club meetings; recommendations that hereafter an auditorium be built in all new schools, the same to be used by the general public; resolutions protesting against the Bohemian National cemetery's enlargement of their burial ground; two bridges across the Missouri, one at Florence and one at the foot of Parnassus street, the same to be free to the public, and the reduction of street car fare to Council Bluffs to 5 cents and the elimination of the bridge toll; a demand that the school board constitute the business transacted by the Federation of Improvement Clubs at a meeting in the city council chamber Thursday night.

The Board of Education will be asked to promote Bernstein to a position as lucrative as the one he held before his demotion, the promotion to take place at the earliest possible moment. The resolution says Bernstein is an excellent disciplinarian and that he is well liked by the boys, and that the parents appreciate him.

Now Here's an Experiment

Placed in this paper purely as a test to try the real value of publicity—40 dozen pairs of Leatherette or Cashmerette Gloves. Came in from Germany—bill was lost—also record of purchase. After much effort we got the clue, but valuable time elapsed and the gloves are on hand instead of having the money in the cash drawer. Similar grades have been advertised recently at 75c and 85c pair.

Saturday whoever asks for them will be supplied up to the limit of the stock at 49c pair. Just one day only—and not at the regular Glove department—but on Special Bargain Square, near the elevator. Not a pair has been displayed previously, either on counters or in window. Now we'll see what we'll see.

DO THE PEOPLE READ ADS? We'll give another reason for this test in Sunday's papers. Oh, there's method, all right, in this.

A line or two as a reminder from the basement: Embroidered Pillow Cases, boxed, just right for Holiday giving, $1.29 instead of $1.50, and only six weeks till Christmas.

A day or two ago we received a letter from Raphael Tuck & Sons Co., Limited—Fine Art and Book Publishers, 122 and 124 Fifth Ave., New York City, as follows: "In reply to yours in regard to time necessary to execute orders for Private Greeting Cards, please be advised that we can promise to deliver your orders in two or three days after being received. Assuring you of our best service, we remain, Raphael Tuck & Sons Co."

People of good taste are following more and more the custom, prevalent in Europe, of sending out their own Private Greeting Cards at Christmas. We have a book of selected cards, the production of these famous Art Publishers—probably the largest of their kind in the world. Ask to look thru the book, which you will find at Stationery Section, and we are reasonably sure you will want to order.

MEN'S SALE SATURDAY. Union Suits—wool and mercerized—numerous colors—various weights. Many sold from $2.50 to $4.00. Saturday, $1.98 each.

Special display of Baskets in the basement, from all over the world (almost), that is, from the countries where attractive baskets are made. A special in Waste Baskets at 98c each.

We Would Cover the Hands of 1,000

Saturday, November 8th, at 10 in the morning, Thomas Kilpatrick & Co will place on sale about 1,000 pairs, of Fine Kid and Lamb Gloves.

We have had many a Glove Sale, each one differing from the glove sales so common in our city in many particulars. First and most important, there is absolutely no faking. No wonderful purchases from the Customs; no wrecking of trains or fairy stories of bankrupt stocks—but sales of first-class merchandise, with reasons given (which were legitimate) for every price reduction.

This time there is a reason, also. From our various recent sales there were odd lots left. From our own stock many pairs of numerous makes discontinued. In some cases lots confined to one or two colors, or two or three sizes, but an aggregate of about 1,000 pairs, and when we say about it means very near, perhaps a little under or a little over. A few pairs may show the teeniest bit of soil from showing; essentially, however, perfect in every particular—perhaps a few show that one glove was tried on, but if so, in no other sense affected—taken from the stock which sold at $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and a few as high as $3.00 pair.

Yours on Saturday at 98c pair. NONE FITTED ON SATURDAY. TEACHERS WILL GLADLY AVAIL THEMSELVES OF THIS OPPORTUNITY; and, by the way, do you realize, only about 6 weeks to Christmas! Rather timely, ain't it?

JUNIOR SECTION—Louisa Alecott's "Little Women" would revel in our Coat Sale in the Junior Section on Saturday, for is the sale for women of small stature? Slim figures! In other words, Big Girls, or "Little Women." Assortment includes the popular weaves—Boucles, Chinchillas, Cheviots, etc—and every garment fit to bear the stamp "Kilpatrick."

One lot at $10.75—ordinarily would be $15.00. Other lot at $13.75—ordinarily would be $20.00.

Taking orders now for Skirts made to measure, tailored by men, $2.25 for the making. Dress Goods from which to make them at sale prices. Our Skirts fit, or you cannot have them.

We would like to close out every fine Trimmed Hat in our Children's Section Saturday. These hats were gotten up for us with special care—good quality, not such as are found on sale; refined in character, and still chic in style. Whether at $6.00, $7.50, $10.00 or $11.50, all will be offered at $5.00 each.

We are again prepared to take a limited number of orders for one and two-piece Dresses. If you have had dressmaker troubles, "forget them"—$7.50 for the making. First measured, first made; and here also we assure you of a fit. Dress Goods reduced, too.

Monday begins our Room-Making Sale of Bedding. Each year we give large space in our basement salesroom to the display of Fine China. We have an unusually large stock of Blankets. They take up much room; and then, there are the Comfortables—bulky goods, also. There must be keen cutting to clear the decks for Action on China. There'll be no faking, no fairy stories, either with regard to purchase, what our cash did, or quality. Never that kind of buncombe in Kilpatrick's ads.

Now a Few Sweet Words—COBBS

Hundreds of people already, when they see the word, "Cobb," think instinctively of Candy—not the pail kind for pale people—but they think of good candy, fit to eat, good for children. And so, Saturday by Saturday, the clientele increases—men, women and children—so numerous, indeed, that back of the counters the salespeople can scarcely move, but nevertheless, they are courteous—the glad kind, fit members for a Polly Anna club.

Mr. Cobb just whispered in my ear: Black Walnut Taffy. There's something to conjure with; absolutely irresistible at 20c the box; the usual price is 40 cents. Now listen: "Made rich with New Orleans molasses; cooked to the right consistency; chock full of new black walnut meats.

Here's Another—And he said this real loud, "Butter-cups." Delicious, and we know it, for we've tasted 'em. Mint and other flavors, and that nice chewy center, which keeps us a chewing and a chewing; 40c usually; Saturday, 25c.

To Remind you, for Sunday nibbling for self and callers: Superfine Chocolates and Bon Bons, Dipped Grapes, Dipped Brazil Nuts, Salted Almonds and Pecans, Family Caramels, rich with real cream; Opera Creams. You'll remember what we told you before about these. French Caramels, Mint Marshmallows.

The Cobbs, Mr. and Mrs., take all kinds of catering orders and relieve you of all care and responsibility, and catering will be done in the Cobb way, which means correct.

Thomas Kilpatrick & Co.
