Only brief comment was made in the report on the contempt of court sentences pending against President Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison. A review of the case was given, but aside from declaring that the "opinion of the district court of appeals did not give a decision to the fundamental issues upon which organized labor had been asking a judicial ruling," the report refrains from comment on the court's findings.

Problem of Unemployed. Urgent need for the solution of the oblem of the unemployed was brought to the attention of the convention. Sympathy with their condition was expressed and the belief was voiced that the unemployed might be used in road con-ing daily of greater importance. Legislation to that end was urged. Because of the international and worldwide trend in the organization of labor, group of selfish, mercenary interests the report stated the federation was heartily in sympathy with movements to
